

NEW INSURANCE LAW IS NOT COMPULSORY

The new Motor Vehicle Financial Responsibility Act, which becomes effective on July 1, 1948, is not a compulsory insurance law, it was pointed out this week, and the State Department of Motor Vehicles soon will undertake a campaign to educate the people of California as to the provisions.

Edgar E. Lampton, director, State Department of Motor Vehicles, in announcing the educational campaign on the act, said: "The purposes of this statute are:

"(1)—to protect our citizens, pedestrians and motorists alike, against irresponsible motor vehicle operators who cause injury or death, or property damage in excess of $100 and fail to make proper financial amends for their acts;

"(2)—to promote safety by making it increasingly difficult for habitual accident causers to

The first dance since the war for enlisted personnel of the 40th Division of the California National Guard will be given by the 578th Engineers (c) Battalion on April 23, in the Legion clubhouse in Redondo Beach, it was announced recently by the dance committee.

Jack Fuller and his Guardsmen Orchestra will play for the dancers.

operate motor vehicles in this state.

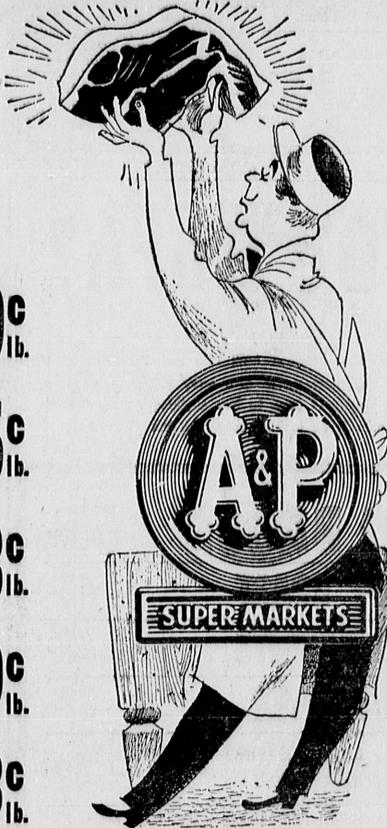

"The 1947 Legislature wisely allowed a year before the law became effective to allow for establishment of the administrative machinery and the provide for education of the public regarding its terms."

BACK at A&P

A&P's guaranteed meats are again yours for the choosing. Again you can go to the A&P Super Market in your neighborhood and select from U.S. Government Graded "Choice or Good" (AA or A) steer beef, Eastern pork, fine spring lamb and tender young veal. Your A&P butcher will serve you with the finest quality meat, and you're sure to be pleased with your purchase, because every sale is backed by A&P's guarantee that you must be completely satisfied or your money will be refunded.

We are pleased to be able to serve you again after many weeks of cessation of operations resulting from a dispute with the Meat Cutters' Union. A&P and the Union have reached a mutually satisfactory agreement which allows for resumption of full operations.

We can now assure our customers that the friendly service to which you were accustomed will be resumed and maintained without interruptions.
