

Baker Garden Is Setting for Dessert Card Party

The beautiful garden at the Mmes. Agnes Lander, Frances M. N. Felker home on Beech avenue was the setting last Wednesday afternoon for a party benefiting the new Torrance convent of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Orange, given under the sponsorship of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America.

From an attractively appointed buffet table set in the garden, 85 guests were served delicious home made cakes, coffee and tea. The afternoon hours were spent playing bridge and pinocle, some guests brought sewing, and others chatted and enjoyed the garden.

Plants were appropriate prizes for the card games. Bridge awards were made to Mesdames William Chinkscale, Dean L. Sears and C. E. Ward. Miss Rose Ortnan and Mmes. C. J. Flynn and Martin were recipients of pinocle prizes.

The hostess, Mrs. Felker, who is philanthropy chairman of Court St. Catherine, was assisted by Miss Mary Bray and

Mrs. Elsie Smith Reports Attendance at State Convention

Senior Regent Elsie Smith of Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, reports that a large representation from Torrance attended the state convention of Loyal Order of Moose and Women of Moose held last week in San Diego.

Special guest was Miss Catherine Smith, grand counselor from Mooseheart. Reporting on Mooseheart, she stated that more than 900 children are now in the child city, including a family of 12 and their mother.

Highlight for the Torrance group was a dinner held in the private dining room of San Diego Hotel. Included were Mr. and Mrs. James Evans and guests, Charles Shiffer, Fay Dobson, James Johnson, Alvin Hill and Frank Bell, Mrs. Elsie Smith and Mrs. Cora Hill.

Others attending the convention were Mesdames Annabelle Holland, Mae Nelson and Mr. Charles Grimes.

Plans are going forward by all Moose chapters and lodges for the national convention to be held next year in San Francisco.

Mary Calitri, publicity chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Faren, center, are shown surrounded by their 13 children, 23 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

G. A. Evans Hosts to Kin

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Evans, of 1021 Portola avenue, are entertaining at their home guests her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Wurtz of Cleveland, Ohio and Florida.

Among the courtesies extended was a dinner party at home with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Koch and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Atwood as Torrance guests. Sightseeing trips during the week have included San Diego, Santa Barbara, a visit to the fair and other points of interest.

Election of officers was the principal business conducted at the last meeting of the B. K. K.'s held in their new clubhouse.

Named to serve during the ensuing six months were: Marie Atkins, president; Conna Mauk, vice-president; Lorraine Foley, secretary; Betty Wright, treasurer; Lorraine Anderson, historian-reporter and Janet Davis, sergeant-at-arms.

At the conclusion of the meeting dainty refreshments were enjoyed by the new officers and the following members: Mona Henry, Donna Baer, and Joyce Riggio.

Another recent affair for the BKK's was a "come as you are" breakfast enjoyed Saturday at the home of Joyce Riggio, 1318 Amapola avenue.

Attending the breakfast were Lorraine Anderson, Marie Atkins, Donna Baer, Janet Davis, Lorraine Foley, Barbara Kelley, Donna Mauk, Betty Wright, the hostess, her mother and her cousin.

The surprise affair was the occasion for much hilarity with fines paid for each additional garment donned by guests after they had been aroused from bed by the summons: "Arise and shine at nine."

LUTHERAN RALLY AT HOLLYWOOD BOWL SUNDAY

The sixteenth season of the International Radio Lutheran Hour will be opened Sunday, Oct. 3 at 3:30 o'clock with a special rally at Hollywood Bowl. Dr. Walter A. Maier, principal speaker of the Lutheran Hour, will be in Los Angeles for the opening rally.

From a very small beginning the Lutheran Hour has grown to be a world-wide radio broadcast with perhaps the largest consistent audience in the history of radio.

St. Matthew Lutheran Church, under construction at the corner of Figueroa and "L" streets, is one of more than 100 Lutheran congregations in southern California assisting in the project. Al Steinweg is general chairman of the local group's effort.

Included in the program at the Bowl will be a colorful Parade of Nations made up of persons representing every country in which the popular Lutheran Hour is heard. A gigantic choir of voices from all over southern California will be another feature of the rally.

No admission to the Bowl will be charged.

AT BELLINI HOME

Mrs. Alice M. Speheger, of 1304 Portola avenue, returned last week from a month's visit at the Twin Falls, Idaho home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bellini and their daughter, Miss Teala Rosemary.

Just shop around a bit. Mark down the features of other washers — and the prices. Then compare them with this big, double-wall, bowl-shaped tub Speed Queen. You'll find that no other washer "adds up" like a Speed Queen. No other washer gives you so much in genuine quality at so low a price. That's why we handle the Speed Queen — and why we would be pleased to deliver one to your home.
