Aside from being the most successful Factory Frolic in Torrance's history, the recent celebration was also the most photographed community affair, a group of photo contest judges discovered Tuesday afternoon. For at that time five judges made their decisions as to the winners of the recent photo contest sponsored jointly by the Torrance Herald and the A-1 Photo Service. Entries had to show some relationship to the Factory Frolic.

Winner of the Sweepstakes Award, a cash prize of $25 went to Reuben V. Hernandez, an employee of the Columbia Steel Corp., for his picture of a little girl with an oversize wrench fixing her bicycle. The Sweepstakes award, which is reproduced in this issue of the Herald, is now on display in the windows of the A-1 Photo Service Store, 1312 Sartori avenue, as are all other prize winners.

Based on photographic excellence and close relationship to some phase of the Factory Frolic, the judges made the following awards:

- $10 MERCHANDISE AWARDS
First place action shots—G. A. Showalter.
First place children pictures—G. Don Grounds.
First place general Fair activities—J. Winston Holmes.
$15 FLASH CAMERA
(or like amount in other merchandise)
First place amateur—F. W. Miller.
Other contestants who received ribbons for their entries included the following:
Action—H. F. Mellen, second; Kenneth Beer, third.
Children—Clyde Byrns, Jr., second; G. Don Grounds, third.
General—W. A. Silvester, second; H. F. Mellen, third.
Amateur—Robert H. Han-

The Herald Files of 15 Years Ago...

Sept. 21, 1933
Central Evangelical church, which has just completed 17 years of service in the spiritual life of Torrance, will celebrate this event next Sunday with a big rally and home coming day when many members of past and present congregations are expected to visit the church.

This newspaper was requested to ask its readers to advise the National Recovery Board by return mail as to the number of new employees in their respective manufacturing, wholesale or retail establishments put to work since the NRA Blue Eagle campaign on Aug. 1, 1933.

Royal Neighbors of this city and their friends will be entertained with a bunco party tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Schroeder, 1926 Gramercy.

A charming affair of last Thursday was the dessert bridge with which Mrs. Robert Burns entertained at her home, 1327 Aeolia avenue. Awards for high scores at contract were presented to Mesdames A. A. Strom, D. A. Murphy and Louis Fernley. In the party were Mesdames E. L. Patterson, F. T. Fischer, C. D. Lowen, R. F. Bishop, H. B. Whittington, T. T. Babbitt, N. F. Gallucci and L. H. Cheadle.

FROM THE ADS:

Karl's Shoe Store was selling men's high top work shoes for shop, mill, or ranch in black or tan for $1.99.

Safeway's meat market offered these bargains: Bacon, 18 cents a pound; baby beef roast, 15 cents a pound; fresh hamburger, two pounds for 25 cents.

Harder's Market offered eggs for sale at two dozen for 25 cents.

Thor washing machines were being advertised by the Star Furniture Company for $14.50.

AT THE CINEMA:

High class vaudeville was playing at the Torrance theater where the movie "The Torch Singer," starring Claudette Colbert, was appearing on the screen.

Rin-Tin-Tin was the star of the "Lone Defender" which was playing at the Lomita theater. It was a benefit performance.

Reporter: So you're studying political economy at college?
Student: It's a useless course. Why learn to economize in politics? It's not being done!
