Talented Accordionettes Sign Hollywood Contracts

Among the several Accordionettes who have recently signed Hollywood contracts is Yolanda Francis, singing star of the local group who has just completed her fourth stage play, "The Apple of His Eye." This show played at the Callboard Theatre, Hollywood. Yolanda is now busy making Columbia children's records. Her first assignment at the Columbia Recording Studio was the little singing fire engine "Spick." Tracy Dale, known to his friends as Tad, recently signed a contract with the Arthur Lang Studios, making western pictures and short subjects. He is now also working with Cosmo Morgan at KCM, and can be heard on The World for Kids radio shows sponsored by the American Dental Association on Wednesday and Saturday. Tracy is currently appearing with the Bettie Thomas Accordionettes as an acrobatic dancer and comedian.

Patty Larson also has gone to Hollywood. Her first radio transcription is "And One Came Back." Patty at the age of five is a good acrobat, can do elbow

NATIVITY SCHOOL MOTHERS CLUB TO HOLD INITIAL MEET

Initial meeting of Nativity School Mothers Club will be held at 2 p.m., Friday in the new parochial school, 2371 W. Carson street.

Officers selected to serve during the ensuing term are Mmes. Marie Morin, president; Veronica Zienke, vice president; Laura Felker, treasurer; Joan Donald, secretary, and Mary Sawyer, health committee chairman.

At this meeting plans for the ensuing months will be outlined. A full attendance of mothers of students is requested.

Lioness Club Reports Meet

Social meeting of the Lioness Club was held Tuesday evening, Sept. 21. Guest speaker for the evening was Jimmy Yeltema of the Torrance Flower Shop, who introduced his new associate, Peter Donovan.

Yeltema entertained the group with an interesting and informative talk on the display and arrangement of flowers.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served by hostesses Mesdames Marge Palmer, Dora Perkins and Irma Lessin.

JACQUELYN STEVENSON lovely bride-elect

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Stevenson Jr., of 705-A Sartori avenue, Torrance, announce the betrothal of their daughter, Jacquelyn Beth, to Pvt. James L. (Jack) Cloward, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Cloward, 1347 W. 223rd st., of Torrance. No definite date for the wedding has been set.

Jacquelyn was graduated from Torrance High School, class of '48. Jack attended Torrance High and has been assigned to Construction Engineers' School in the United States Army.

Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge Tell Activities

Silver Crest Rebekah Lodge will hold a regular meeting Sept. 27 in the Women's club at home at Broadway and Pearl, Redondo Beach. All Rebekahs in this area are cordially invited.

Following the meeting refreshment will be held for the initiation planned for Oct. 11. All members who are in the tableaux are urged to attend.

On Thursday Silver Crest officers attended Hawthorne Rebekah Lodge. Deputy President Winifred Jones and Deputy Marshal Sadie Tibbet were honored guests. Charles Tibbet was guest of one of the trustees and Sarah Neukaemper was the guest of the degree captain. Harry Neukaemper also attended. Vice Grand Minerva Keller was a substitute guest officer as R. S. of the vice grand.

Legion Auxiliary Plans Social Night, Reports Activities

Members of American Legion Auxiliary will hold a social meeting on Monday evening, Sept. 27, in St. Andrew's Parish house.

With September as the organization's music month, a program of special numbers will be featured.

During the evening a beautiful crocheted buffet set, donated by Tania Grosbosky, will be given away.

Members' husbands and guests will enjoy the program and the refreshments to be served by committee members.

Highlighted at the last business meeting were reports of Daisy Watson and Gertrude Boyle, who had just returned from the State convention at San Francisco. Seventeen thousand delegates were registered, they stated.

Recent ways and means projects included the Auxiliary's participation in the L.A. County Water Dept. luncheon for 60 served at Civic Auditorium. Plans were completed for the Edison Masonic dinner to be served in the auditorium on Saturday.

An interesting visit to Wadsworth Hospital was reported by Daisy Watson, Cleora Stanger and Gertrude Boyle. The ladies told of the many lovely and useful gifts made by the veterans and displayed at the hospital.

DESSERT CARD PARTY WILL SWELL PHILANTHROPY FUND

Among recent enjoyable affairs for members and guests of Tohola Club was an afternoon dessert card party at the 240th street home of Mrs. Margaret Jones, assisted by Mrs. Sally Jenkins.

Tables were set in the attractive patio for bridge, pinochle, 500 and buncos players. Winners included Mmes. Della Sauer and M. Nackerman, bridge; Louise Christofferson and Clara Goodson, pinochle; Clara Jenson, 500; and Daisy Smith, buncos.

Door prize winners were Mmes. Bessie Putnam and Burns, and special prize received by Mrs. Daisy Smith.

Proceeds of the benefit affair will be used to purchase materials for layettes and Christmas baskets to be distributed by the philanthropic club.

Young Matron Is Recipient of Wee Gifts

Mrs. William Cochrane was honored at an attractively appointed stork shower when Mrs. P. B. Clayton entertained last Wednesday evening in her home, 1352 Engracia avenue.

A pink and white color theme was followed for floral and table decorations and beautiful and useful gifts, arranged in a crepe paper umbrella, were presented to the heir-to-be. Games furnished diversion with Mesdames John Hoffman and Ena Ervin as winners.

Others present were the honoree and Mesdames Marie Grieving, Ruth Moeller, Leonard Young, Moffitt and J. W. Gandy.
