

ECC Wins 20 of 42 Second Season Basketball Games

With a record of twenty wins and twenty-two losses, Coach John Morrow's El Camino College Warriors turned in the best season in the school's short record. The Warriors who finished in second place in the Metropolitan Conference placed with six wins and two losses. They were dropped from the Western Junior College Conference tournament at Compton following two straight losses—the first to Compton by a score of 84-53 and the second to Fullerton whom the Warriors had previously defeated by a score of 74-62.

In the tournament efforts, the Warriors were hampered by the loss of Clarence Witt, their All-Conference Center, who withdrew from school and by the illness of Ed Kennedy, Warrior stalwart who was selected on the second team of the All-Metropolitan Conference team.

Columbia Wins 'Sudden Death' Thriller and Minor Loop Title

By GEORGE WHITING

Hershel Dean hit the second overtime period to give Columbia a slight 32-30 victory over the Crenshaws and possession of the second minor division title in a titanic tussle last Thursday evening on the high school hardwoods. The marathonlike contest was not only the longest tilt of the current season, but was by far the most thrilling.

The action was sensational from start to finish. Columbia exploded early in the opening quarter and racked up a large 13-0 lead before their opponents could dent the scoreboard. The winners maintained their terrific lead and held a 19-6 advantage at the intermission period.

Going into the fourth period with an apparently safe 26-16 lead, the Columbia outfit looked like heavy favorites to win easily. However, Don Hovda and the rest of the Crenshaws retaliated with an uphill comeback. Hovda connected for eight digits in the final minutes and smashed in the tying field goal with but seven seconds remaining in the battle.

The game then entered a three minute overtime session. Frank Merrill of the Crenshaws fouled out with five fouls, with one minute remaining. Meanwhile, both quintets had failed to score. Since Bill Kantsky and Maurice Ford of the opposing fives also had been booted from the tilt earlier in the fourth quarter, both teams were undermanned and Earl Terry came from the grandstands to enter the Crenshaw lineup in his street clothes.

Bill Borgelt gave Columbia a 30-28 advantage with 30 seconds to go while William Heston quickly evened up things five seconds later.

Following the regulation three minute overtime, the fans and players both grew tense as a second "sudden death" overtime got underway, in which the first field goal for either team would mean victory.

With only 30 seconds gone in the sudden death period, Borgelt fouled out and Columbia was left with but four players.

The four-man Columbia outfit fought desperately as both teams struggled back and forth as the minutes ticked on. The spectators went wild as

Rascals Win Major League Crown in Razzle-Dazzle 1-point Finale

Eddie Cole, Torrance High coach, sank a vital free throw with two seconds remaining to give Ragsdale's Rascals a hard earned 49-48 decision over the National Supply Company and the City League major division basketball championship last Monday night on the local courts.

Sharp and rough action dominated the play which was viewed before a large throng.

The score was tied on nine different occasions.

Both squads concluded the tilt with but four players. Fifty-seven personal fouls were called in the cage thriller and four men from both outfits were removed via the whistle.

Mickey Colmer throttled the champs with a 17-point scoring total—11 of them came in a third quarter spurt. Fran Munsterman and Bob Fersenius both garnered an unlucky 13 for the Nats.

Seventy-five field goals were attempted by each outfit with the winners collecting 18 and the losers 14. National led in the throw department. The Nats connected on 20 out of 33 attempts and the Rascals hit 13 of their 36 tries.

After a 7-7 deadlock at the end of the opening quarter, Buzz Hunter, Rascal forward, bucketed a gift shot to give his teammates a 8-7 lead. Fersenius momentarily gave the losers possession of a 14-12 advantage midway in the second quarter as he plucked the strings for five quick digits.

Howard Huizing and Hunter quickly responded with two charity tosses apiece and the Ragsdale five coasted to a 21-17 lead at halftime.

Colmer went to town following the rest period and the victors took a decisive 34-22 advantage. However, the determined Nationalities rallied and deadlocked the count at 36-all, with eight minutes remaining in the contest, when Fran Munsterman dumped in a two-pointer.

Tony Prodan, although playing with an infected foot, swished the nets for a field goal and the Rascals captured a 38-36 lead. Leigh Harline and Fersenius retaliated and both drove home two-pointers to shove the Nats two tallies in front. Hunter responded with another free throw while Duke Kollmeyer sank two one-pointers and the losers went ahead, 42-39.

Tartar Nine Opens Season Against LBJ

Raising the curtain on the 1919 Bay League season, the Torrance High varsity nine journeys to Long Beach Jordan this afternoon to meet the Panthers. The host school is favored over the locals.

This year's play finds the circuit teams playing only one round so anything can happen.

Because of a schedule switch, Coach Bob Cosby of the Tartars only yesterday learned of today's contest. A little surprised at this advanced opening date, he will have to make some rapid squad cutting and settle on the doubtful starting position.

Cosby yesterday stated, "Win or lose, the Torrance outfit promises their opponents they will know they have been in a ball game."

Right-fighter Max Robinson will miss the Jordan battle because of a death in his family. Otherwise, the home town gang is ready and willing to overcome their enemies.

Snafu Situation Forces National Out of Tourney

Due to a misunderstanding of the tournament rules, the National Supply cage five dropped out of the Whittier Municipal Tourney last week after splitting two contests.

An official announced previous to the tournament that two former high school players were eligible to play for the Nat squad. The tournament manager later repudiated this statement and declared the questioned players ineligible for further play. The weakened local outfit decided not to remain in the consolation round.

Brilliant new DE SOTO gets tremendous welcome from public!

Come in and see "The Car Designed With YOU in Mind"

IT'S BRAND-NEW . . . so new that there aren't many on the streets yet. But already it's a tremendous success. And it's easy enough to see why.

Everybody wants a smart, good-looking modern car. But most of us don't want to pay a penalty for being modern. We want more room . . . more comfort . . . more visibility . . . not less.

That's where De Soto scores. It's got those long, low lines. But you don't have to wriggle into it. It has big wide doors. Plenty of headroom, too. The roof won't scrape your hat, no matter where you sit. It's roomier than ever.

It's no use having bigger windows and windshields unless you can see out of them. In the new De Soto you can . . . because you're sitting on chair-high seats. Even a short person can see over the steering wheel. Even a six-footer won't hit his knees on it. You don't have to enlarge your garage to hold the new De Soto. You can still change a tire yourself. And a dent in the fender doesn't mean an expensive body repair job. Come in and see this wonderful car that lets you drive without shifting. Compare it with any other at any price. Then decide.
