

Building Replica to Feature YW's Queen Parade Entry

Torrance YWCA's contribution to the Junior Woman's Club Queen Contest kick-off parade on Saturday morning will be a miniature replica of the proposed association building to be constructed through proceeds raised by this, and past queen contests.

Mrs. Jones Hosts CDA Study Club

Mrs. Keith Jones, Study Club chairman for Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, was hostess to other members of the group Monday evening at her home, 2255 Torrance boulevard.

Mrs. T. T. Babbitt, grand regent of the court, reviewed a speech by the Right Rev. Msgr. William J. Flanagan on "The Future of Catholic Charities and Child Care," Msgr. Flanagan, who is secretary for Charities of the Los Angeles Archdiocese, delivered the talk at the National Conference of Catholic Charities in Atlantic City, N. J., in November.

Mrs. Jones served delicious refreshments to her guests at the conclusion of the program. Court St. Catherine will initiate a class of candidates at reception ceremonies to be held at the parish hall Monday, April 24, at 8 p.m. Mrs. James Catena is chairman of the hostess committee.

VISIT ENDS

Mrs. Charles F. Poe, who has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Lichtenberg of 1310 Manuel avenue, and other relatives in Southern California for the past four months, left by plane Saturday for her home in Boulder, Colo.

The replica, designed by Roscoe L. Wood, architect, who is working on permanent building plans, is being constructed by Ivan Malin and members of his architectural class at Torrance High School. It will be featured in a large triangle, symbol of the association, in a convertible drawn trailer.

A second YWCA float also is being planned by the Torrance Y-Teen Clubs, the Tartar-Ys, Teen-Timers, and Y-Tartarets, under the adult supervision of Mrs. E. E. Clayton, and Mrs. Thomas Saine, advisers.

Mimi Cowan Celebrates Birthday

Celebrating the ninth birthday of her daughter Mimi, Mrs. Howard H. Cowan (Mary Peckham) entertained at luncheon Saturday afternoon at Bullock's. Guests included Mrs. Frank L. Prendergast and daughter, Gale; and Mary Lynn Sims, of Palos Verdes Estates; Suzanne Melville, Lynn Hyde, and Susan Severin, all of Torrance.

Following luncheon and the presentation of Mimi's gifts, the girls and their mothers enjoyed a puppet show at the downtown Los Angeles department store.

NEVADA WEEKEND

Mr. and Mrs. Don P. Anderson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bick Tanner of San Pedro, were recent weekend visitors at Las Vegas.

Lutherans Plan Tea for Sunday

First Lutheran Church will hold a Get-Acquainted Tea for all members and friends on Sunday, April 23, at the Parish Hall, beginning at 4:30 o'clock.

The committee in charge of plans for this event include Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stewart, Mrs. Matt Sheldon, Mrs. Ed Schwartz, Mrs. Keith Pischell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clayton.

Indian Chief to Entertain Local Pupils

Torrance Elementary School will present an unusual program for the entertainment of pupils Friday, April 28, in the school auditorium.

Chief Chibiaboos, of the Chippewa tribe, in full regalia, will sing songs of his own and other tribes to his own accompaniment on the Indian drum. His dances, stories and legends in sign language will augment the program.

A donation of 20 cents will be asked from each person attending any of the three shows featuring the Chief.

Preview of Operetta Is Enjoyed

A preview of the operetta, "Sunbonnet Girls," to be presented May 15 in Torrance High School auditorium, furnished the delightful program enjoyed by Torrance High School PTA members Tuesday evening.

The regular business meeting, presided over by Mrs. W. E. Bowen, preceded the presentation, which featured student talent.

A breakfast to be held Tuesday, April 25, from 8 until 11 a.m. at the home of the principal, John W. Steinbaugh, and Mrs. Steinbaugh, will be the next activity of the PTA unit.

Bethel 50 Plans Supper

Job's Daughters members, their escorts, and families, and of course, Council members, will attend a 6:30 potluck supper at Higgins Brick Patio tomorrow evening.

In addition to a covered dish, persons attending are asked to supply table services.

Square dancing will follow supper.

Dessert Card Party Set Today

St. Catherine La Bourne Catholic Church in North Torrance will sponsor a dessert card party at 12:30 today, according to Mrs. Louise Vollmer, chairman. Everyone is invited.

All popular games, including canasta, will be played, and lovely prizes have been provided for the monthly affair.

Location of the church hall is Redondo Beach boulevard, east of Prairie avenue.

