Mr. and Mrs. Paul Biller arrived home from a San Francisco honeymoon this week to establish their residence at 1142 Seventh street, San Pedro. Mrs. Biller is the former Lona Lee Manlove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Manlove, 779 Twenty-fourth street, San Pedro.

C. E. Guild Meeting Set

Members of Central Evangelical Guild will meet in Guild Hall at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 12. Mrs. Alice Spehner, president, conducting the session.

Devotionals will be directed by Mrs. Roloff and hostesses for the social hour will be Mesdames Chris Ferguson and Edith Hudson.

Society Plans Future Activities

A large attendance marked the monthly meeting of the W.S.C.s at Wayside chapel Tuesday morning. Mrs. Peter Schmidt, president, conducted the business meeting when plans were made to purchase carpeting for the church sanctuary and completed other important plans for the months ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Goodell, Rev. and Mrs. Roger W. Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Bell will select the carpet.

Fund will be set aside by society to assist the Methodist Youth Fellowship in attending summer camp and the collection taken at the monthly silver tea will be sent through CARE and one of the cooperating agencies to the German Methodist women.

A kidnap breakfast will be held next week with proceeds to go to the Youth Fellowship Camp fund. Mrs. G. H. May and Mrs. Zella Butterfield will be in charge of the Jan. 27 tea and a benefit dinner will be served with the cooperation of the chapel choir with proceeds to go for the purchase of new choir robes in the near future.

SCHILDMEYERS HOSTS AT NEW YEAR'S PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Schildmeyer, 1938 W. 262nd street, were gracious hosts New Year's eve when they entertained a group of neighbors at a party. Games, including whoopie, were played during the evening with prizes going to Charles Farrar, Ben Jenkin and Mrs. Pearl Everett.

At midnight a bounteous buffet supper was served to Mrs. Pearl Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Wilkins, Mrs. Irene Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrar and daughter Charleen, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jenkin.

MR. AND MRS. FRED HORRIDGE

Miss Gretta Welch Tells Vows With Fred Horridge

Married recently at the bedside of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Strunk, Fred Horridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horridge, 2165 W. 245th street, took as his bride Miss Gretta Welch, daughter of Frank Welch, 911 Portola avenue, Torrance.

The Horridge home was decorated in white chrysanthemums for the ceremony performed by Rev. Eugene C. Williams, pastor of Calvary Assembly of God church.

Attending the happy couple were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daifron. The bride and her attendant wore blue suits complemented by corsages of white gardenias.

A reception for 20 guests followed the ceremony, with the Council PTA's Varied Plans

Torrance Council, of First District P.T.A., will hold an executive board meeting Tuesday, Jan. 11 in the Teachers' room of the science building.

The December board meeting was luncheon for 40 enjoyed in the patio of Mrs. W. E. Bowen's home.

Music for group singing of carols was provided by a record player furnished by Mrs. Nadine Nichol.

Represented at the delightful affair were members of Torrance High School, Elementary, Fern Avenue, Perry School and Walteria P.T.A. units.

F. A. Applegate, principal of Torrance Evening High School, presented an outline for parent education classes to begin in March. Child psychology and related subjects will be presented. Another guest was Postmaster Earl C. Conner, who presented a plea for assistance with the annual March of Dimes campaign. Each unit president accepted the responsibility of launching the campaign in her particular school.

Smorgasbord Is Featured

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Unander of 1442 West 214th street, were New Year hosts at a three-course Swedish dinner. Smorgasbord entree and lutefisk were followed by traditional rice pudding.

A color scheme of blue and yellow was used in the table decorations.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Maria Ytterberg, Eagle Rock; Mrs. Anna Unander, Lynwood; Misses Alvina and Hortense Gissler, Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Swedberg of Lomita.

Mrs. H. P. Nelson Is Complimented at Housewarming Party

Mrs. H. P. Nelson, of 1104 Portola avenue, was honored when a group of ladies of the Lutheran church arranged a housewarming party at her new home.

Following a delicious luncheon, games furnished diversion. Climax of the afternoon was the presentation of two beautiful pictures for the honoree's new home.

Present were Mesdames Cora Schultz, Anna Carlson, Norma Anderson, Dorothy Mearling, Zoe Dethiers, Anna Hauck, Ruth Kasten, Nettie Bortem, Anna Bay, Emma Evans, Helene Miller, Clara Conner, Ruth Letz, Flora Schultz and the Misses Emma Wenske and Alpha Strempeke.

Vacationers Return;

Mr. and Mrs. Bronson C. Buxton and his sister, Mrs. Clara B. Tyson, spent the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. Virginia B. Scott and sons in Fresno.

Upon their return Mrs. Tyson entertained at an attractively appointed dinner party in her home, 1515 Arlington avenue. Gay Yule decorations were used throughout the rooms and for the table set for Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Buxton of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Schlick and children, of Temple City; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Buxton of this city, and the hostess.

San Pedro PTA Council Now Boasts 5114 Members

Lomita-San Pedro P.T.A. Council members heard Mrs. Charles B. Humphrey, membership chairman, announce at council meeting held Tuesday morning at Barton Hill School, that they had a membership of 5114. This, Mrs. Humphrey stated, is a part of the Tenth-District P.T.A. membership of 185,684 computed Dec. 14. Mrs. E. R. Walker presided.

Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, child welfare chairman, reported on the successful Christmas parties held at the development schools in this area; Mrs. Donald Olson, music chairman, reported that future Mother's Chorus rehearsals would be held at the Anderson Memorial in San Pedro, the first to be Jan. 17 in the clubroom, second floor, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. All members are urged to attend as state convention music will be presented for the first rehearsal.

Other chairmen reporting were Mesdames John Garner, Tenth District newsette chairman; J. C. Miller, radio; Donald Olson, parliamentarian and E. L. Thomas, publicity.

Mrs. Walker told of the supplementary Community Chest drive to be held Jan. 10, 11, 12 and 13, and urged all P.T.A. members to assist. Unless the Community Chest quota is obtained the vast feeding program of Tenth District will be curtailed as the district is a member of the Chest. Mrs. Walker stated. The district feeding bill for November was $14,263.00, she said.

Mrs. Hazel Stanton, coordinating chairman, reported on a recent Los Angeles coordinating conference, enumerating their many projects undertaken, among which the Teen-canteen of San Pedro is numbered.

Rabbi William Kramer addressed the meeting telling of the formation of the San Pedro Town Hall group. The first meeting will be Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. in the San Pedro High School. The first panel discussion will be on the subject, "Do Our Children Receive an American Standard Education?"

Mrs. Don Wolf, program chairman, introduced the speaker of the morning, Mrs. Marvin Scott of Harbor City, motion picture chairman, who spoke in behalf of the approved motion pictures. Only approved pictures should be seen by children, she stated. A list is published in each issue of the Parent-Teacher magazine and each Tenth District bulletin. "The Secret Hand," "Three Musketeers" and "Paleface" won District approval award and "Family Honeymoon," "Once in the Afternoon" and "Words and Music" are approved family pictures.

"Adventure Parade," first class radio show has been discontinued, Mrs. Scott told her au-
