

JOB'S DAUGHTERS REPORT ACTIVITIES

Members of Torrance Bethel No. 50, Job's Daughters, were delightfully entertained recently at the Long Beach home of Nancy Cunningham.

Miniature golf and horseback riding were features of the diversion, with lunch at Shady Acres.

Members of the Bethel sewing and choir clubs met last week with Marlene Quaggin, where they were entertained

Christian Church Younger Group To Hold Box Social

The Young Married Couples' Fellowship Group of First Christian Church will gather for a box social tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Huizing, 127 South Peck ave., Manhattan Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Huizing are teachers at Torrance Elementary School.

HALLDALE AVENUE PTA OUTLINES PROJECTS AT RECENT EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

The home of Mrs. Robert Len-ton was the meeting place for the executive board of Halldale Avenue PTA on Friday, Mrs. H. T. Seaman presided.

Mrs. Charles Humphrey was elected as an alternate to Mrs. Jess Sanders to attend the luncheon and all-day health conference at the Biltmore Hotel, Wednesday, Feb. 18.

Important dates to this association announced by Mrs. Humphrey were:

A bakery and food sale on Saturday, Feb. 14 in the former Whelan Drug Store.

A box social for board members, the date to be announced later.

Bandini School tree planting Tuesday, Feb. 17.

Harbor area PTA Council Feb. Drive, March 5.

At the conclusion of the board meeting refreshments were served by co-hostesses Mrs. J. Andrade and Mrs. Evelyn Sim-ely.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Lewis, 1506 W. 213th st.

PTA Members At 10th District Meeting In L.A.

"Ideals Determine Peace" was the subject chosen by Hugh P. Tiner, president of Pepperdine College, when he appeared last week as guest speaker at Tenth District Founders' Day meeting in John Burroughs Junior High School.

Representing Halldale Avenue PTA at the meeting were Mrs. H. T. Seaman, president, and Mmes. Louise Bergstrom, Les Smith, W. R. Lewis and E. M. Bernardin.

Election of officers was the principal business conducted at a noon meeting at Carl's, Los Angeles, Saturday, when mem-bers of the Lois Blodgett Tamba Association of Los Angeles area associate conductresses, Order of Eastern Star, met for lunch-oon.

Elected to serve during 1948 were Irene Welfer, president; Ruby Feder, Clara Baines and Marie Brewer, vice-presidents; Juana Slocumb, recording secre-tary; Dolores Armstrong, cor-responding secretary; and Alby Mae Montague, treasurer.

Associate Grand Conductress Lois Blodgett was the principal speaker.

The next meeting of the as-sociation has been set for March 6.

LICENSED PHOTOGRAPHER
 —Available for weddings, clubs and social affairs. Specialist in children's pic-tures in your home.
DUNCAN'S PHOTO SERVICE
 2019 231st Street
 Phone Lomita 336-W

OES ASSOCIATE CONDUCTRESSES AT DINNER MEET

Associate conductresses of the 76th district, Order of the East-ern Star, were delightfully en-tertained at a dinner party Sat-urday evening at the Redondo Beach home of Mrs. Mayme Boerup.

President Vivian Cook, of Tor-rance, presided at the brief business meeting and a social hour followed, during which the group was photographed.

Fine Representation Of Fern Avenue PTA At Council Meeting

Fern Avenue PTA was well represented at the executive board meeting of Torrance Council, First District PTA, held Tuesday morning in Elementary school.

Under the able guidance of President Mrs. W. E. Bowen, the machinery of the Council is running smoothly. With the complete cooperation of representa-tives from all units it is ex-pected that much will be ac-complished during the coming months.

Attending from Fern Avenue were Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool, president; Mesdames Glen Bab-cock, corresponding secretary; Cleon Richmond, historian; and I. O. Kasten, financial secretary.

Chinese Luncheon Set For Tomorrow To Honor Faculty

Honoring the faculty of Fern Avenue School, members of Fern Avenue PTA executive board will entertain at luncheon in the teachers' room at noon tomor-row.

The Valentine motif will be followed for table decorations, and a Chinese luncheon will be prepared and served by the stu-dents' mothers.

YOUNG PIANISTS . . . Students of Three Arts Studio, who will broadcast over KXLA's 'Pianists of the Future' radio program at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 18, are Shirley Deere, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Deere, 1425 Carson street, who will play "Ballade" (Burgmuller), and Dal Derouin, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Derouin, 1625 Beech avenue, who will play "Prelude in A Major" (Chopin). Also appearing on the program will be Joan Demonet, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Demonet, of 21400 Harvard boulevard, who will play the difficult arrangement of the "Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 2" (Liszt).

JOB'S DAUGHTERS GRAND GUARDIAN ON OFFICIAL VISIT

Mrs. Alice E. Swenson, grand guardian, State of California International Order of Job's Daughters, will make her official visit to Torrance on Tues-day evening, Feb. 17.

The grand guardian will then witness the exemplification of the work of Torrance, Gardena and Compton Bethels.

A large attendance is antici-pated. All Torrance officers and members are expected to at-tend. All eligible guests are wel-come.

