Mrs. R. J. Rogers Entertains Group At Bridge Luncheon

The attractive Beech avenue home of Mrs. R. J. Rogers was a setting for an enjoyable afternoon party when she entertained her bridge club at luncheon Thursday.

Beautiful roses from Mrs. A. H. Silligo's garden enhanced the party setting. Presentations of prizes at contract were made to Mrs. L. M. Fernley, a club guest, and Mrs. Earl A. Miles.

Mrs. Albert Isen will entertain the same group at her home this afternoon.

Homer Shuler Seated Pres. Lomita Fuchsia Club Thurs.

Installation ceremonies highlighted the Lomita Fuchsia Club meeting Thursday night with James C. Fairclo of Gardena acting as installing officer.

Homer Shuler was presented with the gavel as he accepted the presidency succeeding Mrs. Joseph Bader. More than 50 members and guests attended the meeting which marked the third anniversary of the club.

Seated with Shuler were Mesdames Dick Faulkner, vice president; Cecil Goheen, secretary; John Garner, treasurer; A. C. Turner, auditor; and William Bailey, plant sales chairman.

Chairmen appointed by the newly-installed president include Mmes. J. Ward, registration; G. Trefethen, publicity; Joseph Bader, program; Roy Trunnell, II, brarian; Helen Garcia, flower show; Arnold Dehn, sunshine; C. O. Elpper, membership; Glenn Holloway, birthday; Alpha Stump, parliamentarian, C. Winner, refreshments; A. Brown, postal and W. Daily, parks and recreation.

Badges were presented to members who exhibited plants in the Lomita Fuchsia Club booth at the Long Beach Flower Show following a report given on the clubs' exhibits by the club president.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Bader. Following the pledge of allegiance to the flag an inspirational poem was read by Mrs. Homer Shuler.

Mrs. Elpper reported on the California Fuchsia Society meeting held recently in Hollywood and presented Mrs. Blanche Tempksi with a copper plaque in a fuchsia design given as first prize for entering her garden as the most attractive in Lomita.

Plans were completed for the trip to a well-known bakery in Los Angeles Sept. 15 with proceeds from the ticket sales to be used to swell the club treasury.

The presentation of beautiful hand-painted pictures of fuchsias done in water colors to members of last year's board was a most fitting gesture by Mrs. Bader, outgoing club president. The many varieties of fuchsias, and their distinctive colorings in the Bader garden were the subject for the pictures painted by Mrs. C. M. Richter of Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Helen Garcia, on behalf of the retiring board members, presented Mrs. Bader with a set of sherbet glasses in the fuchsia pattern in appreciation of the many hours of service rendered the local club.

William E. Walton of Torrance was the interesting speaker of the evening.
