

YEAR'S PROGRAM IS OUTLINED AT JUNIORS' MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Junior Woman's Club was held Tuesday at the home of the president, Mrs. Earl C. Clayton, 1020 Crenshaw boulevard.

Program plans for the coming year were outlined by the president and revisions were made at the suggestions of the board members. The first meeting of the year is to be held on Sept. 15.

The resignation of Mrs. D. C. Moskos, an active club member in the past, was accepted with regret.

The stage dressing rooms at the clubhouse have been redecorated and in accordance with new fire laws, money was voted to have them fireproofed.

Following the meeting light refreshments were served by Mrs. Clayton.

Policies Discussed at PTA Meeting in Mrs. Haar's Home

Discussion of the policies of the Parent Teachers Association was the purpose of a recent meeting of PTA presidents at the Wilmington home of Mrs. Kenneth L. Haar, president of the Gardena-Wilmington Council PTA.

Work with youth groups, as well as child welfare activities will be part of the PTA program, according to plans made at the meeting. Procedures were discussed, including ways of bringing the council and local membership in closer relationship with the district.

An advisory committee, composed of the 12 local presidents, was formed to work with the council president and meet from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. on council meeting days.

Announcement was made of the formation of a Council Mothersingers' chorus. Anyone interested in joining this project may contact Mrs. Haar at Terminal 41732, or Mrs. Kenneth Scott, at Terminal 44630.

Mrs. Haar's guests for the meeting and social hour were Mrs. James Gauley of 188th street PTA, Mrs. George Dennis of Chapman avenue PTA, Mrs. Eugene Young of Gardena Elementary PTA, Mrs. Edwin Kirkpatrick of Amestoy PTA, and Mrs. Robert Kramel, Frank Patrick, Roy McCowan, Kenneth Scott, Floyd Hukill, A. L. Sibley and Louise M. Carson, from schools in neighboring districts.

On September 24 the Council will meet in the patio of Mrs. Edwin Kirkpatrick's Gardena home.

AT PADUA HILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Farrell and daughter Nancy were among the dinner guests at Padua Hills Theater, Claremont, Saturday evening where they enjoyed the Mexican Players' presentations of "Galileo Allegro" and the colorful entertainment in the patio following the play.

George P. Thatcher Takes Bride In Altadena Rites

Aqua blue crepe with pink sequins and silver beading fashioned the formal gown worn by Miss M. Gwendolyn Flack, daughter of Mrs. Clara D. Flack of Huntington Park, when she became the bride of Mr. George P. Thatcher in Altadena Community church. Her flowers were white sweet peas and pink roses. Dr. H. Heicher officiated at the afternoon ceremony performed in the presence of relatives of the principals.

Mrs. H. E. Crum, gowned in a silver-beaded rose pink dinner dress complemented by a bouquet of white sweet peas centered with an orchid, was matron of honor. Mr. Lloyd Thatcher was his brother's best man and ushers were Wayne Thatcher and Jimmie Schultz.

Mrs. John Mercer at the organ played the accompaniment

Women's Activities ...

July 22, 1948

Torrance, California

Section 8

... By MARY VONDERAHE

Tindell-Stokoe Recite Vows In First Baptist Church

MR. AND MRS. BENJAMIN TOMMY TINDELL United in Church Rites ...

All-white blossoms and glowing tapers in branched candelabra decorated First Baptist church for the doubling ceremony which united in marriage Yvonne (Marie) Stokoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Stokoe of Hermosa Beach and formerly of this city, and Benjamin Tommy Tindell, of Hermosa Beach. Rev. C. M. Northrup officiated in the presence of 150 wedding guests.

Gowned in ivory slipper satin fashioned with train, bertha collar and lace yoke, complemented with lace-edged veil of bridal illusion, the bride carried a bouquet flown here from Boston of stephanotis with detachable orchid corsage. She was given away by her father.

The bride attendants, Miss Margaret Billard, maid of honor and Miss Lorraine Kettler and Mrs. Lenore Tolor, bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of salmon pink taffeta with bouquets of matching tuberosa begonias. Coronets of peach tulle and begonia buds completed their ensembles. Little Sherry Tolor was flower girl in pink taffeta with coronet of the same material. Paul Rust, Jr., nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer. Bob Bonus attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Knot Tolor and Gene Snyder.

Mrs. F. V. Varney played the accompaniment for Dr. Harri L. Davies, who sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

A reception at the home of the bride's parents immediately followed the church ceremony. Mrs. Tindell was graduated from Torrance High School with the class of June '48. Her bridegroom, a graduate of Lynwood Academy, class of summer '43, attended El Camino and Compton Junior colleges as a pre-medical student. He served with the Naval Air Corps.

