OLD-FASHIONED FAIR PLANS TAKE SHAPE AT SEASIDE RANCHOS

Fun and work were combined on Saturday at the Schmitz home in Seaside Ranchos. A committee of husbands and wives gathered in the Schmitz dining room for an informal buffet lunch at noon. After lunch the plans for the Fair to be held on the school grounds on Saturday, November 26, were worked out in some detail. Late afternoon found two enthusiastic cheering sections set up in the den watching the USC-Ohio football game. Paul Roettger led the Ohio cheering section with Paul Barth sounding off for USC.

The Fair will open at 2 p. m. on Saturday, November 26. There will be games and fun for young and old. At 4 p. m., Claud Ferrel will "dig up" his famous barbecued meat, and the chow line will form. A complete dinner will be served for 75 cents (50 for children). In addition to this there will be a sandwich bar, a drink bar and a dessert bar.

The hobby show is one that should attract many. Here you may enter your handiwork for a prize, makes no difference what it is, food, needlework, model planes, or stamp collections.

There will be a doll show for the young ladies, and an exhibit of electric trains by the young men. Pets will be displayed and judged.

One can have picture post cards made of himself at the fair to send home or buy an apron for Aunt Sue for Christmas.

Mother can come and enjoy herself as long as the fair is open. The cooked food she will buy at the fair will take care of Sunday dinner.

Those serving on the planning committee Saturday were Messrs. and Mmes. Paul Roettger, Claud Ferrel, Earl Eckert, Paul Barth, Mrs. Byron Johnson, G. H. Miller and Mrs. William Schmitz.
