

Our Community Christmas program was quite impressive, starting with community singing around the lighted tree, organ accompaniment by Ed Jeffrey and a beautiful solo by Mrs. Lawrence.

A lovely gesture was the presentation of the live tree and engraved plaque to Mary Conover in memory of her flyer husband.

Following this, Los Canejoneros entertained with delightful Christmas selections very well rendered. Big moment was the arrival of Santa with gifts for all the children. It was a lovely evening with just enough briskness in the air to make it seem like an old fashioned Christmas eve.

"Hospitality Houses" were certainly a neighborly idea with a home in each block holding "Open House" following the tree program.

Good cheer in the forms of hot drinks, (baby it was cold outside) or other refreshments were served at all the parties. Those who were kind enough to open their homes to their neighbors and friends were the Boslers, the Horns, the Rowans, Bud Mewborn, and the Harvey Spellmans. These people, along with the help of a few of their neighbors furnished and prepared all the refreshments. Thanks a lot!

Mrs. Mildred Arndt, Senior Girl Scout leader, had her girls over for a party after the program.

A few of the girls from the intermediate troop and their leader went caroling to bring cheer to a few people who could not attend the program because of illness.

Congratulations are in order for Bud Mewborn who recently passed his State Bar Examination.

Bud attended the University of Michigan and graduated from University of Southern California. Later he practised law for two years in Memphis, Tennessee. He is quite active in community affairs, being on the Board of Directors of our Home Owners' association and on the committee of our Brownie troop as a sponsor representative.

Harry and Florence Wheeler of Reese Road returned Monday from a ten-day trip. They visited relatives in Richmond, Sacramento, and San Francisco. Christmas was spent with Florence's mother and sister in Santa Cruz.

Shari Lynn Church celebrated her seventh birthday with a party last Tuesday. Her little guests were Timmy Roetger, Alice, Johnny and Betsy Mewborn, Mary Lou Cannon, and her brother and sister Billy and Lauri Church.

Games were played and ice cream and cake were served.

Baskets of toys and food were filled by the PTA and delivered on Christmas Eve.

Fred Buxton is handing out cigars again. He has "completed" his family of two each with the addition of Innis Irene, seven pound, four ounces, born last Friday evening. Ellen is doing fine and came home from the hospital Wednesday. The Buxtons have three other children, John, Barbara, and Freddie.

Ted and Eileen Pullen were surprised by a visit from the stork last Wednesday. Their baby wasn't expected until January 17 or thereabouts. In fact it all happened so suddenly that Mary Conover assisted (having just the day before received her Red Cross certificate, she was well qualified.)

The baby, a girl weighed more than seven pounds. The Pullens have another child, Kathy, five.

The Frank Hanovers had an egg-nog party on Christmas Eve. The Harrises came with their son Bob and his date, Bernice Brown. Lola's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fisch. Other guests were the Tom McNarys, Clinton Starks and Gene and Mary Jane Miller.

Ruth Hanover had a very pleasant surprise Monday. She had just talked to her parents in Pittsburgh, Pa., when a few minutes later, her brother and sister called from Boston. Her brother had placed a conference call and arranged for a three-way conversation with Ruth's parents and sister in Pittsburgh as a Christmas gift. It was quite a thrill.

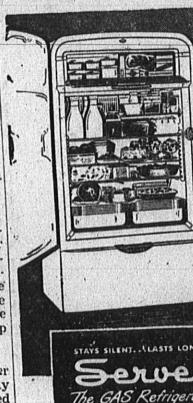

Betty and Walter Holloway entertained their family at dinner Christmas. Her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dodge, came from Costa Mesa and her aunt, Miss Mance Taylor, came from Berkeley to spend about a week here.

Joining them were her sister and her family, Dorothy and Byron Johnson and their three children, Byron Jr., Mary, and Charles.

Don't forget the Association dinner next Tuesday. Get your tickets from your block captains. We should all try to attend as it will be a social evening as well as an important meeting.
