Rev. Schauer Recovering From Operation

Hoping to return to his pulpit Sunday is Rev. U. S. Schauer, pastor of the Central United Brethren church here, who underwent surgery last Friday morning at the San Antonio Community hospital in Upland.

Rev. Schauer said this week that he was "getting along nicely" when he announced that he would speak on "Playing Fair with God" at the 11 a.m. services next Sunday.

"This is a message on Stewardship in its broadest and best sense," Rev. Schauer said.

Father of Walterian Buried in Wilmington

Private services for Joseph Castagnola, 79, father of Jun-uaita Goerke, of 24807 Hawthorne boulevard, were held in the Stone and Myers Chapel yesterday, with the Rev. Robert Coburn of the Lomita Community Church officiating.

A native of Italy and a former member of the Italian Navy, Castagnola was living in San Pedro at the time of his death.

Also surviving is one son, Andrew Castagnola, of San Pedro; and three other daughters. Interment was in Wilmington Cemetery.

MAKES A SALE . . . Campfire girls Barbara Calvey and Martha Bobb make their little "pitch," then sell Mrs. W. G. Blount a box of Campfire Girl candy which the groups have been selling all week. The campaign closes next week. Both girls are from the Tawasi group in North Torrance. (Herald photo).

Poker Halls

dens, stymied by Gardena ordinances which limit the number of poker houses in the city, tried on several occasions to expand into nearby Torrance. Torrance was a logical spot of expansion. Gardena is surrounded by the City and County of Los Angeles, both of which agencies "frown" on gambling.

paigned conducted by the Torrance Herald made this city too hot to handle for the poker game operators.

Instead, Torrance turned and invited industry to come here as a means of raising dollars to operate the city. Gardena, facing with the possibility of a very large portion of its revenue from the gambling halls being suddenly chopped off the state or grand jury action, may find its city pockets as bare as those of the poker hall customers after a short session at the gaming tables.

MODERN TRENDS . . . Don Green, El Camino College art instructor, who will discuss "Trends in Modern Art" at Green's lecture will be given April 24 at 7:30 p.m.

TAKE HEED
Drivers were reminded today that their chances of being cited by the California Highway Patrol for a motor vehicle violation are approximately one to seven.

That average is based upon 1949 statistics which showed nearly 700,000 citations, including both arrests and warnings for about 5,000,000 registered motor vehicles.

Dealer Showing Movies of Soap Box Derby Race

Young Torrance craftsmen who might have ambitions of winning the Soapbox Derby someday, have been getting a big come-on this week from Paul Loranger, of Paul's Chevrolet.

Chevrolet dealers and local daily newspapers all over America sponsor the derby each year, and Loranger is whipping up interest fast in Torrance by showing the kids a 30-minute movie of last year's derby finals at Akron, Ohio.

Nearly 50 young racers signified their interest last Monday at Perry School in North Torrance, and the response has been about the same everywhere, Loranger says.

Businessmen interested in such a race locally are being urged by the dealer to sponsor entrants in a preliminary event here before the Los Angeles event in Griffith Park this summer.

Details of the derby can be obtained from Paul's Chevrolet.

He came to Torrance in 1945, founding the company which recently moved into a new suite of offices at 1425 1/2 Marcelina avenue.

Joining the local service club six years ago, the new president has continuously taken an active participation in community and civic affairs. He has earned a "campaign" ribbon with one star for serving as chairman of two Red Cross campaigns. He has also served as chairman of the Community Chest drive. He is presently serving as a member of the Board of Trustees of the First Methodist Church of Torrance.

A native of Shenandoah, Iowa, he studied journalism at the University of Missouri, graduating in 1928. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. He took post graduate work at the University of Southern California in banking and finance.

He entered the insurance field in 1929 with the Pacific Automobile Insurance Company. He established a brokerage business in Santa Monica in 1935 and another in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., in 1940. He returned here a short time after to become attached to the U. S. Navy.

Allen's Jewelers Show Display of Silver, China

A display of sterling silver and fine china which has attracted city-wide interest may still be seen during this weekend at Allen Jewelers, 1321 Sartori avenue.

Thirty-three world famous sterling patterns are on display in complete place settings from old traditional to the smart new modern creations.

"This showing," said Lou Ar-better, owner of Allen's "is being made by us during the nation-wide Silver Parade of 1951. During this period members of Allen's Silver Club are buying their starter sets for only a few cents per week. We are sorry to say that this offer ends on April 22nd."