Upon returning from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Tindell will live at 741 5th street, Hermosa Beach.

Party Given by Parishioners of St. Margaret Mary

A group of parishioners of St. Margaret Mary's church gathered at the rectory last Thursday evening to present a gift of appreciation to Rev. William A. Ryan, who has been serving as pastor during Father Hegarty's three-month visit in Ireland. The party coincided with Father Hegarty's return to the parish. Joe Gardner presented the gift to Father Ryan and thanked him for his services to the parish, expressing regret that his visit had come to an end. In a brief and sincere speech Father Hegarty also thanked him for his work here and extended a warm invitation to return soon.

Mrs. Harry Litton, president of the Altar Society, Mrs. Mary View and others served refreshments to the priests and guests who included: Mr. and Mrs. James Visceglia of Wilmington, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. R. Witz, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Brandelli, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kovachevich, Miss Katherine View, Mesdames Maude Rahl, Charles Farrar, Frank Covey, Nellie Schyessler, Laura Hagan, Polly Myerscough, Gertrude Hill, Frances Zak, Josephine Scholl, Lucienne Laine, F. Andrade, H. N. Wenger and Jack McKinney; Messrs. A. J. Fitzgerald, J. W. Gardner, John Gannon, Frank Marineau, Fred Chaison and Charles Ganster.

Fuchsia Club to Make Plans For Long Beach Show

Members of the Flower Show committee and other interested members of Fuchsia Society will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bader, 26022 Eshelman avenue, Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Purpose of the meeting is to make plans for a booth entry in the Long Beach flower show, which will be held Aug. 5, 6, 7 and 8, in the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium.

The show is sponsored by Pacific Flower Shows, Inc., and all garden clubs and organizations in this area, and also many commercial organizations are making plans for displays.

ANNUAL PICNIC FOR CUB SCOUTS SET FOR FRIDAY

Cub Pack No. 241-C of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, will hold its annual picnic at Torrance Park tomorrow, Friday evening, at 6:30 o'clock.

Families are asked to supply basket lunches—watermelon and coffee will be served by the Cubs.

Games being planned for the evening include tug-of-war, shoe races, ball throwing, bag races and a wheelbarrow race. Feature of the evening will be a special race for Mom, Pop and son. Prizes will be awarded.

Following the picnic dinner, awards and graduations will occupy the group, according to Cubmaster Luke Nickol.

Miss Vivian Oliver, Popular Bfide-Elect Is Shower Honoree

Miss Vivian Oliver, whose marriage to Irving Caulkins will be an event of August 4, was the center of attraction at a beautifully appointed miscellaneous shower arranged recently by Mrs. Phyllis Russell at the home of Mrs. Roy Russell, 2147 242nd street.

A profusion of garden flowers decorated the rooms and following an evening of shower games and the presentation of Miss Oliver's gifts, dainty buffet refreshments were served. Prize winners were Mesdames Carl Spangler, Jack Nielson, Leslie DeMott and E. McKenzie.

Present were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Harry B. Oliver; Mesdames M. J. Edwards, Carl Spangler, Roy Russell, Gertrude Schreiber, Jack Nielson, A. J. Fitzgerald, E. McKenzie, Cecil Hazzard, A. C. McKnight, Leslie DeMott and Jack Russell.

Documentary Film on Poland To Be Shown at Museum

Six interesting motion pictures dealing with the life, activities and music of Poland will be the next presentation in the summer series of documentary film programs at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, according to an announcement by James H. Breasted, Jr., Director of the Museum. The pictures will be shown at 8 p.m. Friday, July 23.

The titles of the pictures are "Poland", "Minuet in G", "Mary Visits Poland", "Moonlight Sonata" and "Polonaise". The series is being presented by the Education Division of the Museum in collaboration with the County Board of Supervisors. No admission is charged.

Parish Meeting To Be Held Monday Evening

Rev. John V. Hegarty, pastor of St. Margaret Mary's church, has announced a meeting to be held at the rectory Monday, July 26, at 7:30 p.m., to formulate plans for the Autumn bazaar. All members of the parish are invited to attend.

Round of Festivities for Mrs. Virginia B. Scott

Complimenting Mrs. Virginia B. Scott on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, her sister Mrs. Walter E. Schlick entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of the ladies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Buxton, 1500 El Prado. Mrs. Scott, formerly of Torrance and now a resident of Fresno, has been vacationing here for the past several weeks with her sons Jimmy, Charlie and Dickie.

Bridge and Tripoli furnished diversion for the guests with Mesdames T. T. Babbitt and D. W. Quigley as prize winners.

