

Walteria PTA Recognition for Women

Walteria is seething with youngsters, and the P.T.A. pot luck dinner this evening at Walteria School auditorium should be a well-attended affair if the parents show up in support of their offspring. If you have not already been told which one of the spaghetti or hot dishes, salads, desserts or relishes to bring, just grab one big dish of any one, put the children in the car and bring your husband to dinner, which will be served at 6:30 sharp. Coffee and tea along with hot rolls will be furnished. Child care is an added attraction for the youngsters to frolic together at school, and the parents can feel assured of an evening of quiet, while the children are cared for close by.

J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance schools, will speak on "Laying the Ground Plan—Setting the Stage."

Mrs. Kelly will present her Mothersingers Chorus, which she has been working on all summer. She also is the author of the words to the "Welcome Song," which they will sing. Mrs. George Coburn is the accompanist for the singers, who are Mrs. A. Wilcox, Nelle Crevello, Mrs. George Olding, Mrs. R. Johnston, Mrs. J. Perry, Mrs. J. Hilborn, Mrs. G. Lindley and Della Armstrong, who was the first P.T.A. president of Walteria, over 25 years ago, and is still active.

D. Boone Kirks, principal, will introduce the teachers. Come and meet your child's teacher; it helps her, the child and you.

HALLDALE P. T. A. SETS YEAR'S BUDGET

Mrs. Ward Galbreath, ways and means chairman of the Halldale Avenue P.T.A., met with her committee Monday morning, Sept. 20 at the school. Purpose of the session was to plan the budget for the year. Attending were Mesdames Amanda Bonwell principal; William Roberts, Howard Norris, Glen Spratt, Marvin Simerly, Les Smith, E. M. Bernardin and H. T. Seeman.

Recognition for Women

Two members of the executive board of Halldale P.T.A. who should be given much credit and attention are Mrs. Howard (Leota) Norris, Community Youth Chairman, and Mrs. W. R. Lewis, Newslette chairman. While these two mothers are active P.T.A. members and home managers, they find time to devote extra time to the "small fry" of the community. Mrs. Norris is the leader of the "Bluebirds," which includes girls from 7 to 10 years and Mrs. Lewis is the Den Mother for the Cub Scouts, boys from 9 to 11 years old. Hats off to these women who are helping build better citizens for the future.

C.D.A. Study Club Meets Monday at Mrs. Murray's Home

Mrs. Rose Jones, study club chairman, directed the informal discussion Monday evening to these women who are helping build better citizens for the future.

Following the study hour, the hostess served refreshments, with Mrs. Edith Owen and Mrs. Jones presiding at the silver service. The tea table was attractive with the hostess' collection of fine china, and a centerpiece of salmon dahlias and crystal candelabra.

The October meeting of the CDA Study Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Joan Donald, 1028 Gresham boulevard. New members will be received into the Court next Sunday, Sept. 26, at ceremonies to be held at Nativity parish hall at 2:30 p.m.

REJOINS FAMILY

Carl L. Dean this week joined his family at 2414 Pacific Coast highway following a merchant marine cruise. Since his departure last March, Dean has visited many seaports including Athens, Greece, where his ship unloaded a cargo of Marshall Plan commodities. New York and Honolulu also were on the route traveled.

Seaside Ranchos

MRS. HELEN CARLTON

Of interest to everyone in Seaside Rancho is the news that as a result of the Seaside Rancho Home Owners Assn. meeting last Thursday evening there is a fire trailer and hose located in the tract for emergency use. Located in the Edward Faye garage at 5405 Linda Drive, this trailer will be equipped with a clamp on type trailer hitch so that any car may pull it. Fire prevention measures of the near future include a demonstration by the Torrance Fire Chief of the proper use of the fire trailer and the formation and training of an active fire committee.

Winner of the Westinghouse iron at last Thursday's meeting when members heard talks by E. A. Applegate, director of a adult education at Torrance High School and R. J. Harris, manager of the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club, was Stan Locke of 23034 Doris Way.

