

Tartars' Football Mentor Faces New, Green Squad

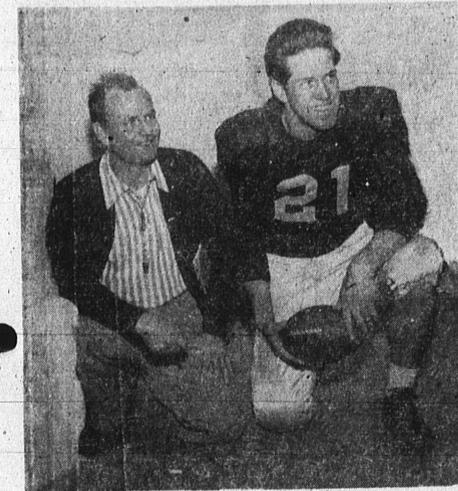

The four seasons of the year, answered little Johnny, are winter, spring, summer, and football season!

The latter of which will begin locally this Monday when 40 boys queue up to draw equipment at Torrance High School.

Coach Eddie Cole cupped his hands at his mouth this week and made with a fearsome yodel to call all pigskin candidates to practice at the local high school.

Though there may be safety in numbers, Cole would feel a little safer if he had more experienced talent answering his pigskin call.

Among the 40 lads who are expected to don shoulder and hip falsies are only three with any varsity experience.

Heading the small list of known talent is Pete Douroux, All-Bay tackle of last year. Comes then Boyd Crawford, captain and signal caller of the '49 Tartar grid squad. Almost certain for an end spot is Wendell Vaughn—a carry-over from last season.

Missing from the turnout will be Jim Taylor who made third-string All-Bay in his sophomore year. Taylor broke his neck in an auto accident early this summer.

Outside of those three spots the positions on the squad are as wide open as the plains of Texas.

Uniforms will be issued, says Mentor Cole, beginning at 9 a.m. Monday. All candidates must pass a physical exam given by Dr. V. (for Vitamin) Markham, the school medic, before a set of togs will be issued. Also a prerequisite is the payment of $5 for CIF insurance—a student council ultimatum.

First actual workout is slated for the afternoon.

Rex Welch, line mentor of the Tartars, will join the squad when his duties as summer recreational director are completed.

Practice sessions will be held at the high school, at least until school starts at which time the gridsters will move to the city park. The new turf at the high school, though in fair enough shape to stand once a week games, is still a little too tender to take the daily beating of practice sessions.

Dick Turner to Cavort in All-Star Grid Classic

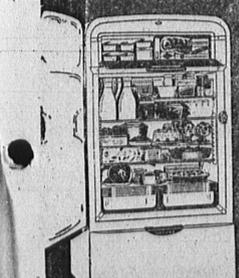

Dick Turner, Torrance High's All-Bay League plunging half-back, is slated for plenty of gridiron action this Friday night in San Diego when the CIF All-Stars clash with the All-Stars from the L.A. City League.

Turner was one of three Bay League lads named for a berth on the CIF squad. Among his running mates are Steve Glick, Beverly Hills' All-Bay, All-Southern California (twice) and the boy who showed his heels to the Tartars last season—Larry Neil, dusky scabback from Santa Monica who caught THAT pass which whipped the local lads last fall.

Catalina Books Special Deer Hunting Season

There will be a special deer hunting season on Catalina Island from Nov. 1 to Jan. 31, both dates inclusive—but in order to hunt you have to be lucky first.

The California Fish and Game Commission will draw by lot from a list of applicants—and 150 hunters will be given sanction each week. The weeks will begin on Monday, and last through Sunday. The permits will entitle the hunter to kill a deer of either sex during that week.

Long "Road" Schedule Slated for El Camino

El Camino's Warriors will continue in their "road team" role this autumn while work continues on their new grid stadium. On paper, six games of Camino's 10-game schedule are booked "at home." These games will be played at Inglewood's Sentinel Field or at Seabawk Stadium, Redondo Beach.

Anniversary Sweepstakes Head "Rod" Racing At Carrell Oval

It's third anniversary time at Carrell Speedway, 174th and Vermont, Gardena, tomorrow (Friday) night. And oddly enough, the date also marks the third anniversary for the California Roadster Hotrod Racing Association.

So, Manager Emmett Malloy is staging a 100-lap Anniversary Sweepstakes to headline the regular Friday night CRA "Rod" racing show.

Jim Rigby, hottest driver at the track in recent weeks, will be gunning his highly-tuned mount for a repeat of last week's main event. Trials open at 7 p.m., with the Trophy Dash getting the green flag at 8:30.

Spare and A Strike Does It for National Paint Lady Bowlers

With a spare and a strike needed to win the Ladies Handicap, Inez Kvilyang, of the National Paint and Wallpaper bowling team, stepped up to the fourth line last Friday night and rolled—a spare and a strike to help her team win the title by two points.

Carl Pagac's (he's the girls' sponsor) winning warhorse knocked over pins in the next two alleys.

Other lovelies who did a capable job of rolling were Clarice Ossea, Alma Jean Bray, Mariha Ossea, and Marilyn Bylesby. They helped keep National in the league lead nearly all the way.

Final standings of the league which rolled at Torrance Bowl were:

Team	Won	Lost
National Paint	55	29
Gary's Jewelers	53	31
Torrance Bowl	51	43
Ray's Appliance	45	29
National Electric	43	36
Dick's Service	37	47
Larry's Cleaners	28	56
Moose Women	18	66

This Friday the girls of the winning team will receive the League Trophy and a Sportsmanship Trophy from their sponsor.

DOVE HUNTING IN STATE NOW OPEN

Dove hunting season in every part of California opens at noon today (Thursday) and continues through Sept. 30.

After the opening day, shooting hours will be from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. Limit is 10 per day and 10 in possession. Best bets for hunters in Southern California are said to be in Porterville, Wasco, Antelope Valley, Indio, Blythe and Imperial counties.

College Adds Industrial Courses

The completion of a new $104,000 shop building has made it possible for El Camino to announce a list of new technical and industrial courses, in addition to those previously offered for the fall term, starting September 15, according to Dr. Lyle Tussing, El Camino director of instruction.

Included in the new curricula are body and fender, machine shop, maintenance mechanics, radio and television, ornamental horticulture, poultry raising, and general agriculture. Day and evening courses consist of television maintenance and repair, machinist handbook, machine shop practice, blueprint reading, automotive maintenance, cabinet making, flat and structural layout and foremanship training.

Registration of students intending to attend classes this fall will be made on September 12, 13, and 14 from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. at the college. Students desiring information on the curriculum or individual courses may consult counselors and members of the instructional staff at the college during the
