SOUTH BAY-HARBOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA REHEARSES TONIGHT

South Bay-Harbor Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Ignace Hilsberg, world-famous pianist and musical director, who recently accepted leadership of the group, will go into rehearsal at 7:30 this evening in the music room of Redondo Union High School, Redondo Beach.

The change of name from South Bay Symphony Association to South Bay-Harbor Symphony Association is due to the enlargement of its scope in complying with the requests of musicians from the new communities embraced. Served by the Association in addition to Torrance, Lomita and Harbor City, will be the communities of El Segundo, Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, Palms Verde Estates, Rolling Hills, Waverly, Hollywood Riviera, San Pedro, Keystone, Wilmington, and Gardena.

Entering its fourth season, the

IGNACE HILSBERG Association has outlined a most ambitious program for 1949-50 and concert dates and guest conductors will be announced shortly. South Bay-Harbor Symphony Association aims are not limited to the scope of adult education orchestras as in the past, or any one group or program, but will function in the broad scope for which it was originally organized.

Both professional and non-professional musicians will benefit by participating in this cultural activity for instructive direction, legitimate interpretation and consistent personal musical advancement.

Application for orchestra membership may be made by calling Clifford A. Webster at Frontier 2-5535, Don Carper, at Frontier 2-5048, Mrs. R. I. Lewis at Lomita 1321-W, or by mailing applications to 200 South Pacific avenue, Redondo Beach, c/o Eleanor Howell. A penny postal will suffice. Please state your instrument.

TO BE SEEN AT CARNIVAL... Jimmy Harris, his accordion and huge apron with pockets galore filled with surprises attracts two youngsters, Andrea Lindemuth and Whitney Bertram as he gets ready for the Orange Street PTA Carnival Friday night, Sept. 30 at the school. Planned as the first big fund-raising event of a busy year ahead, the carnival will begin at 5 o'clock with the serving of dinner and continue through the evening with the usual booths with attractive articles for sale, games and cartoon movies.

CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES OPENS AT COUNTY MUSEUM

An all-Beethoven program will open the fall series of nine chamber music concerts to be performed by distinguished Southern California musicians at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park on successive Sundays beginning October 2 at 3 p.m.

cartoon movies will be a few of the many attractions.

Recruiting the services of the PTA members, Mrs. Kellogg has assigned the management of the various booths to men and women to make this first fund-raising event of the year a success.

Among those in charge of food are Mmes. J. J. Harris, L. A. Gibson, D. O. Jones, and R. J. Chowlen, spaghetti; J. B. Flagg, Barbara Rice, Charles Ronek, F. W. Learman, Walters, C. W. Wilson, chili beans; C. W. Brocklesby, J. R. Jones, C. R. Estes, J. H. Hartley, J. A. Markley, hot dogs; H. Kanaster, J. A. Peres, Kay Warning, Eric Johnson, cold drinks; Robert Lindemuth, pop corn; B. B. Foster, Betty-Moges, ice-cream; H. Kaempfer, doughnuts and coffee.

Among the concessionaires will be Hollis Blakesley, Donald Brown, Ralph Bertram in charge of milk bottles; Robert Lindemuth, fish pond; and James Flagg and Jimmy Harris will circulate through the crowd playing accordions as the two 'men of many pockets.'

Mmes. A. D. Scott, Peter Zankie, Glenn Chastain and Herman Palm will take charge of the ring toss game; Mmes. George C. Tait and Ralph Bertram, the ping-pong gun; Mmes. C. Bernhardt, W. W. McCann, H. V. Blakesley and Mr. Harry Kaempfer will show cartoon movies; Mrs. C. L. Wilson will be silhouette artist; Mrs. Moody will be the fortune teller; Mmes. Donald Brown, Floyd French, Charles Hawley, P. L. Allen, F. Regner, R. Trevethan, will be found in the country store.

A flower booth, where fresh cut flowers and potted plants will be sold, will be operated for the PTA, through the courtesy of Mrs. Paul English in charge. A booth where Christmas cards will be sold will be of interest to many when they realize that proceeds will be used for the sponsored youth groups of Orange street PTA.

Fiesta Spirit to Prevail at PTA Carnival Tomorrow

There will be fun galore for adults and children alike crowded into four brief hours Friday night, September 30 when the annual Orange Street PTA carnival gets under way at the school at five o'clock.

The fiesta spirit will prevail during the evening with plenty of food for everybody, entertainment and games all open to the public.

Mrs. R. P. Kellogg, PTA president, invites all the families in the area to attend particularly for the dinner hour when a fine selection of home-cooked food will be available.

A fortune teller, the man with many pockets, a fish pond, and

Meet a girl who knows the answers

1. She's a "Service Representative"... your personal representative in your telephone Business Office. Every one of our millions of customers in the West is served by a particular young lady. In the files of your own "Service Rep" are facts about your service. With this finger-tip information, she can answer questions promptly... and help us meet your needs.

2. Her training is the kind that never really stops. For a Service Representative must know the ins and outs of the telephone business to serve you best when you are changing your address, when you need information about a bill, when you have a complaint. You can be sure she will always use her ability and training to help you get the greatest value from your service.

3. It has taken many, many people... scientists, manufacturer, linemen, operators, Service Representatives, repairmen... to build your telephone into the valuable servant it is today. And they're working to make it still more valuable... to keep your telephone a real bargain today. And it is. After all, a few pennies still buy a call.
