

'Christmas in Television' to Be Broadcast

A Christmas program written by the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Wenske will be presented by the choir of First Lutheran Church, Anacapa and Sonoma avenues, next Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Titled "The Christmas Story in Television," it will be broadcast by a special public address system which will be set up in the church.

Authentic slides of the story of Christmas, including some well-known paintings, will be shown on the screen. The story itself and the meaning of the pictures along with special Christmas anthems will be broadcast while the entire church is in darkness. This will allow each one in the audience to go back many years ago in picture and song without any distraction.

The senior choir under the direction of Roy Dobrick will broadcast two sets of anthems along with Christmas carols which also will be beautifully portrayed in song and antiphonal reading.

The junior choir also will take part in the program and one of their special numbers will be the "Christmas Lullaby" by Graber.

The public is most cordially invited to this Christmas treat.

BAPTIST CHURCH WILL HEAR YULE MESSAGE SUNDAY

Rev. Clarence D. Scott, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will speak Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock church service, using the sermon topic "Born in Bethlehem."

The choir will sing "When the Lord of Love Was Born," and a solo will be sung by Miss Charlotte Griggs.

The Christmas program will be presented at 8:30 in the evening. The Intermediate Girls' Club will hold their Christmas party Monday at the home of Joyce Bernhard, 1914 West 262 street, and the Women's Missionary group will hold a holiday party at the home of Mrs. Connie Adkinson, 115 Harbor Hills, Wednesday at 10 a.m. Intermediate B.T.U. party, in keeping with the holidays, will be at the home of Mrs. Ted Smith, 2054 West 264 street, Monday evening, Dec. 20, and a special business meeting for members of the church

Yule Tree to Be Presented to Polio Ward

Patients in the polio ward at Harbor General Hospital—most of them children—are to have a Christmas tree as a gift from the Torrance Junior Red Cross. It was disclosed this week following election of new officers from the coming year.

Officers elected for the new year are George Whitting, president; Vivian Lee, vice president; Donna Hatfield, secretary; and Gordon Stanley, treasurer.

Presentation of the tree, along with gifts for the children, will be made by the new president. A Christmas party also is being planned in Torrance.

Reporting on the chapter's 1948 activities, Secretary Vivian Lee said that two trips have been made so far. The first was a joint meeting with the Harbor Bay chapter in San Pedro, attended by Elsie Booth, Max Robinson, Elizabeth Middleton, Dorothy Fuller, and Miss Francis Lawrence.

The other meeting was in Glendale, and was attended by Whiting, Max Robinson, Elsie Booth, Shirley Booth, Donna Weber, Elizabeth Middleton and Nancy Jessome.

HYMN FESTIVAL IS SCHEDULED FOR DEC. 28

The Coordinating Council Music Committee of San Pedro will conduct a Hymn Festival at San Pedro High School Tuesday night, Dec. 28, at 7:30 o'clock.

The congregations of all churches of the harbor area are invited to sing their most beloved hymns. Assisting will be the Los Angeles City Orchestra, whose members are employees of the city, county and state.

Arthur Babich will direct the singing, and Lloyd Stone of the Los Angeles city bureau of music will be vocal soloist.

Adversity has ever been considered the state in which a man most easily becomes acquainted with himself, then, especially, being free from flatterers.—Johnson will be held Tuesday, Dec. 21. Members of the auditing committee will meet the same evening at the home of Harry Miller, 303 Harbor Hills.

SAYS MEN LAG—The sex ratio of church participation is off balance, the Rev. Frederick A. McDonald of New York declared in an address recently to laymen of the church. He claimed that 65 women to 35 men are actively engaged in church work and urged that men busy themselves in church affairs.

By desiring what is perfectly good... we are part of the power against evil, widening the skirts of light and making the struggle with darkness narrower.—George Eliot

Four-Month Cruise Ends for Sub Crew

John Middlemas, engineman second class, USN, husband of Mrs. Cecilia Middlemas of Torrance, Calif., is serving aboard the submarine USS Cabezon, which recently returned to the submarine base, Pearl Harbor, T. H., after four months of extended operations.

During her latest cruise, the Cabezon spent six days at Monterey, Calif., six weeks operating from the Naval Shipyard, Hunter's Point, Calif., conducting Naval Reserve training cruises, and several weeks with the submarine squadrons operating from San Diego.

As a climax to her extended cruise, the Cabezon sailed into Seattle, and there made preparation for the fleet exercises which were conducted in the Pacific.

One Torrance Man Over Top in Bar Exam

Dudley W. Gray, 17103 Ardath avenue, Torrance, is listed among the 475 men and women who passed the last bar examination in October, according to the State Board of Bar examiners. Gray is a former Torrance real estate broker.

The results show that 78 per cent of the recent graduates of California accredited law schools taking the examination were successful.

The committee will move their admission to the practice of the law at the sessions of the Supreme Court of California to be held in Los Angeles on Jan. 4, 1949, and in San Francisco on Jan. 11, 1949.
