

ENJOYABLE PROGRAM SET FOR CLUBWOMEN

Torrance Woman's Club members and guests have in store for them a delightful program when they attend the monthly meeting next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. I. Laughon, president, will conduct the business meeting and Mrs. S. V. Rauss, program chairman, will present as featured speaker, Monroe Manning, whose topic is to be "It Happened in the Theater." He comments: "Biggest laughs in the theatrical history have been the unrehearsed incidents that happened by mistake during performances." A compilation of the best of these stories provides the hilarious material for his talk.

Clubwomen are still enthusiastically discussing Lorita Baker Valley's opening lecture of the year, which was enjoyed by a capacity group Wednesday morning in the clubhouse.

An attractively appointed tea followed the lecture and book review. Pouring were Mrs. Grover C. VanDeventer and Mrs. C. Maxwell Rohring. In the absence of Mrs. B. T. Whitney, ways and means chairman, Mrs. VanDeventer presented Mrs. Valley.

Representing Torrance Woman's senior and junior clubs at Ocean House Tuesday afternoon were Mesdames C. T. Rippey, E. R. Smith, E. T. Whitney, Dean L. Sears, J. T. Oursler and J. Parke Montague.

Seated at tables surrounding the beautiful pool, guests enjoyed a fashion show presented by Saks Fifth Avenue during the luncheon hour. Later a ballet provided entertainment.

The affair was a benefit arranged by Hollywood Woman's Club, Philanthropic division. Proceeds will go to Neurotic-Psychiatric patients at Sawtelle and to the Childrens Hospital.

Another delightful affair attended by Torrance clubwomen was a tea held at Pickfair as a benefit for the Infantile Paralysis Foundation.

More than 250 guests were invited to assist officials in mapping strategy for the ensuing March of Dimes campaign.

Miss Mary Pickford, gracious hostess, personally greeted the

GIRL SCOUT TROOP PLANS HALLOWEEN PARTY WEDNESDAY

A Halloween party was held at Harbor City School by members of Girl Scout troop No. 613 Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 27. The troop was divided into patrols and the first group blazed a trail to the home of Mrs. E. R. Walker and others followed. A wiener roast and other activities were enjoyed.

The troop, which meets at Harbor City School, sponsored by the PTA, requires more leaders. An appeal is being made to relieve the work of the present leaders of Girl Scout troops here who find their rosters filled and a long list of girls waiting admittance.

LEGION WOMEN PLAN ACTIVITIES FOR FALL SEASON

Members of the American Legion Auxiliary, Harbor City Post No. 382, are busy with fall planning for benefit events as well as carrying on the work of the 19th District.

A group attended the district meeting held Wednesday at Willington and heard an appeal from the district child welfare chairman for the various units to put a little more effort and funds into this particular department of the program.

The meeting, which was preceded by a luncheon at noon, was attended by Mesdames Grace Gibson, Jennie Beck, Gertrude Cheek, Frances Travis and Margaret Lindsay all representing the Harbor City group.

A Halloween dance, to be open to the public, will be held at the Harbor City American Legion Hall Saturday night with a good time promised by the committee to all who attend.

Costumes will be very much in evidence the committee in charge states that it is optional for the dancers to be in masquerade.

A benefit card party is scheduled for the evening of Nov.

6th. Also at the Legion Hall with attractive prizes and a door prize to be offered.

Arrangements in the capable hands of Mrs. Teresa Maycoux and Mrs. Aina Adams will include an evening of various card games followed by the serving of refreshments.
