

Pueblo CYO Center Reopened; Building Being Redecorated

The Catholic Youth Organization Pueblo Center has been reopened at 2314 263rd street here under the supervision of Tony Tinajero. It was announced by Rev. John J. Birch, CYO director. Tinajero formerly assisted Father Birch in the CYO of El Paso, Texas, where he was highly commended for his work.

Preliminary meetings have been held with people of the community. Rev. Anthony Camara, of adjoining St. Joseph Chapel, and Torrance city officials with regard to getting a full schedule under way.

Tinajero reports that he has found clergy, officials, and citizens of the area most cooperative and enthusiastic.

Members of the A. C. J. M. Mexican Catholic Youth Association, of Los Angeles, attended Mass and Communion in a body at St. Joseph Chapel on Sunday in an effort to help stimulate interest in the center.

Although no regular program is being offered, the center is open daily from 4 to 9 p.m. during the period of redecoration and while equipment is being acquired. The phone number is Torrance 2272.

Something new has been added—a new Seaside-Riviera column—new columnists and many new residents in both Seaside and Riviera. May we extend a very warm welcome to all of you.

Congratulations are in order, the Paul L. Bennetts of 716 Calle de Arboles welcomed Lawrence Phillip April 8. He weighed in at eight pounds two ounces and proud father informs us his eyes focus already! Then there is the new little five pound ten ounce genius in the John A. Smith family, 212 Paseo de Granada, introducing Kelly Michael who arrived April 6.

Those of us who attended the PTA meeting last Thursday evening, April 12, feel it was time well spent. Dr. Beatrice Lantz, psychologist for the L. A. County Schools, chose as her topic, "Why Do They Behave That Way?" Her charming informality encouraged questions and discussion. Incidentally, did you know that Mrs. Durwood Law, your PTA health chairman, conducts a child discussion group weekly at the school? The purpose of these discussions is to bridge the gap between the old and newer methods of child guidance. This group is limited to 10 so if your child attends Seaside and you are interested in starting with the new group in about two weeks I suggest you call Mrs. Law, Frontier 53016.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Philpott, 948 Calle Miramar, just returned from Mexico. They flew to Mexico City where they spent a week then on to Acapulco for four more wonderful days.

Mr. Eugene P. Miller, 5444 Sharynne Lane, flew to Washington, D.C., last week. He was representing the electrical group of the North American Bureau of Aeronautics in conferences with the Navy.

Lolo and Bo Suter, formerly of Doris Way, now living in Chico, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Hawkins who live in Redondo Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger and Mr. and Mrs. David Hurford entertained the Suters Thursday evening with a dinner at the Cafe Caliente on Olivera street.

We're so sorry to hear that Mrs. Jack Pomeroy is ill again. It's been a long siege for Dotty, but we're pulling for her.

How many Las Vecinas members were there to enjoy the March 29 program? Mrs. Fanny MacEnroe, dramatic book reviewer, entertained us with her most distinctive and delightful review of current books. April 26 will bring another outstanding program. Have you put a circle around April 28, the date of the Las Vecinas April Showers semi-formal dance, to be held at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club?

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wanke of Linda Drive recently made a flying trip to San Francisco. It was a business trip, but, entertaining customers can be lots of fun!

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howey of Calle de Andalucia have had their daughter, Mrs. Cecil D. Crabb Jr., home with them for about six weeks. Nancy leaves Thursday to join her husband, Lt. Crabb at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, where he is taking specialized Air Force training. Prior to Nancy's visit Sergeant James Howey returned from Korea to spend a month's leave with his parents. We're happy to hear he'll be nearer home now as he is stationed at Camp Pendleton.

Although Patty Merola has already been showered with congratulations, may we add ours and convey the pride our community feels in the new Miss Torrance. The proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merola, Doris Way, entertained 40 guests whose efforts had contributed so largely to Patty's victory at a barbecue Sunday night. Turn about was fair play at El Retiro Park that night when the men planned the menu, baked the pies, barbecued the steaks, and did KP.

Pink predominated at a stork shower given by Mrs. W. S. Shoekency, Doris Way, in honor of Mrs. Betty Lou Sparks Wednesday night as guests gathered to root for a female addition to the predominantly male household of Sparks. An evening of canasta and bridge entertained the following guests: Mrs. Charlton Bradford, Redondo Beach; Mrs. Ada Hyder, Columbus, Ohio; Mrs. Joseph Sedey, Redondo Beach; Mrs. Bea Merola, Mrs. Mary Jane Miller, Mrs. Diana Lawrence, Mrs. Mary Lou Hopkin, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Mrs. Margaret Roettger, Mrs. Dorothy Hurford, Mrs. Gwen Scioneaux, Mrs. Helen Carlton, Mrs. Evelyn Hyder, Mrs. Peg Hall, and Mrs. Mina Conniry.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Markle Sparks Tuesday night were Mr. and Mrs. Stover Smith, Oklahoma City.

Did you know we have an enthusiastic little theatre group in our community? The Hampton Players, comprised of South Bay and Torrance residents, are in rehearsal now for their June production of "The Silver Cord." They have much to offer in their work shops in the way of stage production. Drue Hoffman will present some monologues from the work shop during the next meeting which will be Friday, April 20, at the Hollywood Riviera Club.

In closing may we quote the definition of the title of our column—"Potpourri," a medley or mixture. Why not help make this a real interesting mixture and call Frontier 5410 with your news.