With J. Henrich Hull, superintendent of Torrance City Schools, as the main speaker at the business session following the pot luck supper, Walteria school P.T.A. begins this year's program with a meeting tonight at 8 p.m., at the Walteria School. Mrs. Paul Roettger, newly elected president from Seaside Ranchos, and the Mother Singers will make their debut at this first meeting. Parents are reminded not to forget to bring their own dishes and silverware to the pot luck supper.

Mrs. Paul Barth as chairman of the ways and means committee held her first meeting Tuesday evening in her Seaside Rancho home.

Seaside Rancho residents will have a polling booth of their own for the November elections. Mrs. Geo. Thatcher has been registering Seaside voters these past few weeks.

Announcement is being made that the Girl Scout troop sponsored by the Seaside Ranchos Home Owners Assn. will have investiture services Oct. 1st, at the St. Andrew's Episcopal church in the parish house beginning at 8 p.m. The troop will hereafter be known as Troop No. 1055.

Another brand new Seaside Rancho resident is being welcomed into the tract. Little Mary Melody Conover, 7 lb. 1/2 oz. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Conover of 5454 Sharynne Lane was born at Torrance Memorial Hospital early Sunday morning. Little Mary Melody has two sisters, Carol and Barbara, and a brother, Albert, Jr.

Other new residents in the tract include Mr. and Mrs. W. B. M. Clark and children, Bradford, Jr., 8, and Debora Ann, 7, and Teddie, 3, who have moved to 5350 Sharynne Lane from Boulder, Colorado. Mr. Clark is employed by Douglas Aircraft at Santa Monica.

Entertaining Mrs. Hanover's sister, Miss Laura Bulkeley of Sewickley, Pa., who has been visiting here for the past two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanover and guest made a tour of Paramount Studios on Friday where they saw an Alan Ladd picture, "One Woman" being filmed. On Saturday they drove to the Pomona Fair and on Sunday to Tijuana and Caliente, Mexico. Miss Bulkeley, a recent graduate of Ohio State University, cum laude, returned to her home on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kenny joined two other L.A. couples in an overnight trip to Tijuana over the week-end.

Mr. Don Hall returned Friday from a hunting trip in Mono county. Mr. Hall and Mr. Gerry Keeley of L.A. flew to Nevada and were joined by Mr. Huck Gabler who drove the men in a jeep to the hunting area. The hunters bagged a deer each and caught golden trout at the 12,000 foot range.

Now visiting with his sister, Mrs. Robert Mease at the Mease home on Linda Drive, is Mr. F. L. Hall of Salem, Ohio. He will leave this week to fly to Mississippi. While he has been here, his mother, Mrs. B. S. Hall of Pasadena, visited here for a few days.

Miss Elaine Malan celebrated her sixth birthday with a party at her home on Carol Drive last Saturday afternoon. After an afternoon of outdoor games and a drawing of the door prizes, won by Pat Farnum and Richard Honzik, Mrs. Z. W. Malan, assisted by Miss Jo Ann O'Hanlon served ice cream cone clowns and cookies to the little guests, around a table centered by a decorated cake. Friends enjoying the party were Linal and Marlene Fetters, Bruce Shockency, Carol Roettger, Richard Honzik, Pat, Susie and Renee Farnum, Gail Rowan, Bonnie Johnson, Robert Springer, Beth Gruver and Tom Schooley.

Sunday evening guests at the Harvey J. Cole home on Doris Way last week were Mrs. Darwin and De Orr Cooley and their wives of San Pedro.

Mrs. Frank Jenkins and son Rocky, recently returned from Boston, Mass., where they were called due to the illness of her father, Mr. James Manning. While home Mrs. Jenkins visited her twin sister and two brothers of that area, visiting at Cape Cod and the Berkshires. Mrs. Jenkins reports her father is up and around again following the relapse.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Paul Barth at the Palos Verdes Country Club on Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Carl Larkins and Mrs. William Scanlon.

Little neighborhood playmates helping Jayne Gail Carlton celebrate her third birthday Tuesday afternoon with ice cream and birthday cake at her Doris Way home were Carolyn and Timmie Roettger, Linal and Marlene Fetters, Dorothy Ann, Stannie and Christy Locke, Rocky Jenkins and Bruce Shockency. Mothers of the children also attended the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Barth of El Monte and Mrs. Carl Barth of Westwood were Sunday dinner guests at the Paul Barth home.
