Delightful Programs To Be Presented at L. A. County Museum

Music and documentary films will feature the activities at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park on Friday evening, August 27.

The musical part of the evening will be the third program in a series of six chamber music concerts. It will be furnished by the Lacrosse Trio comprised of John Letimer, piano; Rodger Krohn, violin, and Norman Goss, cello. They will present "Trio Op. 1, No. 3 in C minor by Beethoven; Miniatures by Frank Bridge and Trio, Opus 8 in B Major by Brahms.

The picture program will present documentary films relative to American parks. They are entitled "Yosemite, End of the Rainbow," "Shenandoah National Park" and "Yellowstone." It will be the last in a series that started July 2 last.

The programs, each to begin at 8 p.m., are separate and distinct, and are presented in different auditoriums of the Museum. Admission is free.

LOMITA PTA PLANS FOOD SALE FOR SATURDAY

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE HAROLD FLOWERS
Popular bridal couple . . .

Flowers-Bailey Tell Vows in Colonial Chapel Rites

At a Sunday afternoon ceremony performed in Colonial home in Long Beach where she is employed with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, Miss Eva Rose Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bailey of Arvin, California, became the bride of George Harold Flowers of Torrance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Flowers of Wayland, Mo. Rev. C. Miles Northrup officiated at the double-ring, candlelight ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the principals.

The bride was attired in an aqua dressmaker suit with blue and white accessories and she carried a white Bible blanketed with gardenias with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Van Barnard, in a grey suit with matching accessories and a nosegay of roses, was matron of honor. Van Barnard attended the bridegroom.

Proceeding the ceremony "Because" and "I Love You Truly" were sung.

A reception followed in the patio and gardens at the home of the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Eva Maloy, 1339 Engracia ave.

A profusion of flowers enhanced the garden setting and a decorated wedding cake adorned with a miniature bridal couple was banked with orange blossoms. Mrs. Norma Pearson served the wedding cake and Mrs. Ova Bradshaw poured. The ladies are sisters of the bride and bridegroom respectively.

Upon their return from a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Flowers will establish their home in Long Beach where she is employed with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. Mr. Flowers is an employee of the Royal Cleaners in Torrance. He received his diploma from Wayland, Mo. High School and is an active member of the Torrance 20-30 Club. Mrs. Flowers was graduated from high school at Pawhuska, Okla. and both are veterans of World War II.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dale McClain, Paramount; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bradshaw, Bakersfield; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey and Ted Sellers, Los Angeles; George Komar and Bill Van Schoik, San Francisco.

Due to illness the mothers of the principals were unable to attend the wedding.

Garden Club Hear Talk on Flower Care

Mrs. Florence Hubert of 1348 W. 220th st., was hostess to members of Torrance Terrace Garden Club at the semi-monthly meeting Wednesday.

In the absence of President Mrs. Estelle Ewalt, Mrs. Romilda Scholl, vice-president, conducted the meeting.

The study hour was devoted to a discussion of the bulbs of the narcissi family. Members also were reminded to prepare seed flats for their plant sale in the spring and to irrigate, cultivate and saturate the soil around chrysanthemums.

Gladiolus corms may be planted now in partial shade to insure blooms in October and November, it was learned.

Mrs. Clare Farrell assisted the hostess at the refreshment hour when dainty party fare was served from a table enhanced with an arrangement of colorful zinnias.

Mrs. Hazel Sullivan will be the next hostess to club members on Sept. 1.

Walteria PTA

The home of Mrs. Eva Kelley in Walteria was the setting for a lovely desert bunco party as she and her two co-hostesses, Mrs. Elsie Minor and Mrs. Kelley's sister, Mrs. Nettie Phillips, continued the chain of popular calendar parties. Guests enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames Barbara Taraldsen, Edna M. Clark, Helen C. Conze, Elsie Minor, Anne Laughridge, Ruth Ritchie, Viv Minor, Ida Haun, Edith Buckingham, Margaret Clause, Frances Barth, Margaret Roettger, Winifred Wilcox, Muretta Vevorka, Roberta Sanders and Marie Kiecklifter.

Mrs. Leonard Doyle and Mrs. O. R. Hopkins chose for their calendar party a bridge held at the home of Mrs. Robert Cotton, Seaside Ranchos. Those attending were Mesdames Carl Larkins, William A. Scanlon, Paul Murray, William Raegelle, Fred Keeshan and J. V. Powell.

Here is another reminder to mothers whose children are starting kindergarten this fall. A free health examination will be given to the children by Dr. G. Markham, Torrance school doctor, Aug. 31 from 1 to 3:30 p.m. at Walteria school.

Mrs. Dale Wands, membership chairman, held a meeting at her home in Walteria to plan the membership campaign for the coming year. It is planned that each room will make their own posters to mark their progress and a prize will be given the room with the highest percentage of memberships. Present at the meeting were Boone Kirks, principal; Mrs. George Olding, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Dan Besamer, art chairman; Mrs. Byron Johnson, program chairman; Mrs. Paul Roettger, president; Mrs. Roy Palmer, financial secretary and Mrs. Dale Wands.

ENJOYABLE VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brennan and daughters, Cheryl Ann and Shirley Jean, of 812 Portola ave., returned last week from an enjoyable motor trip which took them to Palo Alto, the Santa Cruz Mountains, San Francisco, Lake Tahoe and Reno. A delightful highlight of their two weeks vacation was their sojourn in the Redwood forest, they report.

AT BUXTON HOME

Mrs. Paul W. Chapman of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and her son, Prof. Robert Chapman of the Dramatics Department of the University of California at Berkeley, were recent luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Buxton, 1500 El Prado.

AT ISLAND RESORT
Mr. and Mrs. W. Rufus Page spent several days at Catalina last week.

COUPLE RECITE MARRIAGE VOWS IN YUMA, ARIZONA

Slipping quietly out of town last week and bound for Yuma, Arizona, were Andy Winn, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Winn of 25301 Fejoa avenue and Miss Viola Molina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Felix of 622 W. School street, Compton, who were married in that city Thursday, Aug. 19.

The bride who is a student at Garfield high school in Los Angeles, wore a blue suit with gold accessories for her wedding and complementing her attire was a gardenia corsage.

Mr. Winn was graduated from Narbonne high school and during the war served nearly three years with the U. S. Navy in the South Pacific area. He is employed as an engineering aid for the City of Los Angeles.

AT PARENTS' HOME
Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lincoln have been entertaining as their house guests, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Hood (Marguerite Lincoln) and children, Tom and Nancy, of Tucson, Ariz.
