Mothersinger Group Will Sing for PTA

The Christmas meeting of Tenth District PTA at Polytechnic High School, 400 West Washington boulevard, Los Angeles, Thursday evening, Dec. 2 will attract nearly 2000 persons, according to attendance figures at previous Christmas meetings.

An outstanding program with holiday music and a speaker of note to deliver the Christmas message has been arranged for the meeting which will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Under the baton of William C. Hartshorn, music director of the Los Angeles City Schools, Tenth District's own Mothersingers Chorus, which will number several hundred and include many from Lomita-San Pedro PTA Council and the Mother's Chorus of Orange St. PTA, Lomita, will present the musical portion of the program.

Assisting the chorus will be two of last year's PTA music scholarship winners, soloist Joan Chaffee and accompanist Dwana Thomas.

Rev. William Merwin, one of the ministers of Pasadena's First Methodist Church, will interpret "World Need for Spiritual Guidance—The Home and Church Prepare the Child for His Future."

DOROTHY FAULKNER SEATED PRESIDENT OF SOCIAL CLUB

Mrs. Dorothy Faulkner of 262nd street was installed president of the social club of Pt. Firmin chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at the home of Mrs. Grace Ham, 1628 Pacific Coast highway with Lorraine Bates outgoing president conducting. Others charged with their duties for the coming year were Helen Little, vice-president; Lucille Johnson, secretary and Dolores Olson, treasurer. For their installation the new officers were presented with beautiful corsages.

A resume of a recent trip taken to the Eastern Star Home in Santa Monica was given by the retiring president. The club presented a program for the 43 members of the home with Thelma Kaempfer conducting community singing, she stated.
