Bert Smith
Heads Green
Streak Club

The Green Streak Gray Club elected new officers for the club Monday night at the regular meeting held at the Recreation Hut on Fern avenue playground. Officers are:

Bert Smith, president; Jimmy Murphy, vice president; Charles Valencia, secretary; Arden Miller, treasurer; and Tommy Long, sergeant-at-arms. Adult advisors for the club are Bud Lee, Marvin Goetsch and Van Vanderpool. The Green Streak's Club is one of the six YMCA Clubs for boys sponsored in Torrance. Forty-five of the 50 members were present for the election. Installation of the officers was held by Milton Isbell. A singing short devotion and motion picture rounded out the program for the evening.

Three teams from the Fern Avenue District Club were entered in the YMCA-City Recreation "Touch" Football League; the Streaks in the Midget Division; the Greens and the Green II in the Pee Wee Division of the league.

Regular meetings are held each Monday night for the boys, ages 8 to 13, sponsored by the adult leader of the group.

NEW POLICE NAMED

Appointment of two new police officers, Donald E. Nash and Robert C. Andrew, was announced this week following the successful completion of civil service examinations.

CHAMBER GETS FUND

A monthly allocation of $1000 has been granted the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce, by the Redondo City Council. The allocation is from the city's advertising, music and parks fund, and is retroactive to last July 1.

Police Chief at Session in Santa Monica

Police Chief John Stroh is attending the annual meeting of the Peace Officers Association of California in Santa Monica this week.

Special sessions are being devoted to Communist activities, juvenile delinquency and general police problems and procedure for police groups.

Speakers include Richard B. Hood, chief special agent of the FBI in Los Angeles, Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, Senator William Knowland, and Gov. Earl Warren—if he can get there.

Movie Fans
Bid to Camera
Club Tuesday

An exhibition of prints by the Eastman Kodak Company and a discussion on composition will feature the next meeting of the Torrance Camera Club next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Movie fans are invited to sit in with the club Tuesday night, with the thought in mind of starting a Torrance movie club. Photographs taken at the recent Camera Club picnics will be exhibited in addition to open competition prints.

Walteria PTA

By GENEVIEVE SIMPSON

All is in readiness for the big Halloween Carnival to be given Saturday afternoon beginning at 4 o'clock. Youngsters will line up at Walteria Park, one block east of Hawthorne boulevard on 101 highway, costumed and in high spirits, for the grand march.

The parade will lead to Walteria school grounds where prizes will be awarded for the best Halloween costumes. There will be four prizes, one for the kindergarten and pre-school children, one for first, second and third grades, one for the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, one for junior, senior high and adults.

"Punishment"
Sunday Theme

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." This declaration of Paul to the Galatians will be the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson. Sermon on "Everlasting Punishment" in all branches of the First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Plans for Education
Week Made

All Torrance schools are busy with plans for American Education Week Nov. 7 to 13, when special events will be scheduled to bring parents and teachers together, according to school officials. Topic for the week is "Strengthening the Foundations of Freedom."

Parents are urged to visit their schools at least once during the week. The week will be closed by a community reception for teachers Monday evening, Nov. 15, in the High School gymnasium, sponsored jointly by the Torrance PTA Council and the Torrance Educational Advisory Committee.

Special plans of each school will be announced next week, and the daily topics for the week are as follows: Nov. 7, (Sunday) Learning to Live Together; Nov. 8 (Monday) Improving the Educational Program; Nov. 9 (Tuesday) Obtaining Qualified Teachers; Nov. 10 (Wednesday) Providing Adequate Finance; Nov. 11 (Thursday) Safeguarding Our American; Nov. 12 (Friday) Promoting Health and Safety; Nov. 13 (Saturday) Developing Worthy Family Life.

Hobby Lobby Purchased by the Darrows

Hobby Lobby, located on Cravens avenue at Post, will reopen Saturday morning under new management.

Charlie and Betty Darrow, who reside at 2056 W. 220th street, are the new owners of the popular coffee shop. Arrangements have been made to serve early breakfast, merchants' lunch, malts and ice cream confections. Specialties of the house will include raised doughnuts and French fried cinnamon rolls.

Torrance residents for 17 years, the Darrows have the good wishes of their many friends, including his co-workers at Columbia Steel, where he was employed before entering the U. S. Navy.

For the "tricksters" on Halloween and for their customers, the new proprietors have promised free doughnuts Saturday afternoon and evening.

IS CONVALESCENT
Mrs. D. W. Quigley, of 1606 Crenshaw boulevard, is convalescing at home following major surgery at Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Clean-Up Due!
City's Street
Sweeper Here

Torrance will be a cleaner city next week!

The city's new motor street sweeper was delivered Tuesday afternoon, approximately one month sooner than expected.

The manufacturer, the Brown-Bevis Company, told City Engineer George Stevens they would send a man down in a few days to show the street department how to operate it.

Starting next week the new machine will be used to sweep the gutters of the business district and later the residential district at regular intervals.

Chess Fans
Are Invited to San Pedro

The San Pedro Chess Club will hold nomination and election of new officers for the coming year at its regular business meeting at 7 o'clock next Wednesday evening in Anderson Memorial Playground club room.

All persons in the harbor district who are interested in chess are invited by President H. D. Meyer to attend the meeting.

On Wednesday night, Nov. 10 there is to be a simultaneous exhibition by Mr. Banner of Orange. All chess players in the harbor district are invited to participate in this exhibition. Non-members may participate for a small fee.

Oil Drilling
Ordinance Set for Adoption

Torrance City Council is scheduled to consider adoption of the ordinance drawn last August, "regulating the drilling, producing, operation and maintenance of oil and gas wells and appurtenant facilities within the city limits," at its meeting Nov. 9.

Provisions of the ordinance have been discussed with oil operators by City Attorney C. Douglass Smith, and it is predicted that the measure will become law at the next regular session of the council.

SAN FRANCISCO VISIT

Mrs. Mina Shidler reports an enjoyable vacation trip to San Francisco, where she visited at the home of her son, Dr. Fredrick Shidler.
