MR. AND MRS. ERNEST CHARLES FLOYD

SOBADA CLUB OPENS YEAR WITH PARTY AT RIVIERA

Hollywood Riviera Beach Club was the setting when the newly organized SOBADA (South Bay Dance) Club met Thursday evening for their first official dance party following informal summer affairs.

Committee members who will serve the club which has a closed membership limited to 30 Torrance couples, include:

Messrs. and Mesdames Melvin H. Howard, Hal Smith, Richard G. Miller, Edward L. Schwartz and Murray L. Rudnick.

The club will meet on the fourth Thursday of each month and the season will be climaxed by a dinner dance scheduled tentatively for early spring.

Music for dancing was furnished by Dick Kerr and his orchestra.

Garden Ceremony Unites Popular Torrance Couple

In a pretty garden setting Miss Marilyn Bylesby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Bylesby of 603 Madrid avenue, exchanged vows to become the bride of Ernest C. Floyd, son of Mrs. Ansley Floyd of 1728 Martina avenue.

The garden of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fernley of 2459 Carson street, was the setting for the Sunday afternoon ceremony performed by Bishop Theodore Wheat, of Torrance Latter Day Saints Church. Approximately 75 relatives and intimate friends of the couple were invited.

The lovely bride, given in marriage by her father, chose as her wedding attire a gown of yellow organdy over matching taffeta with which she wore a small white velvet hat. Her flowers were baby white asters and shredded carnations surrounding a white orchid corsage.

Miss Johnnie Riemer of Torrance was her only attendant. Her gown was of blue sheer designed with a white organdy overskirt and she carried white asters and carnations. William Floyd attended his brother as best man.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. James Willacy of Lomita played the accompaniment for Miss Bonnie Meybed, who sang.

Mrs. Bylesby received in a gown of summer sheer with harmonizing accessories and an orchid corsage, and Mrs. Floyd wore navy with matching accessories and orchids.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Floyd left for a motor honeymoon. They will receive their friends at their new home, Arlington avenue at 220th street.

The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and since has been employed in Columbia Steel Company offices. Mr. Floyd, who also received his diploma from Torrance High, served with the U. S. Navy during World War II.

Welcome Grandson

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Olsen of 2476 - 255th street are the proud grandparents of Alan Charles, the second child born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Olson of North Long Beach.

The baby has a 15-months-old sister, Mary Louise. The children's maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Edison of Long Beach and formerly of Torrance.

DeMolay Mothers Tell Plans

At the meeting of DeMolay Mothers Circle held in the Acacia avenue home of Mrs. Esther Swigart and presided over by Mrs. Paul Findley, plans were made for two projects. The first is a theater party set for Saturday, September 30, when members and friends will attend "The Campbells Are Coming," at Gramercy Park Playhouse. Persons other than members wishing tickets may contact Mrs. Melba Hartley at Torrance 323J.

Another ways and means event is a luncheon and radio broadcast show on October 9, beginning at 11:45 a.m. Tickets for this affair also may be procured from Mrs. Hartley.

Woman's Club Plans Waffle Breakfast 6th

Torrance Woman's Club will sponsor a waffle and hot cake breakfast from 9 until 11 a.m. Friday, October 6 in the clubhouse.

Proceeds from this first benefit of the club year will go toward the Infantile Paralysis Foundation and Cancer Research Society fund, according to Mrs. R. A. Bingham, ways and means chairman.

Everyone is urged to support the project. Tickets at 50 cents may be procured at the door.

APPEARS ON TELEVISION

Kenneth (Red) Shepard of 705 Border avenue appeared recently on television Station KLAC in "Wedding Bells."

Shepard, a Columbia Steel employee, was chosen by his cousin, Miss Nina Miller of Pasadena, to give her in marriage to James Patton, also of Pasadena.

MRS. ROBERT JOHN GRIEVE

Jean Frances Powell Now Mrs. Robert John Grieve

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Powell of 2439 Cabrillo avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Jean Frances, to Mr. Robert John Grieve, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McDonald of Los Angeles.

The ceremony, performed at 1819 Cabrillo avenue, in the apartment which the couple had selected recently as their first home, was attended by the immediate families of the principals. Rev. S. Schmidt of the Interdenominational Church of Los Angeles performed the simple rite.

The lovely bride chose as her wedding attire a suit of golden beige with white accessories.

Mrs. Grieve was a member of Torrance High graduating class of June, '50 and is an operator with the Torrance office of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company. Her husband received

POPULAR MISS... Mary Deniz, of 3823 Spencer street, who is the leading candidate in a popularity contest which will be climaxed during the three day bazaar set for October 6, 7, and 8 sponsored by Nativity Church. The annual bazaar will be held on the church grounds, corner Cota and Manuel avenues. (Harlan photo.)

WSCS SETS TWO-DAY RUMMAGE

WSCS members of First Methodist Church are completing last minute arrangements for their two-day rummage sale set for tomorrow and Saturday.

A wide variety of wearing apparel and household articles will be offered for sale at the church parlors, El Prado at Manuel avenue, it was announced.

NORTHERN TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jones of 2118 Martina street returned last week following a delightful three weeks vacation touring the northern states and Victoria, B. C. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chalton of San Pedro, their friends of 10 years. It was the first trip north for the group, who reported they especially enjoyed Carmel, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, the Columbia River, the Redwoods and four days spent at Victoria, B. C.

Question Box Promised by Perry PTA at Initial Meet

"I wonder if everyone would stand up and join hands with her neighbor. Fine, doesn't it feel grand? Well, we want to keep this feeling and we're hoping that you join hands with us this year in attempting to maintain and defend the American way of life by promoting the welfare of our children in our home and school." With these words Mrs. W. A. Wright, president of the Perry School PTA, began the first association meeting of the semester held on Tuesday, September 19, in the Perry School auditorium.

Lester Foster, principal, presented all members of the faculty and Mrs. Wright introduced her officers and chairman.

Enthusiasm reigned high when the president announced that a "Question Box" would be presented at every meeting, commencing with the October meeting, and that everyone could address queries to anyone of the board members, the principal, and members of the faculty, and they would be answered during the meeting.

Refreshments were served at the adjournment of the meeting.

Betsy Ross Bazaar Set For Tonite
