GOSPEL GLEEMEN TO APPEAR IN SACRED CONCERT

The Gospel Gleemen, a minister's chorus of 30 voices representing the Evangelical United Brethren churches of Oregon and Washington will appear in a concert of sacred music at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church of Torrance, May 16 at 11:00 a.m.
 This unique organization began its work in 1942 for the purpose of taking the gospel in song into army camps and schools as well as the churches. Since then they have been released from busy pastorates during the year to make possible eight concert tours on the west coast.
 The Central Church is located at Marcelina avenue and Arlington in Torrance.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Is Set By Club Juniors

A Mother-Daughter banquet is scheduled for the next meeting of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club on May 12 at 7 p.m. at the clubhouse. This will be a catered turkey dinner and will honor the members' mothers, and the District Federation officers, who will be guests that evening.
 Miss Susan Carroll of the Gertrude P. Gorham Dramatic Studio, will talk on "Charm, Style and Personality."
 Mrs. Robert Morton and Mrs. W. H. Clinkenboard will head the decorations committee.
 In the event a girl's mother is unable to attend, she is urged to invite another guest for this occasion.
