Lorraine Dills Identified As Accident Victim

Lying unidentified in the Stone and Myers Mortuary for four days, the body of a woman killed in a pedestrian-auto accident on highway 101 near Vista del Parque last Thursday night, was identified by a friend of the family as Lorraine Dills, 37, of 700 Gardena boulevard, Gardena.

Mrs. Dills was the divorced wife of Parris Dills, brother of Clayton A. Dills and Ralph C. Dills, assemblymen from the 67th and 69th districts, respectively.

Friend Identifies
 The identification of the body was made by Delbert Corella, 17120 South Main street, who went as he told Torrance police officers that he recognized the dead woman as Mrs. Dills.

A coroner's inquest held in Los Angeles on Tuesday absolved all blame from 39-year-old Marvin J. Frosted of Ventura, whose car is said to have struck Mrs. Dills.

According to police accounts of the accident, Mrs. Dills was last seen in a Redondo Beach cafe with a man known only as "Barney." Her actions from the time her escort left her in Redondo until the time she was struck on the highway, remains a mystery.

The remains were taken to the Gardena Mortuary where Rev. W. W. Jewell conducted services yesterday afternoon. Interment followed the services at Pacific Crest cemetery.