Other guests included Mesdames W. A. Hoxie, of West Los Angeles; E. L. Patterson, Palos Verdes Estates; C. A. Curtis, C. D. Lowen, J. H. Burchett and Paul F. Vonderahe. Also hidden were Mesdames Herbert Summers, of Pasadena; R. E. Satchell, R. F. Sanderhoff and J. O. Anderson.

At the close of play refreshments of birthday cake and molded ice cream were served and Mrs. Scott was presented with many attractive and useful personal gifts.

Another delightful affair honoring the popular vacationer was enjoyed Thursday evening when Mrs. C. A. Curtis entertained at her home on Engracia avenue.

LEGION AUXILIARY SELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR 1948-49

Election of officers featured the business meeting of the auxiliary of Bert S. Crossland Post No. 170, held Monday evening in St. Andrew's guild hall.

Officers who will serve during the ensuing year are: Gertrude Boyle, president; Velora Murphy, and Merle Youngken, vice presidents; Mabel Williams, secretary; Alice Thompson, treasurer; Clara Dunbar, chaplain and Margaret Fordice, historian.

Members of the executive committee include: Ella Robinson, Dorothy Ross and Corlista Reeve.

Installation of officers will be held in Guild Hall Monday, July 26 at 8 o'clock, with 19th District President Alice Newbanks as installing officer, assisted by her Redondo Beach ritualistic team.

During the evening an attractive bird house will be given away, it was announced.

Delegates chosen to represent the auxiliary at the convention in San Francisco, set for Sept. 25, are: Gertrude Boyle, Daisy Watson and Ethelyn Sears. Alternates include Roxie Sleeth, Velora Murphy and Alice Thompson.

Creelius Family Home Again From Colorado Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Creelius and their children, Jean and Donna, have returned to their home at 25429 President avenue, Harbor City, following a 10-day trip to Montrose, Colo.

Montrose is Mr. Creelius' former home and this is the first time in 10 years that he has gone there for a visit. The family was accompanied by Web Creelius of Wilmington, who hadn't revisited his home for 25 years.

Fifty-four relatives of the two brothers gathered for a family reunion during their visit there and trout fishing was enjoyed by five brothers of the Creelius family who were together for the first time in eight years. As evidence of their good fortune Mr. and Mrs. Creelius returned home with 47 trout packed in dry ice.

Enroute home the family stopped at Olathe, Colo. where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Phil Moreland, school friends of Mr. Creelius.

Shortly after her return home Donna left again, this time for a two-weeks visit in Yosemite. She was accompanied by Mrs. Gertrude Schreiber of Harbor City.

Women of the Moose Formulate Plans, Report Activities

The post-luck supper enjoyed last night by co-workers of Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, their families and friends, was an outstanding success, with more than 100 adults in attendance in addition to numerous children.

The initial meeting of the new year with Senior Regent Elsie Smith presiding was held last week with an overflow attendance in the chapter's temporary quarters. Plans were formulated for many activities for the coming months.

The sale of baked goods held Saturday at Evans Gift Shop was highly successful with all goods sold out early in the day, according to Mary L. Calitri, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Burchett's home on El Prado was an attractive setting for an intimate luncheon on Friday, with Mrs. Scott as honor guest.

On Sunday Mrs. Scott again was the center of attraction at a reunion of friends of years' standing. Present were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schlick and children Sandra and Connie, and Messrs. and Mrs. F. F. Sanderhoff, James H. Burchett, D. W. Quigley and daughter Jessie; C. A. Curtis and daughters Adele and Kathy; E. L. Patterson; Paul F. Vonderahe and children David and Loretta; all of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Summers, of Pasadena and formerly of Torrance. Also hidden were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Satchell.

The affair, arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Sanderhoff and Mr. and Mrs. Vonderahe, was an Italian spaghetti supper served in Torrance City Park.

Suit Sale

at
BENSON'S

The minute you set eyes on these suits — you'll love 'em! And best of all—you can have them because they're priced so low. Take advantage of Benson's Mid-Summer Sale... choose your suit here.

REGULAR $29.95
VALUES AT

$19.95

BENSON'S

1271 Sartori Ave.
Torrance

• Los Angeles • Inglewood • Glendale • Maywood • Florence • Burbank
• Hollywood • Long Beach • Bellflower • San Diego, 2 stores

Smart

SMART APPEARANCE GOES WITH BETTER VISION...

You get both here... Scientific eye examination and precision ground lenses in smartly styled frames to enhance your looks, as well as your vision.

Glasses Here
Are Never Expensive

Dr. G. E. Cosgrove
OPTOMETRIST
PHONE FRonier 4045
135 S. PACIFIC — REDONDO BEACH