

INVESTITURE . . . Brownie Troop No. 631, sponsored by Fern Avenue PTA Friday afternoon held a formal investiture at Recreation Center, under leadership of Mrs. Carol Humphreys and Mrs. Edith Rowe. Brownie colors, green, brown, and yellow, predominated at the attractively decorated center and a lovely cake was a special attraction for the girls. Presentation of pins and membership cards preceded group singing and the formal closing ceremony. Mothers were served cake and punch by their young daughters. Pictured in the top photo are: Marcell Clayton, Susan Higdon, Terry Lou Tucker, and Janet Smith. In the lower photograph are: left to right, front row: Terry Lou Tucker, Susan Higdon, Carol Shinoda, Marcell Clayton, Sharon Carter, Janice Lambert, Barbara Krauser, Janet Smith, Paula Bischoff, and Sandra Sohn. Back row, left to right: Sharon Jean Giles, Peggy Neely, Virginia Sandstrom, Verna Christofferson, Ardith Louise Lee, and Patty Gull.

Garden Club Sets Annual Flower Show

Mrs. Romilda Scholl, president of Torrance Terrace Garden Club, wishes to thank all those who supported the annual plant sale held Saturday at the entrance to Levy's Department Store.

Proceeds of the sale will be used to defray expenses of the club's third annual flower show set for May 21 and 22 in civic auditorium, according to Mrs. Estelle Ewalt, publicity chairman.

Those places in our highway system where roads meet and cross are places of danger for the motorist, declares the National Automobile Club. If the motorist would keep himself safe, he should use caution at the crossroads.

Crafts and Recreation in Camp Fire Girls Program

Youth activities sponsored by the Normont PTA are arousing the interest of adults as well as children.

The Blue Bird Group, sponsored by the PTA, celebrated St. Patrick's Day with a tea for their mothers in the kindergarten room of Normont school.

March 17 is the birthday of the National Organization of all Blue Bird groups and in honor of the occasion Mrs. Margaret Tremble, Field Director, attended the tea and gave an interesting talk on the founding of Blue Bird groups.

Entertainment was plentiful and varied, with two piano solos by Linda Griffin and Sharon Tremble, singing of "Buttons and Ears" by Stella Montes; and a group including Loretta Cole, Mary Ann Woodside, Marian Christensen, and Margaret Geiser who sang "Did You Ever See a Fish?" Acrobatic numbers were given by Dolores Killingstad and Mary Garrison and the entire

Orange PTA Elects Mrs. Robert Kellogg President

Mrs. Robert P. Kellogg, press chairman for the past two years of Orange St. PTA and a member of Orange St. PTA Mothersingers, was elected president of the unit at the annual observance of Father's Night held by the association Thursday evening.

She will succeed Mrs. Robert Hultz, who has served the organization as president for the past two years. Installation will take place June 16th.

Other officers elected were Mesdames A. D. Scott, D. O. Jones, Esther Anderson, vice-presidents; Donald Brown, secretary; Floyd French, treasurer; Harry Kanaster, auditor; and J. J. Harris, historian.

Other business for the evening included a report from Safety Chairman Mrs. J. R. Jones, who said that city and county representatives of the traffic department inspected the safety problem around Orange Street School and made recommendations to have signs, indicating school zones, placed at the intersection of Walnut and 259th st. and Eshelman and 259 st. Other requests made by the Association are still being investigated, the chairman reported.

Lioness Club Hears Talk on Chinaware

Members of Torrance Lioness Club heard an interesting and instructive talk on chinaware at their meeting Tuesday evening following a brief business session conducted by Estelle Ewalt, president.

Presented by Mrs. Bernice Moskos, first vice president, the speaker, Mrs. Olga Alt, of Long Beach, gave a graphic history of chinaware and demonstrated formal and informal table settings.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses for the evening, Jean Olsen, Viola Ramer, and Dora Perkins.

Chairman, C. W. Brookesby, Robert Kellogg, W. M. Schindmeyer and F. W. Learnan.

Robert Hultz and D. O. Jones presided over the silver service during the refreshment hour when fancy sandwiches and coffee were served.
