

PRESIDENT AGAIN . . . Tweed Jolly, newly elected president of the Torrance Optimist Club, gives up the past president's pin he won after serving as proxy of the El Centro Optimists. Delbert Vaughn, outgoing Torrance president, is removing the pin in preparation to installing a president's pin on Jolly Friday. Members and their wives will attend the rites to be held in Higgin's Brick Patio in North Torrance.

One-third of GI's Paid Dividends

Payment of the special $2.84 billion GI insurance dividend is one-third complete, Veterans Administration reported at the close of business Tuesday, February 14, 1950.

With some 10 million more checks to be mailed on the applications already received, Harold W. Breining, VA assistant administrator for insurance,
