

Musical Program Highlights PTA Father's Night Meeting

An enthusiastic crowd of more than one hundred people attended the Father's Night program and meeting held by Harbor City P.T.A. Monday evening when a highly-entertaining musical program highlighted the well-balanced events.

Mrs. Herman Ludwig, president, took charge of a brief business meeting with Mrs. Frank Baratta leading the pledge of allegiance; group singing of "God Bless America" and the inspirational message by Mrs. Marian White. Mrs. Howard McPeak, membership chairman, announced that a ten percent increase in the unit's membership had been attained during the annual drive.

Miss Helen Smith, teacher at the school, was highly interesting when she gave a brief talk in celebration of National Book Week to be held next week. Many outstanding books were displayed by Miss Smith and Mrs. John Jimenez, magazine chairman of the P.T.A. and Harbor City librarian.

Members of the faculty were introduced by Principal Winston Scott as they stepped to the front of the auditorium and Mrs. Ludwig presented a check for $50 in behalf of the Harbor City P.T.A. to Mrs. J. Waechter, president of Normont Terrace P.T.A., to be added to their general fund.

Four past presidents of the Harbor City unit, Mrs. John Shields, Mrs. E. R. Walker, Mrs. S. Coates and Mrs. Fred Kroll were also introduced.

Mrs. Marvin Scott, program chairman, presented the Harbor Principals' Quartet in four lively, humorous numbers which were well received by their audience. They included a travesty on "Coming Thru The Rye," "Old King Cole," "Women" and "Jungle Land."

Members of the quartet, which has earned a reputation for close harmony and clever selections, is composed of Winston Scott, Harry Sams, Carl Carter and Wilfred Holdridge. Accompanying the quartet was Miss Sylvia Hokkane of Fries Avenue School in Wilmington.

Mrs. E. R. Walker, past president of the unit and at present

MEAT SERVICE SUSPENDED

Again this week-end we cannot offer meat in our markets in Los Angeles, San Fernando Valley, and Santa Monica areas, because of meat cutters, along with those of hundreds of other markets in this area, are still out on strike.

The market employers have made a fair offer of increased wages—an increase of 12 1/2% an hour.

In the public interest, market operators hope a settlement can be reached and normal meat service resumed as soon as possible. In the meantime, our grocery and produce sections are open to serve you.

MRS. CLYDE BUTT HONORED WITH STORK SHOWER

Mrs. Raul Gerhart was hostess at a stork shower given for Mrs. Clyde Butt at her home, 2051 Now Hampshire avenue, Torrance with a large guest group bidden to the well-appointed party.

Amusing games held the attention of the group and prizes went to Wynn Richards, Grace Marsteller, Marvella Geurin and Opal Simons.

As the dainty gifts arrived they were placed in a bassinet resplendent in blue and pink. After Mrs. Butt had opened the many packages, refreshments of cake decorated with a stork and miniature baby shoes, ice cream and coffee were served.

Guests were Opal Simon, Margaret Cantwell, Jean Diffe, June Holdsworth, Marcia Pivarski, Vera Fenton, Mary Walter, Marvella Geurin and Mrs. R. R. Gerhart of Lomita; Wynn Richards, Thelma Ritchie, Peggy DeJaifre, Mary Andreal and Tommy, Vera Wellman, Florence Paltridge, Jean Heron, Grace Marsteller of Torrance; Audine Franck, Jackie Smith, Helmi Heiskell, Long Beach; Helen Weirich and Mrs. H. B. Jacobs, Wilmington; Pauline Reeves, Waltera and Norma Pilcher, South Gate.

BYPU CLASSES ENTERTAINED BY TEACHERS

Miss Irene Mills and Miss Laura Thomas were hostesses at their home on 255th street, Sunday evening to the B.Y.P.U. classes of the First Baptist church.

Newly-elected officers of the Junior High School B.Y.P.U. have taken office and include Don Ann Long, president; Joyce Bernhardt, vice president; Barbara Youngman, secretary and Billy Griggs, treasurer. Miss Laura Thomas is sponsor.

Games were played during the evening with Mrs. Long and daughter, Don Ann, planning a lively evening of fun.

DOWELL BABY IS WELCOMED

When Wilma Robyn, infant daughter of Lt. J. W. Dowell, USN, and Mrs. Dowell (Betty Turner), arrived in Salinas recently she was welcomed home by her sisters Diana 3, and Karen one and a half years old. The children's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dowell and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Turner, all of Torrance.
