

Customers' Corner

If you were hiring someone to run a checkout stand, what qualities would you look for?

At A&P we take pride in the fact that our checkers are courteous, prompt and efficient.

But above all, we train them to be accurate so that they will know the correct price of each item, charge you the correct total and give you the correct change.

If we should ever make a mistake or if you have any suggestions that will help us maintain our strict standards of accuracy, please let us know.

LOVELY BRIDE-ELECT IS SHOWER HONOREE

Complimenting Miss Arline Atwood, bride-elect of Mr. Albert Palmer, whose marriage will be solemnized September 18 in an afternoon ceremony in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, her grandmother, Mrs. Olea Davis and her aunt, Mrs. Edna Bone entertained at an enjoyable pre-nuptial shower at the home of the latter, 2312 Dominguez avenue.

A large pink parasol, ornamented with fresh roses, miniature bridal dolls, and a pink iced cake, inscribed "Arline and Al" were highlights of the decorative theme.

Following entertainment, individual ice cream pies, cake and coffee were served.

Beautiful gifts were presented to Miss Atwood by Meses, Earl Palmer, Los Angeles; Mable Mott, Hollywood; Delbert Myers, Waltham; Ruth Butch and Jack McKinney, Lomita; P. S. Cruze, Sally Jenkins, Daisy Handel, J. W. Wayt, Alice Nixon, Elizabeth Wayt, John Garper, Harold Buck, Irene Rucker, L. W. Atwood, and Miss Janet Atwood all of Torrance.

Friday Club To Assist With Fiesta

Executive board members of Friday Morning Study Club of San Pedro met for a pre-season luncheon at which they voted whole-hearted support of the Fisherman's Fiesta, September 8-11.

Mrs. William McWhinnie Jr., board member who is on the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division committee for the fiesta, asked members to attend, and to bring their friends.

The luncheon was in the home of Mrs. Russell Kerr. Mrs. Montelle S. Ogg, president, opened the sessions. Membership renewal was the topic of the afternoon with Mrs. McWhinnie Jr. reporting.

Mrs. Elmer L. Higgs, past president and civic chairman, told of the annual civic program now in the planning stage. She reminded the group that memorial cards, proceeds of which go into the Cultural Loan Foundation for worthy students are available.

A membership tea, first event of the study club season, is tentatively set for September 23.

VACATIONING

Taking a vacation to South Dakota and Iowa to visit with relatives and friends are Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Sands of 1810 254th street. Among points of interest to be touched in their trek will be Salt Lake City and the Black Hills of So. Dakota.

RUNNING SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkins, 1937 26th street, with Donna Jeanne and Dale, are vacationing at Running Springs.

BEGONIA SOCIETY LEADER

Elected to the national board of the American Begonia Society at the annual election and installation of officers held August 27 at Ventura, were:

W. E. Walton, Torrance, member of Inglewood Branch, president; Frank S. Moore, Glendale Branch, vice-president; and Calvin Trowbridge, Inglewood Branch, treasurer. Appointive officers also were named.

The bid of Inglewood to host the 1950 convention was accepted. Mrs. Al Choate, also a member of Inglewood Branch, was sweepstakes winner in the Begonia Competitive Show, an interesting highlight of the three-day convention, held in the Little Theater of Ventura College.

Dahlia Show Slated For Sunday 4th

More than 700 varieties will be shown in the fields and cut flowers will be displayed. Everyone is invited.

VISITS OREGON

Michael Smith, son of Mrs. Evelyn Smith, Huestress of the Flight Strip, is vacationing in Oregon.

Silver Crest Rebekahs Schedule Busy Calendar

September promises to be an unusually busy month for Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge No. 295. At their last meeting, members accepted September 12 as the date for the official visit of Deputy President Mamie Rupe; Sunny South Lodge has invited the musician of Silver Crest Lodge to be guest officer for their courtesy night, September 7; plans are in progress for a ham dinner to be held Thursday, September 29, and Vice Grand Esther Larrat announced that there will be a "kidnap" breakfast in the near future.

The September 29 dinner will be open to the public. A donation of $1.25 will be asked for adult servings, and children's helpings will be 65 cents. Tickets for the dinner will be available soon and all members will have them to sell. Volunteer workers for this affair are Petrina Sheldon and Sarah and Harry Neukaemper. Initiation has been postponed until September 26, and at that time those who have been accepted to receive the Rebekah degree will be notified to attend.

Noble Grand Alice Tibbet suggested that a Friendship Night be held on October 24, and the lodge secretary has been instructed to prepare a list of lodges that will participate.

After the meeting, which was held at the Woman's Clubhouse in Redondo Beach, refreshments were served and the birthday song was sung in honor of Louise Dayton, Alice Tibbet and Walter Tibbet.

Junior Red Cross Group Attends Summer Classes

Among Lomita members of Los Angeles Chapter's Junior Red Cross attending summer class, August 13 to 20 at Camp Seeley were Courtland Meyers, president of Narbonne Junior Red Cross; Silvia Woodruff, Carmen Ochoa, and Marlene Schildmeyer.

At these classes all participants are given excellent training in Red Cross technique. Adding interest for the youthful group was evening recreation. The class was divided into groups which attended Red Cross and variety shows, and also indulged in a great deal of swimming. Another highlight was the appearance of Evelyn Burwell, well-known Los Angeles pianist, who came up especially to entertain them. She is widely acclaimed for her piano programs in veterans hospitals.
