Invitation of a class of new candidates is set for Monday evening, April 24, with Mrs. James Catena chairman of the hostess committee. On Sunday, April 30, the court will have its anniversary community breakfast at Irons Cottage, Redondo Beach, arrangements being in charge of Mrs. Frank J. Farrell.

All-Youth Program Marks Easter Sunrise Service

Promise and fulfillment of bad weather were not enough Sunday to discourage the more than 75 Torrance residents who gathered in Torrance Park to witness the third annual YWCA-YMCA sponsored Easter Sunrise Service.

The audience gathered in front of the band shell for the all-youth program, but when rain started to fall, program participants moved to one end of the shell, and the audience gathered in the other.

Gordon Stanley was general chairman for the service which featured an address on "The Greater Gift" by David Mario, Torrance High School student. Others participating were Frank and Ross Scharatta, trumpet call; Ellen Koehn and Bill Wernett, call to worship; Vivian Hazzard, scripture; Neil Schwab, prayer; Bill Gray, benediction; and Janet Poh, accompanist. The inspiring musical section of the program was given by the Lutheran Youth Choir, directed by Mrs. Paul Wenske.

Mr. Leo Wagner arranged for a public address system, and the Optimist Club piano was used. Breakfast of sausage and hot cakes was served following the program.

Youth groups cooperating in planning the event were the YWCA-Y-Teens and the YMCA-H-Y and Tri-H-Y. Adult supervision was given by Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, YWCA Program Director, and Mr. Milt Isbell, YMCA General Secretary.
