METHODIST WOMEN SET MEETINGS

Circle 1 of Women's Society of Christian Service will meet at 9:30 a.m., Tuesday, November 1, in the church for an all-day sewing session. At noon an enchilada luncheon will be served by Mmes. Sloan, Behen, Bender, and Violet Brooks. Members are asked to return finished and unfinished articles for the fall festival.

Circle 2 will meet Thursday, November 3, at the church for a 1 o'clock dessert luncheon with Mmes. Clara Whitmer and Lillian King as hostesses. Circle 3 will meet Friday, November 4, at the home of Mrs. Bessie Box, 2359 Torrance boulevard. Mrs. Loma Turner will assist as co-hostess for a 12:30 dessert luncheon. The general WSCS meeting will be held Thursday, November 10, with a business session in the morning. Mrs. Gray will lead devotionals and luncheon will be under direction of Circle 2. The afternoon program will feature Rev. and Mrs. Walter Carhart, missionaries from Chile. Date for the church festival has been set for December 2 at the church. Booths will open

Square Dance

The Mothers' Club of Jobs Daughters will entertain in the banquet room of Masonic Temple Saturday, October 29, with a square dancing party at 8 p.m. for all members of Jobs Daughters, their escorts, and friends. An instructor will be present at 11 a.m., and in the evening a turkey dinner will be served to adults at $1.25 and children, 65 cents.

Annual Bazaar And Dinner to Aid Church

The annual pre-holiday bazaar sponsored by the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Wayside Chapel on Friday, November 4 will be highlighted again this year with the traditional Italian spaghetti dinner complete with salad, good coffee and home-made pie. Dinner tickets will be sold for 85 cents for adults and 40 cents for children. Mrs. Percy Goodell is general chairman of the dinner committee. Mrs. O. Holland will take charge of the salads and a group of young women of the church under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Wise, will take over the duties of the dining room. Beginning in the afternoon and continuing through the evening hours a variety of bazaar materials will be on sale. Fancy work, dish towels, hand-quilted comforters, aprons of all kinds and sizes in very attractive patterns, pillow slips and miscellaneous baby articles will be arranged for the holiday shoppers. Mrs. Roger Sawyer will sell Christmas cards and Mrs. W. J. Pratt and Mrs. Ada Cross will take charge of the fancy work.

RECENT BRIDE . . . Miss Ruth Spriggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Spriggs, 1668 W. 252nd street, Harbor City, exchanged vows recently with Oliver Bodie of La Mesa before 150 guests at the Lomita Presbyterian Church. Following a honeymoon spent at Catalina Island Mr. and Mrs. Bodie are residing in Harbor City.

DeMolay Mothers' Leaders

Highlighting the meeting of De Molay Mothers Circle Tuesday evening at the Arlington avenue home of Mrs. Frank Dominguez was installation of officers with Mrs. G. C. Mittan as installing officer. Assuming official duties for the new term are: Mrs. Frank Paour Jr., president; Mrs. Paul Findley and Mrs. L. V. Babcock, vice presidents. Each of the incoming officers was the recipient of an attractive corsage as she was installed.

Tell Need For Cooperation

Musicians both non-professional and professional from the 16 communities the South Bay-Harbor Symphony Association represents are urged to take part in this civic organization, maintained for the cultural betterment of the Southland. Chairs are open—and particularly in the string section. Application may be made either by attending the Thursday night rehearsals, or contacting Don Carper at Hermosa Music Center—Frontier 25048, or Mrs. R. L. Lewis at Lomita 1321 W.

VISIT PARENTS
Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Sinclair of Glendora were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sinclair, 2326 Sonoma avenue.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Findley, 2121 Grameray avenue on November 15. Projects planned for next month include a bazaar party and a tour of Helm's Bakery, Los Angeles.
