Chairmen Attend PTA Round Table

Mrs. V. T. Vanderpool, 1015 Anapola street, Torrance Council budget and finance chairman, recently held a council round table at her home, with all local units represented.

Objective of the budget and finance committee was discussed; also under discussion were the parliamentary procedures which were completely reviewed by the group. Mrs. Vanderpool emphasized number two of the policies and principles of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, which is, "The Congress parent-teacher associations do not endorse commercial enterprises or advertise them at parent-teacher meetings. Gifts involving commercial obligations are not accepted by the association nor by its officers and chairmen. Lists of parent-teacher associations or of their officers or members are not available in any form to commercial interests. Name of the association or the names of its officers in their official capacities may not be used in any connection with a commercial concern."

Seaside, Waveria, Torrance High School, North Torrance Elementary, Torrance Elementary, Perry and Fern Avenue PTAs were represented at this round table by their budget and finance and ways and means chairmen.

Personnel Changes Announced By Perry School PTA Board

Elected vice-president of Perry School PTA at last Wednesday's board meeting, Mrs. George Simonson takes over the office vacated by the resignation of Mrs. I. F. Winther. The board also accepted the resignation of Mrs. Bill Wright, program chairman, whose place also will be filled by Mrs. Simonson. Mrs. Glenn Runstead was ratified as radio and television chairman and Mrs. John Bush, assistant hospitality chairman.

The board met at the school, where they made an inspection of the newly painted kindergarten room and the renovated section of the administration building where rooms have been arranged for the nurse, the teachers' workshop, and offices for the principal and secretary.

The budget-finance committee presented the budget set up on a percentage basis and it was recommended that it be presented to the association for approval.

Mrs. J. H. Russell made a report for the membership committee. "The Flower of our Nation is in our Youth," will be used for the theme in the drive scheduled for the early part of the year. Prizes will be offered to the rooms having the highest percentage of enrollees.

First meeting of the year will be at 7:30 tonight, in the school auditorium. Featured speaker will be Jack O. Baldwin, managing editor of Torrance Herald, who will discuss the proposed progress reporting forms and system.

The principal and teachers will be introduced and parents' questions will be answered. The pictures purchased by the group will be presented to the rooms having the largest attendance.

Member Goal Set by PTA

At a meeting of the membership committee of North Torrance Elementary PTA held September 11 at the home of Mrs. M. J. Walker, newly-appointed chairman, it was decided the membership enrollment for 1951-52 would begin October 10 and end October 26 for this association.

A prize will be awarded the room procuring the most memberships during this period. Extensive plans are being made to get 100% membership this year. Members present included Mesdames J. B. Baldwin, Dan Mangiagli, Ralph McBoe, and M. J. Walker.
