

FOUNDERS' DAY NOTED AT HIGH SCHOOL PTA

Founders Day was observed and past presidents of the association were honored when Torrance High School PTA met for a most enjoyable evening session in the school library. Mrs. W. E. Bowen presided and introduced past presidents, Mesdames Robert S. Sleeth, C. E. Woodcock, L. F. Watson, Helen Selover and A. C. Turner, presenting each with a valentine corsage.

Dr. J. Heinrich Hull, superintendent of Torrance Unified Schools, as speaker of the evening, discussed the school bond issue.

Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, YWCA program director, spoke briefly in behalf of the organization's current membership drive.

Highlighting the entertainment program was an authentically costumed Founders Day skit, "Hoops, Hobbies and Slacks" very cleverly portrayed by Mesdames Merwin Schwab, John King, Grover C. VanDeventer and J. F. Stöck.

Duets, "Because You're You" from Victor Herbert's Red Mill, and "Sweethearts," from Blossomtime, sung by Mrs. Barbara Stiers and Lloyd G. Jones, whose accompanist was Mrs. Emily Young, were followed by a solo "One Alone" by Mr. Jones.

Selections by a barbershop quartet composed of John W. Steinbaugh, Earl C. Eckert, George Zavislan, and Carl Pisel, accompanied by Miss Anita Menni, added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Refreshments were served at the close of the program.

WEE GIFT SHOWER IS ENJOYABLE

The home of Mrs. Joseph W. D'Onofrio, 741 Sartori avenue, was the setting for a pretty baby shower arranged last Tuesday evening for Mrs. Eddie Peacock, the former Peggy McBride.

An inverted pink and blue crepe paper parasol suspended by streamers from the chandelier and a solemn stork figurine suggested the party theme which was further accented by pink and blue diaper favors and baby kimona-shaped napkins.

Following the presentation of useful and attractive gifts for the Peacock heir-to-be, dainty refreshments of ribbon sandwiches, punch, cake and jello were served.

Prize winners were Misses Ladoris Henry and Erma Carstens. Others attending were Mesdames C. W. Johnson, Charles Suttin, Harold Murray and the Misses Barbara Jackson, Luana Johnson and Elvira Lindenberg.

Gifts also were received from Mrs. Ted Haley, and the Misses Zola Bellwood, Elsie Booth, Grace Garland and Donna Hatfield.

Everyone is invited to attend these weekly club affairs, according to the president, James Sellers.

Townsendite Festivities

Torrance Townsend Club will meet in Woman's Clubhouse Friday, March 3, for bunco play beginning at 7:30, and a party featuring old-time and modern dance numbers from 8:15 until 11 o'clock.
