Does Worry Help?

Sooner or later smiles change to frowns as "A" and "B" bombs are discussed, then worry waves rise like heat waves on the desert. Isn't that futile?

Those two bombs are lethal but the most dangerous is the third—worry about improbabilities. Worry is not in the hands of a Foreign Power but lies within our own mind. We control it. We are sane, reasonable people, yet we allow FEAR, fear of possibilities, to undermine our faculties. Isn't it wise to avoid these futile thoughts and concentrate our efforts on constructive things THAT WE CONTROL?

Inasmuch as we cannot think of two things at once, if we immerse ourselves in church, business or youth activities, we won't have time for negative thoughts. Youth doesn't have time to think of bombs, he lives for today and PLANS for tomorrow. When we work with him, some of his enthusiasm rubs off onto ourselves and we forget fear, helping him plan for his tomorrow. Smiles and confidence will return and will once again be King upon our throne. Isn't that better?

Store Offers Unique Service for Public

Unique among services extended customers and non-customers alike, is the ladies lounge in the recently opened Frank's Furniture Store, 1331 El Prado. Located toward the rear of the new store on the mezzanine are restroom facilities and a comfortable lounge provided by the manager of the store, Frank Dominguez.

Intended as a place where burden-laden, foot-weary lady shoppers might stop to rest while doing their downtown shopping or while waiting to meet their husbands, the room is provided with comfortable divans, chairs and complete even to magazines.

"We want the ladies of the town to feel free to use the lounge anytime they are uptown. It is not just for customers, but for anyone who has a few moments to kill while waiting for someone or for anyone who just wants to rest a bit," said Dominguez.

Featuring the latest in modern furniture and conveniences for shopping, Frank's Furniture Store opening last Friday and Saturday was attended by more than 4000 persons, according to Dominguez.

"The crowds far exceeded our wildest estimates," he said. "We registered 2000 persons for the free platform rocker we will the yet incomplete maple shop in which he intends to feature a 2000-foot display of Heywood Wakefield maple furnishings.

Completion of the modern marquee on the exterior of the store is expected within a few days.

Among the other unique features of the new furniture store are two individual television viewing rooms. Here a prospective customer may sit in privacy and watch the performance of the various makes of television sets without the annoyance of outside distractions.

Still another feature is the carpet section where customers may inspect samples of carpeting brought to them on wheeled carts. Comfortable lounges are provided for those interested in rug patterns.