The guardian of Bethel No. 50 announces that the meeting will open promptly at 7 o'clock, and all unnecessary work will be dispensed with to permit a reasonably early closing hour.

Initial Monthly 'Y' Dinner Meet Enjoyable Affair

The Young Adult Group of the Torrance YWCA Center held the first of its monthly dinners at Daniel's Cafe on Feb. 5.

Miss Lynn Jackson, chairman of the Torrance YWCA commit-tee, introduced the guest speak-ers, Miss Helen Mummery, of the San Pedro YWCA, and Wil-liam Moon, of Torrance, a USC student who recently attended the 15th quadrennial student conference on Christian Missions at the University of Kansas, in Lawrence, Kansas.

Present were Rev. Clyde E. Ruckman, pastor of First Methodist Church, Mmes. O. A. Kresse, Helen Scott, J. H. Hull, Irene Smith, William V. Meese, C. W. Prouty, Winona Ellis, W. E. Waiton, G. W. Ward, R. J. Menmuir, James P. Montague, Harry E. Massie and the Misses Marjorie Cosgrove, Lois Gill-land, Helen Rogers, Mabel Holt-Mary B. Ulmer, Bobbe Turner, Dorothy Smith, Doris Shaki, Helen Wells, Muriel Clements, Lillian Faulkner and Esther V. Maxwell.

WALTERIA PTA PLANS PROGRAM FOR FOUNDER'S DAY, SET FOR FEB. 17

At Walteria PTA executive board meeting conducted Thurs-day by Mrs. B. J. Michels, presi-dent, plans were outlined for the annual Founders' Day program, scheduled for the evening of Feb. 17 at the school at 7:30 o'clock. This meeting is one of the year's three fixed Men's Night programs.

Mrs. Eva Kelley, Founders' Day chairman, has arranged an interesting program featuring a playlet, "The Little Red School house," under the direction of George Powell. A diversified pro-gram of music will follow.

Refreshments will be served by mothers of first graders. Among the honored guests will be Mrs. Della Armstrong, who served as Walteria PTA president in 1925-26. All past presidents of the association have been invited.

A highlight of the evening will be the presentation of a life membership to the person who has best served the PTA and the school during the past sev-eral years.

Other business conducted at the meeting was the ratifica-tion of Mrs. Robert Hyder as art chairman.

Discussion of plans for a 'kid nap' breakfast, the proceeds to be used to purchase silverware for the association, concluded the session.

JUNIOR WOMEN AT NEEDLEWORK GUILD; DRAMA, BRIDGE SECTIONS ARE ORGANIZED

Mrs. Gerald Grubb, 1623 Elm-ave., was hostess last Wednes-day Feb. 4 at the afternoon section of the Needlework Guild of Torrance Junior Wo-man's Club, when each member ing organized under the leader-ship of Mrs. J. H. Hull.

YWCA Center Organizes Class For Local Women

The Keep-Fit Gym Section of the Torrance YWCA Center is now organizing a special class, under the instruction of Mrs. Bettie Thomas, athletic chair-man.

Mrs. Thomas is planning a gym class that will emphasize physical fitness through exer-cise and fun. Dancing, calis-thenics and games will be in-cluded in the program.

All women of Torrance, Lomi-ta, Pueblo and Harbor City are urged to enroll in this class, which will be held at the Thomas Studio, 1915 Gramercy, on Wednesday at 8:00 p.m.

For further information, phone Torrance 1356 or Torrance 811-W.

YWCA-Sponsored Athletic Program To Be Enlarged

Miss Helen Lockwood, pro-gram Director of the Torrance YWCA Center, announces that during the month of February a special drive will be made to enlarge the athletic program.

Assisted by Mrs. Bettie Thom-as, athletic chairman, and Miss Helen Wells, co-chairman, Miss Lockwood is now organizing the bowling team, schedule of which will be announced later.

Women who are interested are urged to enroll immediately by phoning Miss Wells at Torrance 1356, or Mrs. Thomas at Tor-rance 811-W.

The swimming class, under the instruction of Mrs. Lillian Pincus, is accepting new stu-dents, beginners or advanced, for the Thursday evening class which meets at the Hermosa Biltmore Hotel, Hermosa Beach at 8:30 p.m. Phone Torrance 1356 to enroll.

Clifford E. Easley
 M.D.
 and Staff

Announce the Removal of Their Offices to the Medical Center of Torrance

2055 Torrance Blvd.
 Torrance
 Phone Torrance 14

Don't forget

Remember—February 14th—Valentine's Day. Drink a toast to her happiness in cool, spark-ling Eastside. Good food, good fellowship and good beer just naturally go together. Eastside is good beer, there's none better.

KFWB 10 to 12 P. M. — KMPC 4:30 to 5 P. M. — KECA 9 to 9:30 SUNDAY P. M.

Eastside

NO FINER BEER BREWED

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING OF LA MODE FURNITURE DRAPERY DEPT.

DRAPES

Give Your Windows That NEW LOOK

Feature Value—84" Homespun Cloth
DRAPERIES $10⁹⁵
 FULL SIZE PAIR

SEE OUR SELECTION OF FINE Drapery Materials

LA MODE FURNITURE
 1513 CABRILLO AVE. TORRANCE