Psychology Talk Highlight of Orange St. PTA Meeting

Roland Bach, manager of the Long Beach branch, American Red Cross, was a highly entertaining and interesting speaker Monday night when he addressed members and guests of Orange Street PTA on the subject "Emotional Psychology."

Using a chart of a human brain, the speaker told his audience how emotions react in human beings and completed his talk by stating that he believed in two things, first, in Almighty God and second, in American people who go to make up our world as it is today.

Beemans Are Rotary Hosts

Dr. and Mrs. John W. Beeman Thursday evening were gracious hosts when they entertained at a beautifully appointed buffet supper at their El Prado home.

Colorful fruits and fall leaves formed the centerpiece for the buffet table and arrangements of chrysanthemums were used throughout the rooms.

Guests were Victor M. Ekdahl, governor of the 107th District of Rotary International, and approximately 50 members of the Rotary Club of which Dr. Beeman recently was installed as president.

Clubwomen, Guests at Box Social

Torrance Woman's clubhouse was a setting for a most enjoyable old-fashioned box supper Wednesday evening.

Arrangements of the affair were directed by Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. E. Taylor Whitney.

Enjoying the festive supper were members, their husbands and guests.

Following the informal meal, which was climaxed by the presentation of prizes to Mrs. Albert Ewalt and to Mrs. Robert T. McCallum, the group enjoyed group singing of favorite selections with Mrs. Paul Loranger as accompanist.

The party was preceded by an informal noon luncheon and business meeting conducted by Mrs. W. I. Laughon, president.

'Farewell' for Matron and Patron

Honoring Edna Babcock, worthy matron, and Vincent Vielleneve, worthy patron, members of Torrance Chapter, No. 350, Order of the Eastern Star gathered in Masonic Temple Thursday evening when the annual "farewell" observance was held.

Present were Frances Buckley, of Torrance Chapter, 1948 deputy of the 76th district; and Louise Thompson of Playa Linda Chapter, 1949 deputy of the 77th district, who were escorted into the chapter room and seated in the east. Others honored were seven visiting matrons and patrons, who also were seated in the east, past matrons and patrons of Torrance chapter and visitors from other chapters.

Presented by Florence Vielleneve, chairman for the evening, Dean Lougee and Naomi Edwards Lockman entertained with well chosen vocal selections.

At the close of the chapter meeting the group adjourned to the banquet room where Mrs. Vielleneve and her committee served delicious refreshments.

Borrowing the heart theme for the year chosen by the worthy matron, the committee had fashioned diminutive potted trees from which were suspended innumerable pink and blue hearts.

WOMEN OF MOOSE TELL ACTIVITIES

Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, are completing plans for a special initiation to be held in V.F.W. hall on Dec. 8. Co-workers interested in joining the fancy drill team may contact Senior Regent Elsie Smith or Ritual Chairman Thelma Hill. Torrance Chapter hopes to bring home first prize from the national convention in San Francisco next August, so the members are busy with their plans.

Names and ages of children who will attend the Christmas party have been requested.

The turkey dinner to 200 Loyal Order of the Moose members and Women of the Moose was a splendid success and soon will be repeated, it was reported.

Priscilla Young's home, 1220 Mauretania street, Wilmington, will be the setting for the next daytime pot luck luncheon, according to Mary Caltri, publicity chairman.

Walteria PTA

By GENEVIEVE SIMPSON
The Spirit of Thanksgiving permeated the meeting held last Thursday afternoon, Nov. 18, in the school auditorium.

Everyone enjoyed the beautiful number sung by the Mothersingers and the solo played and sung by Mrs. Marie French.

Mrs. Neil Stevenson, elementary Extension Chairman, gave a talk on "School Helps Us Build." She said that parents should share the knowledge of their children with the teachers; correlating the teachers' academic knowledge with the parents' knowledge for the good of the children, both at school and at home. Her advice was to give the children responsibilities, to allow them to build and grow, instead of being tied to Mother's apron strings.

She asked the mothers to bring young kindergarten and first grade mothers into PTA, which helps them to get out of the rut of housekeeping, to cooperate with the school work. Elementary children welcome parents in school, older children are usually the opposite. If your junior high or high school children acknowledge you on the campus, you are a success!

Tea was served after the meeting. Although there were not as many members present as usual, the child welfare "Close and Shelf" was benefited by the gifts brought. Clean clothing and canned foods are most welcomed at every meeting throughout the season.

THETA RHO GIRLS PLAN CHRISTMAS PARTY EVENT

Plans for a Christmas party were arranged when Theta Rho Girls met Wednesday evening with Mary Montonye, president, in charge of the business meeting at the Community church social hall.

The date has been set for Dec. 15 and will include an exchange of gifts.

The girls will also pack Christmas boxes for their two adopted orphans at the L.O.O.F. Home at Gilroy. The little girl is 8 years of age and the boy is 5.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by Sharon Elliott and Patricia Greer.

Toluca Club Elects Officers; Arranges Two-Day Rummage Sale

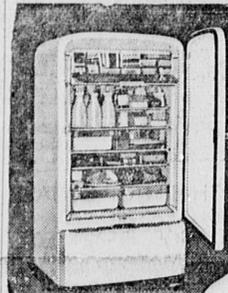

Friday and Saturday, Nov. 26 and 27, have been set as dates for a rummage sale as a ways and means project for Toluca Club. Location of the sale is the storeroom on Torrance boulevard formerly occupied by Terry's Dime Store.

The women already have received a fine selection of men, women and children's clothing and shoes, as well as many household articles.

Proceeds of the project will swell the fund, to be used for a year's movies for the Gra-Y Boys Club.

Election of officers was the principal business transacted by the women at their last meeting; officers who will serve during the ensuing term are: Mabel Glover, president; Ines Arbill, vice president; Loella Elder, secretary and Edith Marjott, treasurer.