Children, unlike other animals, possess none of the homing instinct.

LOVELY APRIL BRIDE . . . Miss Bethel Maxine May, of Santa Ana and Torrance, became the bride of Myron Wray Reed Jr. in a beautiful ceremony performed early this month in Calvary Church, Santa Ana. The former Miss May, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. May of Santa Ana, is a kindergarten teacher with Torrance Unified School District, and Mr. Reed is associated with his father's firm, Reed Bros., Tapley and Gieger, Los Angeles. They will be at home at 2515 1/2 42nd street, Leimert Park.

Betsy Ross Club Sets Card Party

Betsy Ross Club will sponsor a public card party to be held in Masonic Temple at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, April 22. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be procured at the door.

At the close of play, while the committee is checking tallies, delicious refreshments will be served.

LYNNE'S BIRTHDAY IS NOTED

Complimenting her daughter, Lynne, on the occasion of her eighth birthday, Mrs. Don H. Hyde entertained Friday with a Los Angeles theater party and dinner at the Biltmore Hotel.

Lynne's guests were Mimi Cowan, Suzanne Melville, Judy Cole, her sister, Gayle and her cousin, Howard Hood.

Also in the party were Mrs. Hyde's sister, Mrs. Carl Hood, of Torrance, and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Lockhart, of Long Beach.

TALENTED STUDENTS

Joseph Campanizzi, Jr., and Gail Thomas will be presented at 6 o'clock this evening on Uncle Tony O'Dare's television program on channel 4, KNBH.

Joseph, a voice student of Mrs. Nadine Nickol, will sing, and Gail, daughter and student of Bette Thomas, of the Torrance Accordionettes, will play accordion numbers on the television program.

MRS. MYERS VISITS

Mrs. S. E. Smith, of 1614 Amapola avenue, entertained as her house guest last weekend, Mrs. Bessie Myers of Pasadena and formerly of Torrance.

Study Group Will Discuss 'Music and the Individual'

Sigma Rho Chapter of Delphian Society will meet at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the city library to discuss "Music and the Individual," with the objective: to consider what contributions the individual, particularly the non-professional, can make to music and what music can contribute to the individual.

Mrs. D. W. Quigley will act as discussion leader and moderator and Mrs. Don H. Hyde, president, will conduct a brief business meeting preceding the study hour.

First seminar topic, "Musical Progress in America," will be discussed by Mrs. Harry Burkholder, and Mrs. C. E. Ward will consider "Enjoyment of Music through Participation." Mrs. Don H. Hyde will talk on "Some Aids to Better Listening."

Women's Activities NATIONAL YW WEEK TO BE OBSERVED LOCALLY

In an effort to make known in Torrance plans for National YWCA Week April 23 through 29, letters were sent this week to all Torrance Protestant churches asking them to recognize the week with a special service on its theme, "A Better World Begins With You."

An all-YWCA service is scheduled Sunday at the First Christian Church, with YWCA members participating.

Other activities planned during the observance include a waffle breakfast from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. April 23 at the San Pedro YWCA with a charge of 50 cents, and a Nationalities Tea from 1 to 4 p.m. April 26 at the San Pedro Association, with a program slated at 2:30 p.m.

Art Linkletter's radio broadcast at 12:30 p.m. Thursday will feature the YWCA, as will a special television broadcast at 7:15 p.m. Friday over KTLA, Channel 5. Both broadcasts will originate from the Los Angeles YWCA.

Buttons and stickers also have been mailed to all association members, asking them to display them during the week.

Professional Women to Elect Officers May 1

A most interesting dinner meeting of the National Business and Professional Woman's Club was held at Melton's By The Sea, Mrs. Polly Allison, Los Angeles District Program Co-ordinator, featured speaker, discussed "Personality." Mesdames Julia McManus and Ferne Bannister were co-hostesses.

Miss Verna Porter, Mesdames Jean Davis and Arvilla Owens were delegates of the local club to the district convention which was held in the Hermosa Biltmore hotel, when Mrs. Meitzie Palmer was elected president for the ensuing year.

Other members attending from Torrance were Misses Hilda Monroe, Lela Smith, Mesdames Anna Sandstrom, Geraldine Wickham, Julia McManus, Gertrude Irons, Zada Ramsey who acted as President's aide, and Helen Williams, District Emblem Chairman.

Next business meeting of the Torrance club, which will feature election of officers, will be held at 7:30 p.m. May 1 in the patio of Mrs. Sandstrom's home, 2322 El Dorado. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.
