MR. AND MRS. NORMAN T. HANSEN

Miss Rita McOsker Now Mrs. Norman T. Hansen

First Baptist Church was the setting for the beautifully impressive ceremony Monday morning which united in marriage Miss Rita McOsker and Mr. Norman T. Hansen, both of Sacramento.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. McOsker of 2208-D Cabrillo avenue and the bridegroom's parents are the John Scollards of San Jose. Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor, officiated in the presence of 125 relatives and intimate friends of the principals.

Escorted up the aisle by her father who gave her away, the lovely bride was radiant in traditional white satin fashioned with long sleeves and button-trimmed bodice, the full skirt falling into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion she carried white orchids on her matching prayerbook.

Attending the bride were Miss Carol Hansen of San Jose, sister of the bridegroom, who wore white dotted swiss complemented by a colonial touquet, and Miss Katie McOsker of San Pedro, cousin of the bride, whose gown was of pink organdie with which she carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Richard Griffin of San Diego, cousin of the bridegroom, was his best man and Harry Hillier served as senior usher.

Proceeding the ceremony Leslie Long played incidental organ music and Miss Margaret Condon played the accompaniment.

OES Plans 1950 Night

Torrance Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will observe 1950 night tonight at 8 o'clock.

Chapter will be called to order by Junior Past Patron Fredrick Cook and opened by Junior Past Matron, Gladys Motherwell with their 1950 corps of officers serving in the various stations. Chairman of the evening is Persia Fess.

A cordial invitation is extended to all members to attend the meeting.

Lutherans Set Birthday Fete Tonight

Women's Missionary Society of First Lutheran Church will hold their annual birthday party at 7:30 this evening.

The birthday offering will be used for a special mission project. The children of the Junior Mission Band and of the Junior Choir will give the program. Mrs. Wesley Mogow and Mrs. Charles Mearing are in charge of the Juniors and Mrs. Paul Wenske of the Junior Choir.

Hostesses for the evening will be Meses. Royal Friedly, Anna Bay, E. J. Hosking, William Scholl, Nieman and Julius Meier.

Gold Star Mothers Meet 12th

Torrance-Lomita Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers, whose president is Jeannette E. King, will meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday, September 12, in the study of First Christian Church, Torrance.

All members and mothers of service persons are urged to attend. There is urgent need for hospital service which can be rendered by this group and more women are needed for completing units for service, the president states.

Seaside PTA Discusses Projects

At a meeting of Seaside PTA ways and means committee headed by Mrs. Paul Roettger, plans were made to repeat last year's successful program of weekly noon lunches for students.

Also on the agenda were plans for a series of kidnap breakfasts designed to better acquaint PTA members and friends.

PTA Board Meets at 8 Tonight

Walteria PTA executive board will meet at 8:00 o'clock tonight in the school auditorium, with the president, Mrs. Glenn Hardcastle, presiding.

Plans will be completed for PTA participation in enrolling new children on the opening day of school, September 17 and also for the traditional luncheon to be served the school staff on that day.

FILLMORE GUESTS

Recent guests of the Grover C. VanDeventers were Mr. and Mrs. James Wheat and three daughters of Fillmore.

'Fashion Parade' and Luncheon Set Friday

Tomorrow is the big day for members and friends of Torrance Bethel 50, Job's Daughters with everything in readiness for their fashion parade and luncheon in Masonic Temple.

Beautiful back-to-school fashions and date dresses will be modeled by Deanna Ball, Carolyn Kusch, Lenore Sexton, Glenda Wells, Ann Stephens, Ann Marie Bishop, Janet Robison, Dora Ditko, Mary Ann Lenton and Charlene Grace.

Mothers of Job's Daughters who will serve as models include Mrs. Merlin Cook, Mrs. Kenneth B. Sexton and Mrs. William Speck.

A little sister model is Sandy Crabtree.

Modeling tips and advice were given to the girls by Martha Dunn, a Bethel member, and when they arrived at Benson's and Levy's to receive the garments they will model, they were most enthusiastic over the selections.

Luncheon will be served from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. and the fashion parade will begin promptly at 1:30. Tickets may be procured from members or at the temple on Friday. Assisting with hostess duties will be Sally Hickman and Jane Fischer.

FORMER RESIDENT VISITS

Mrs. Sig Shoberg of Arcadia was a guest last week at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tetley of 223rd street.

NEW MEXICO VISIT

Mrs. Nadine Nickol, local voice teacher, is vacationing in New Mexico at the home of her mother. Accompanying her are her sons, James, Jerry, and Nicky.

Women's Club Slates Book Review Series

MORE THAN 140 ATTEND PRE-CLUB SEASON BRUNCH

Torrance Woman's Club announces the arrangement of Fanny MacEnroe for a series of three book reviews and lectures during 1951-52.

Scheduled for Monday evenings at 8 o'clock, the dates of the season have been calendar as follows:

November 5, February 11 and April 7.

Distinctive in the platform world for her popular and delightfully different book reviews, Fanny MacEnroe is widely known from coast to coast. Humor and uplift are shared unstintingly by this versatile artist and gratefully absorbed by her eager audiences. Each program of four or five current books is beautifully balanced, containing humor and inspiration, historical and modern, fact and fiction. The scenes and dramatics are held together by gay threads of charm and laughter, and under her magnanimous books seem more interesting than ever before.

Arranged as a pre-club ways and means project last Tuesday's colorful informal party given at the Hollywood Riviera home of Mrs. W. I. Laughon, was a most successful affair socially and financially, according to the chairman, Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass.

Gaily-colored parasols shaded tables set in the patio and on the terrace, where approximately 140 club members and their friends were served a delicious brunch.

Arrangements of gladioli and dahlias indoors created a pretty color note which was followed for serving table appointments.

Assisting Mrs. Laughon were her mother, Mrs. L. Ahrens and Meses. C. E. Ward, Merle Sahli, Robert Golden, E. A. Miles, Chris Jones, M. N. Felker, Raymond Rogers and G. J. Derouin. Prizes were presented to winners at canasta and bridge.

LEAVE FOR CONVENTION

Representing the auxiliary of Bethel 50, Crossland Post 170 at the state convention which opens this week in San Diego are: Mary F. Toombs, president; Persia K. Fess, first vice president and Annie Olson, junior past president.

Alternates also leaving for the convention Saturday are: Merle Youngken and Mabel Williams.

'Bees, Flowers' New Vehicle For Players

Due to the overwhelming success and public praise given "The Silver Chord," the Hampton Players, whose president is Mrs. Russell Lund, announce the immediate scheduling of their next show.

"The Bees and the Flowers," hilarious two-act comedy by Frederick Kohner and Albert Mannheim, has been chosen as the second vehicle for this successful little theatre group, and plans are under way for its production on December 1.

Tryouts were held at the meeting last Monday night in Room 101, Torrance High School. Members were on hand and were asked to invite other interested persons in the South Bay area to join the amateur group.

At this meeting concentrated workshop activities were outlined for the fall season, courses to begin this month.
