NEW DRUGS...

They may not be in the Dictionary... but You'll find them on our Shelves

One of the factors that has made our establishment Prescription Headquarters is the fact that your Physician knows that he can count on us to stock the newest special, or the unusual drug that is rarely prescribed. For careful compounding, precisely as the doctor directs, bring us your prescriptions.

Los Angeles and the county in meeting the cost of acquiring the right-of-way, the paving, including curbs, walks and gutters, and installation of traffic signals.

As long ago as July 17 of last year it was reported that 75 per cent of the right-of-way needed had been granted. Request for the local city council's action to authorize condemnation proceedings was made in a formal request received here this week, following action of the Los Angeles City Council late last week.

By agreement with Torrance City officials, Los Angeles will advertise for bids and supervise the construction, with the other three participating parties being billed for their share when it is completed and opened to traffic.

SERVICE FLAG HONORS PERRY SCHOOL HEROES

A silken service flag, containing the names of former students of the Perry school who gave their lives in World War II, hangs in the school auditorium today following its dedication at impressive Memorial Day services held last Friday.

The flag is framed in walnut with memorials on one side and the names of Perry's honor roll veterans on the other.

The late Mrs. Laura Combs, Perry teacher, also was honored at the services for the faithfulness with which she paid tribute to Perry's boys in the service during the war.

Mrs. Combs made a beautiful service flag for the school and embroidered stars upon it for each Perry serviceman.

Floral tributes were large magnolia wreaths, all but one of which bore gold stars with three American flags above them. The wreath honoring Mrs. Combs had a gold heart centered with an orchid instead of the stars and following the

Greene Elected New President Of Local Lions

W. T. Greene, proprietor of the Torrance Time Shop, 1223 El Prado, was elected president of the Torrance Lions Club for the club year beginning July 1, at a meeting of club directors Tuesday. Retiring president is Attorney Albert Isen.

Other officers chosen were: Dr. Don Moskos, first vice president; Albert Ewalt, second vice president; F. S. Selover, secretary-treasurer; Roy Winters and Nestor Farris, directors. Holdover directors are Jack Schillings and Ewalt. Named "Liontamer" was Schillings and "Tail-twister," Hubert Lowry.

Thirty-five at Dinner Given by Methodist Men

James W. Walpole of Long Beach, director of contacts with the Veterans Administration, presented much informative data of vital interest to veterans when he addressed the May meeting of the Methodist Church Men's Club last week.

Thirty-five men from Torrance and adjacent cities attended the dinner, which was served by Circle Two of the church.

Floyd Andrus presided. The invocation and benediction were given by Rev. Clyde Ruckman, pastor. Lester Foster led the fellowship sing and Melvin M. Schwab and J. B. Johnson had charge of the devotional. A number of skits were sponsored by Walter Cobb.
