

CHAIRMAN VOICES PLEA FOR CANCER FUND AID

The drive for funds to continue the work of the American Cancer Society has been extended for an additional week, according to Mrs. Paul D. Loranger, chairman for the Torrance area.

No door-to-door solicitation is being made, Mrs. Loranger pointed out, but officials of the drive have hoped that the $1000 quota for the city can be raised through voluntary contributions placed in the more than 50 American Cancer Society cans placed throughout the shopping area.

The decision to use only the collection cans in the drive was reached when members of the society expressed the feeling that the public had been "hit" enough for donations this year, Mrs. Loranger said.

Checks made out to the American Cancer Society should be mailed to Mrs. Loranger at 1448 Post avenue, Torrance. Any such checks or other donations made will be credited to the Torrance quota, she said. Included in the area are Longita, Torrance, and Walteria.

RICHARD MAGEE
... Aboard Ajax

Former Doak Employee Aboard Ajax in Japan

Serving aboard the USS Ajax in Japan is Richard L. Magee, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Magee, 1820 Torrance boulevard.

The Navy man entered the naval service September 5, last year, and received his recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center at San Diego. Before joining the Navy he worked at Doak Aircraft Company.

Talks to Students

Paul Diamond of the Gay Shop in Torrance, former president of the Retail Merchants Division of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, who has been in the retail merchandising field for 30 years, recently spoke to the El Camino College business management class on "Problems of the Small Business Owner." Diamond is a member of the business advisory committee of El Camino College.

Credit Company, Amstan Sign New Retailer Pact

American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corporation recently announced that it had completed arrangements for Allied Building Credits, Inc., a Transamerica Corporation subsidiary, to take over all accounts and activities of Heating and Plumbing Finance Corporation.

American-Standard believes that the arrangement with Allied Building Credits, Inc., will be of definite value to retailers inasmuch as ABC is a nationwide organization specializing in financing light construction and operates through thirty-four field offices located in strategic points over the country.

Officers of American-Standard pointed out that actual lending terms offered by Allied Building Credits, Inc. are identical with those formerly offered by the American-Standard subsidiary, and that these terms, governed by federal credit regulations, are far more liberal than those allowed for other consumer hard goods, presenting a definite selling advantage to the plumbing and heating retailers.

This has been a busy week for a lot of people, and one rich in new and, we hope, exciting experiences. For one, Emil and Hulda Huskamp of 113 Pasco de Granada have been in Mexico on a fishing trip. They report that the fish are really biting in Ensenada. Other wanderers were Bill and Elsa Beckman, who attended a convention in San Francisco. Careful, those conventions are dynamic!

Ernie and Bob Armour of 144 Calle de Andalucia have sublet their house and moved to their new chicken ranch in Lancaster. Their neighbors are sorry to see them go, but wish them luck in their new venture.

The Bob Brocketts, formerly of Pasadena, are now renting Dick and Jean Cottrell's house at 233 Via Alameda. Dick was ordered back to active Naval service and is now serving as assistant industrial manager at the Jacksonville, Florida, Naval Base.

Now that spring is here and summer is hard on its heels, it seems fitting to mention the swimming facilities at the Hollywood Riviera Club pool. Small tells us that the rates for this season will be $25 plus $5 federal tax. Her plans call for a heated pool, which will greatly extend the season which is set to open by May 15 or before. In any case, for $30 you and your family can swim any time from the middle of May until the end of September. Call Pat at FRontier 5-2441 for more information.

Being able to take care of our own community if disaster strikes is very important; which brings us to Civil Defense. Volunteers are needed desperately as block wardens and assistants. Anyone interested, and every one should be, contact Dick Blakeley at Frontier 5-2369 in Hollywood Riviera or Alex Hunt at Frontier 5-4381 in Seaside Ranchos.

There is a new and important service now open to residents of the South Bay area. This is the Psychological Service Center at 902 Highland avenue in Manhattan Beach. A non-profit organization, the service offers individual and group psychotherapy on such problems as personality difficulties, marriage problems, and parent-child relationships. The large staff is headed by Dr. David D. Eitzen, Ph.D., and includes the services of such long established specialists as Drs. Schaeffer and Uphold of Palms Verdes, and Dr. Ralph Eckert, Ph.D., who has lectured at PTA and other meetings in this area.

W. A. "Gary" Garrabrant, the new president of the Hollywood Riviera Homeowners Association, is a busy man these days. He was elected president of the Redondo Rotary Club almost simultaneously, and served also as head of the Red Cross drive in the Riviera area. How some people find time for so many activities is beyond us; we only wish we could DO more and procrastinate less!

The home of Jean and Carlton Paul was the setting for an interesting and informative evening for members of the Study Group Friday night. A group of those gathered to hear the modern architect, R. M. Schindler, A.I.A., were Mrs. Lee Kendall, Barbara and Tom Mabin with their guests Mr. and Mrs. Castle, and Manuel Matute. Fred and Jean Aber presented the program which featured Schindler's lecture and slides of some of the unique homes he has designed and built.

The Seaside School has been serving hot dogs and milk to the school children every Monday for lunch. For 25 cents your child can have a good, appetizing lunch, and what a boon for mothers with the blue Monday doldrums!

Helen Schmitz, Betty Matson, Ruth Hanover, and Proxy Helen Ferrel represented Las Vecinas at the California Federation Convention held at the Wilton Hotel in Long Beach. The meetings were enlightening as well as fun, and will be reported at the Las Vecinas general meeting, April 26.

Hope to see all of the Las Vecinas members at the April Showers Dance Saturday, April 28!
