Methodists Again Name Local Pastor

The Rev. C. E. Ruckman, pastor of the Torrance First Methodist Church, has been appointed to the local pastorate for the fourth consecutive year.

The action was taken at the annual Southern California-Arizona conference, held in Long Beach from June 23 to 28. The Rev. and Mrs. Ruckman have many friends in Torrance who

Two educational films pertaining to the oil industry were shown at the dinner meeting of the Men's Club at the First Methodist Church, presided over by Floyd J. Andrus, a member of the teaching staff of Torrance High School.

The films are "The Oil Industry in America" and "The Oil Industry in the World." They are generally pleased with his reappointment.

Mrs. Harry Gray, of Martina avenue, a lay member of the church, was in continuous attendance at all sessions of the conference.

Light on the Fair

Additional floodlighting and a renovated interior will make the Agriculture Building even more attractive when the California State Fair is held Sept. 2 thru 12.

The world's long-distance flight record of 11,230 miles set by the U. S. Navy's P2V Neptune in 1946, has not yet been challenged.

"No one has found a way to bring about just a little depression," Allen Sproul, pres., Federal Reserve Bank of N. Y.

Girls Awarded Church Honor

Ethel Schimick of the Torrance Foursquare church was selected as "Miss Centinela Crusader" and Charlene Johnson of Torrance was chosen as one of her attendants in the "Miss Centinela" contest which culminated with a parade through Hawthorne last week.

The contest was held to raise money for the church's China Mission field, and each contestant received votes at the cost of a penny each. A "Miss Crusader" was named from each church to represent the respective cities, and all rode in the parade Tuesday.

Miss Schimick received a total of 40,665 votes. A coronation service for her was held Monday night in Hawthorne Foursquare church. She will be given an expense-free trip to Crusader summer camp for one week from the Centinela valley district.

Almost half of all Navy officers on active duty have risen from enlisted service, Bureau of Naval Personnel statistics show.

COMMUNION TO BE CELEBRATED AT LOCAL CHURCH

The Communion of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the Community Presbyterian church, 2154 24th street, on Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. The Communion Meditation will be given by the pastor.

"Ye who do truly and earnestly repent of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbors, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking henceforth in His holy ways; Draw nigh with faith, and take this Holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God."

Book of Common Worship. Evening worship is at 7:30 o'clock. The Youth Budget committee of the church has purchased a motion picture projector and screen. The equipment will be dedicated to the glory of God and the service of His church at a special service next Sunday evening. A beautiful square picture, in natural color, showing the work of the church in Alaska, will be shown at that time. An invitation is extended to everyone.

ADVENTISTS MEET OPENS

All this week Southland families have been moving into the temporary tent-city in Lynwood, where 12,000 Seventh-Day Adventists will begin another annual encampment tomorrow night.

PINK IS FLATTERING

Pink is kind to everyone! So says a lovely star, and it's true. A touch of pink organly ruffling on a dark, sheer summer frock is most flattering. It can be detached and laundered easily.
