Kenneth A. Perkin Takes Lovely Bride In Afternoon Rites

With pink almond blossoms forming a bridal bower in St. Matthews Episcopal Church, San Mateo, Alice Marie Jorgensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evald Jorgensen, of San Mateo, became the bride of Kenneth A. Perkin, former Torrance resident, in a recent Sunday afternoon ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown and her veil was held in place by a pearl coronet. She carried orchids on a white Bible. Barbara Fulton, of San Francisco, as maid of honor, wore white satin and carried blue iris and white snapdragons. The bridesmaids, the Misses Ruth Wilson of Alameda and Clare Schlich, of Santa Rosa, were gowned in ice blue taffeta. Their headresses were of white blossoms and their bouquets were of snapdragons and blue iris. Clifford Trezise, of this city, attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Jack Musto, of New York; Ross Hanna, of Martinez and Richard Cook, Richmond.

A reception for 150 guests followed at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Perkin, who received her diploma from College of the Pacific at Stockton, is a member of Alpha Theta Tau sorority. The bridegroom, a United States Navy veteran, is a son of Mrs. Perkin, of Los Angeles and the late Henry Perkin, both of whom were Torrance residents for many years. Perkin also was graduated from College of the Pacific and is now employed with a San Francisco insurance company. The young couple will reside in Northern California.

Bush-Atchison Vows Are Told Friday Afternoon

In a simple ceremony performed Friday afternoon in Alhambra, Leo J. Bush of 1303 Cota avenue exchanged wedding vows with Mrs. Beulah Atchison, of Alhambra.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. Upon their return they will live at 628 South Russell avenue, Monterey Park.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bush, of the Cota avenue address, is a road master employed with the Pacific Electric Company.

RECIPROCITY LUNCHEON GIVEN BY WOMAN'S CLUB DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Highlighting the calendar of outstanding events for Torrance Woman's Club, was the reciprocity luncheon held in the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon.

Special guests for the occasion were Federation officers and presidents, and other representatives of clubs of Torrance and the surrounding communities.

In the receiving line with Mrs. W. I. Laughon, president, were Mrs. J. P. Montague, president of Torrance Junior Woman's Club, other Junior club representatives and members of the Senior club executive board.

Hostesses assigned to the outfit of town clubwomen were chosen from the executive board members and committee chairmen.

An especially well chosen program, arranged by Mrs. A. H. Silligo, program chairman, featured Jean Collins in "The Princess of Pantomime," a "Festival in Fantasy." There is a blending of three distinct arts: first,

Women Of Moose Are Busy With Varied Activities

The regular monthly card party sponsored by Torrance Chapter, No. 44, Women of the Moose, was held Wednesday evening for the first time in Torrance Woman's clubhouse.

The affair was an outstanding success with Grace Taylor, chairman of social service, in charge of arrangements. Assisting her on the committee were Mmes. Ila Mae Ambach, senior regent; Esther Venable, treasurer; Hattie Smith, recorder; Nieta Sullivan, chaplain and Cora Hill, sentinel.

The home of Mrs. Cordie White was the setting for the daytime pot-luck with 29 members in attendance.

Co-workers are reminded that regular meetings are being held in the new hall, 1915 Carson street.

The evening pot luck and Moose pal gift exchange will be held at 6:00 p.m. Wednesday, March 17, at the home of Mrs. Ruth Dodson, 1931 Gramercy avenue.

On Saturday, March 27, the chapter will sponsor a cooked food sale at the entrance to Evans Gift Shop. Donors are asked to call 1022 to advise of food sale contributions. Signed: Dorothy Smith, publicity chairman.

A group of piano selections by Ford Sebastian Ford and a blackface pantomime routine by the Dixie Daze Quartet entertained the members and their guests. The quartet is composed of members of the San Gabriel Junior Woman's Club.

An exhibit of the arts and crafts section of the club and beautiful oil paintings from the collection of Mrs. R. R. Smith, past president of the Torrance Woman's Club, added to the enjoyment of the affair.

A beautifully decorated cake, lighted with six candles, was cut by President Mrs. J. P. Montague and served by the executive board.
