

Torrance High School PTA Outlines Year's Program

At a meeting held Thursday at Torrance High School, Mrs. Vorne Barlow, president of Torrance High School PTA, and Mrs. George Baer, vice president and program chairman, met with John W. Steinbaugh, principal, Miss Harriet Hardy, dean of girls, and A. C. Wallace, vice principal.

Purpose of the meeting was to formulate plans for the coming year and to consider the PTA program as outlined earlier by the PTA board.

The home of Mrs. A. C. Turner, junior past president, Tuesday was a setting for a luncheon and PTA board meeting with the above mentioned high school faculty members and Earl E. Eckert, junior high school principal, as special guests.

Ratification of PTA charters was the principal business at the business meeting following the luncheon. Chairmen ratified were: Headmaster Jack Long, courtesy; Elmer S. Moon, magazines; May D. King, membership; D. A. Murphy, publicity; A. C. Turner, hospitality; and George Baer, program.

Business; Professional Women Plan Rummage Sale

Torrance Club National Business and Professional Women will conduct a rummage sale at the entrance to the store-room formerly occupied by J. C. Penney Company on Sartori avenue. The ladies had previously planned to hold the sale in the Grand Theatre building.

Mrs. Bettina Miller, as general chairman of the three-day sale to be held from 9:30 to 5 p.m. on Sept. 2, 3 and 4, announces that a fine selection of men's and women's suits and shoes will be available. Other articles to be offered for sale include street and house dresses, blouses, sweaters, coats and handbags. Household articles, including kitchen utensils and chinaware also will be featured, she reports.

ANNUAL GATHERING
Camp Fire Girls in Hollywood have an annual gathering for the Orthopedic Hospital. Books, magazines, toys, dolls, etc., are sent to the children there.

Los Angeles Chapel Setting for Recent Wedding Vows

The chapel of the Chapman Hotel in Los Angeles was most attractively decorated in white gladioli and asters for the five o'clock wedding Saturday evening, Aug. 28, which united in marriage Miss Suzanne Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Park of 4311 Saturn avenue, Los Angeles and Kenneth Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson of 1839 W. 262nd street here.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gray suit complemented with accessories in deeper shades of gray and she carried a Colonial bouquet of bouvardia and three orchids.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. John Corso in a rust shaded suit and she wore a corsage of gardenias.

Proceeding the bride to the altar were two flower girls, Nancy and Stephanie Thompson, nieces of the bride. They wore gowns fashioned alike in pink organza and gold slippers.

John Perez attended his brother-in-law as best man and ushers were Kenneth Garcelon, long time friend of the bridegroom and Warren Park, brother of the bride.

A reception for the more than fifty wedding guests was held at the home of the bride's parents where the large wedding cake was cut and served as a fitting climax to the buffet supper. Surrounding the cake were gardenias and red roses. Music for the reception was furnished by Roland Green, brother-in-law of the bride, who presided at the grand piano and Mrs. Jessie Riley, soloist.

Mrs. Johnson is a school teacher at North Long Beach and her husband, a graduate of Navybonne High School, is a local buyer for C. J. Hendry Co. in San Pedro.

Christian Church Ladies Plan Month's Activities

At the monthly board meeting of the Ladies Council of First Christian at the church last Friday plans were made for September activities. On Tuesday morning Sept. 7 at 10 a.m. the regular monthly meeting of the council will be held with Mrs. Gladys Pletzschke presiding and Mrs. Leonard Babcock leading devotions. As a special treat for the ladies Mrs. Ray Lougou, who spent several years in Alaska, will talk on her life there. Everyone is urged to arrive promptly and enjoy this program. Circle No. 3 will conduct a pie sale at this meeting. Members are asked to supply sandwiches. Dessert will be served at noon. Those planning to remain for the afternoon are reminded to bring thimbles for quilting and sewing.

A "Crusade" dinner will be served immediately after church on Sept. 12.

Circle No. 1 will meet at 1 p.m. on Wednesday Sept. 15 with Mrs. Burke Mosley, 23846 Ward street, Walnutia. Sewing for the bazaar will occupy the group. Circle No. 2 will meet with Mrs. Edward Pletzschke, 2765 W. Carson street on Thursday Sept. 9 at 1 p.m. Circle No. 3 will meet at the church Sept. 15 at 10 a.m. to quilt and sew. Bring sandwiches, coffee will be furnished. Circle No. 4 will meet Sept. 9 in the evening at a place to be announced later. Circle No. 5 will meet at 8:00 p.m. Sept. 23 with Mrs. Ronald Menmuir, 1497 Cota avenue, at which time they will pack boxes for less fortunate families. A need for thin clothing for the Philippines, baby garments for a mission in China and warm clothes for a family in Germany are the current projects.

In connection with the church bazaar to be held in October, a hobby show is being arranged and those having interesting articles to display should see Mrs. Vincent Viellenave, chairman.

First Child Is Welcomed

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Kent, of 2011 W. 220th street, are being congratulated upon the birth of their first child, a son, Steven Wilder, born Aug. 26 at San Pedro Hospital.

The baby's father is employed as petroleum tester at General Petroleum Corp. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Kent Sr. of 2007 Ginnerey avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Wilder W. Hartley of San Pedro.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Slates Food and Rummage Sales

The Auxiliary of V.F.W. Post No. 3251 will sponsor a food sale to be held tomorrow Friday at the entrance to Levy's Department Store.

Mrs. Mary Towler, auxiliary president and general chairman of the sale, asks the cooperation of all members. Sale proceeds will be used toward purchase of a piano for the VFW clubhouse.

Another project for the auxiliary is a rummage sale slated for Saturday, Sept. 11 in the sales foyer of Schultz & Peckham, Ford dealers.

The regular business meeting of the organization will be held in the new clubhouse at 8 p.m. Monday evening, Sept. 13.
