

REGULAR FELLERS—On The Spot

Seaside Ranchos

Here's a final reminder of the school bond election tomorrow, June 4. Seaside Ranchos voters will have 349 Paseo de Gracia in the Hollywood Riviera as the polling place.

You don't think your vote would count, remember that a school bond election must carry with a two-thirds majority, a majority of the votes is not sufficient," cautions Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, educational chairman for Seaside Ranchos. Mrs. Johnson and her committee plan to contact every Seaside voter to show that no one fails to get to the polls because of lack of transportation.

Graduating students of Walteria school's sixth grade class enjoyed a swimming party at the Hermosa Billmore pool Wednesday morning. Graduating students from Seaside Ranchos attending the party were Robert Gandy, Barbara O'Hanon, Beverly Admanson, Marilyn Zolinski, Judy Edmon, Vonille Russell and David McNary. Mrs. Joseph Merola and Mrs. Thomas McNary chaperoned the group.

Last week the names of Seaside children who will graduate from Torrance Junior High School were listed in this column. In addition to those youngsters, two other boys in the tract will enter high school next year. Benton McNary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McNary will graduate June 11 from the Hermosa Beach Pier Avenue grammar school. Richard Flayhry, son of Mrs. Mary Flayhry, will graduate from Redondo Junior high school on the same day.

Many Patton, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Patton of Linda Drive, had a family celebration of his birthday last week with his grandmother, Mrs. Betsey Exton, his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Exton, and his uncles—Thomas, Albert and Andy Exton, all of Los Angeles, in attendance.

Memorial week-end guests at the Donald T. Hall home on Seaside Lane were Mr. Hall's wife, Mrs. T. C. Hall, and his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Straight, all of San Diego.

With only three days' notice, Ray Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Arndt, Sharyne Lane, played the role of "Mr. Hammon" in the Torrance Junior High School play last Friday evening. Along with the other student players he attended a party at Principal Eckers home in Torrance following the performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Burton and young sons drove through San Fernando valley to Newhall Canyon for a picnic lunch.

Mrs. Mina Shidler has as her guests for a few days at her Doris Way home Mrs. Joseph Parkhurst of Piedmont and Mrs. Reed of Miami, Florida. Mrs. Reed drove from Florida to see her son James, who is in the military service in Los Angeles, before visiting with Mrs. Parkhurst, who is sister. They drove down to Piedmont Saturday.

With the patio decorated with crepe paper and balloon favors, Mrs. Frank Hanover entertained with a birthday party for her daughter Lolly Saturday afternoon. A three-dollar cake, covered with green icing and topped with eight candles, was placed before Lolly who sat in a decorated "honor chair" when refreshments were served to the honoree and her girl friends. Young guests present were Evvie Parent, Mary Kay Jeffrey, Mary Johnson, Barbara Merola, Patty Cauty, Carolyn Hall, Gretchen Teach and Pat Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hall joined Dr. and Mrs. Max Weber and two children of Palos Verdes in a picnic at Capistrano on Sunday.

Little friends of Jimmie Hall gathered at the James Hall home to help him celebrate his second birthday Saturday morning. Balloons and streamers decorated the back yard where ice cream and cake were served to the little guests and their mothers. Helping Jimmie celebrate were Mrs. Pierce Venable and Bernice Pierce, Mrs. Ernest Witney and Dale and Buddy, Mrs. Kirk Garretson and James and David, Mrs. Wm. Keller and Sally, all of Seaside Ranchos, and Carol and Billy Weber of Palos Verdes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Donkersloot have flown from Clifton, N. J., to visit with their daughter, Mrs. Carl R. Peterson. They arrived this week by Constellation from New York and plan on a month's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and daughters, Carol and Cynthia, at their Reese Road home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Batchelor had as guests over the week-end Mrs. Batchelor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lavine of Sacramento.

An impromptu gathering of some of her girl friends at her home Thursday afternoon marked the fourth birthday of little Susan Farnham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Farnham of Reese Road. Asked to come play with Susan were Beth Gruver, Elaine Malin, Mary Johnson, Pamela and Virginia Witney and Susan's sisters, Patricia and Renee. Mrs. Farnham, and Mrs. Jess Witney served cake and ice cream to the girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanover enjoyed dinner dancing at the new Army-Navy Officer's Club in Santa Monica Saturday evening.

Mr. O. "Bo" Suter and seven Redondo Beach companions went out on a bait boat from San Diego into Mexican waters in the Coronado Islands Monday and Thursday of last week. One of the fishermen caught a 64-pound California Black cod and they brought back several yellow-tail.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Seigneaux entertained Mrs. Seigneaux's mother and twin sisters, Mrs. May Cameron, Joyce and Joann, all of Los Angeles, on Memorial Day.

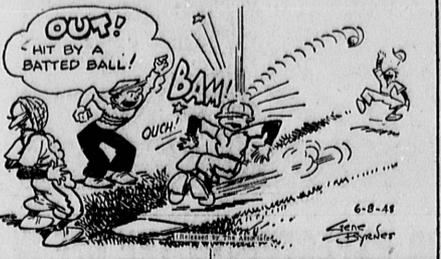

Honoring her husband and Mrs. Louise Ganvil of Long Beach with a double birthday party, Mrs. Fey Loman entertained with a dinner bridge party at the Loman home on Reese Road Monday evening. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Fred Emmerson, Dr. and Mrs. Franklin Waters, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Ganvil, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Witz and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Steffon, all of Long Beach.

Qualified officers and men who volunteer for such assignment will perform a volunteer service for their state and their home communities much on the order of "The Minute Men" of Colonial days. Purpose of the reserves is to supplement the operations of the California National Guard and to be immediately available for any military emergency.

Chancellor-Canfield Midway Oil Company is starting drilling operations in two new fields, it was learned this week. Nearness is in Padre Canyon, where a shallow zone, hit recently at 3200 feet, will be tapped. One good producing well already has been obtained.

The second field is in the Palos Robles area, where CCMO is reported to have blocked up considerable acreage extending west from the city to a point near San Ardo. Jergins, the Texas Company and North America also are exploring the area.
