See You IN CHURCH Sunday

The poet has well said, "It takes a 'heap' of living in a house to make it a home." Architects design houses. Builders put them together. But only the spirit of the Lord of all the earth builds homes. Is your house a Home? Have you learned the difference? You may find how to make your house a home through the teachings embodied in His church. "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it," Psalms 127:1.

From the beginning days of Adam and Eve, Home has been man's pride... man's delight. Home is our refuge, our castle, our playground and our world. Home is the practice ground for Democracy. It is a "place to practice religion in a character clinic." Are the occupants of your home Christian? Does your household attend Church? Home implies mutual affection, genuine forbearance; a place where every child knows he belongs. Is yours a House or a Home?

With the Hope that More People Will Come to Church this Series is Sponsored by The Torrance Ministerial Association and Made Possible by the Following Civic Leaders . . .

Couple Repeat Vows in Las Vegas Nuptial Rite

At home at 2213 Carson street are Karl Kenneth Jones and his bride, the former Miss Evelyn Jean Cole. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cole of Ellwood City, Pa., and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ward of Beech avenue, with whom she made her home upon arrival from the east. Mr. Jones' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ross Jones of Owensville, Ind.

The couple exchanged nuptial vows in Las Vegas, Nev., Sunday evening with the Rev. Albert Melton, pastor of First Methodist Church, officiating. The bride chose as her wedding attire a dark brown gabardine suit with matching accessories and a yellow orchid corsage.

Both were educated in eastern schools and are employed at National Supply Company, she in the teletype office and her husband in the warehouse. Preceding the wedding Mrs. Jones complimented her niece a prettily appointed evening gown in her Beech avenue home. Beautiful miscellaneous gifts were presented following an evening of shower games and dainty party refreshments were served at a table centered with all-white blossoms.

Anticipation Shower Fetes Mrs. Douglas

Mrs. W. A. Douglas, auditor for 186th Street P.T.A., was honored at a surprise baby shower given by the P.T.A. members in the teachers' room, following the regular potluck luncheon on Wednesday, November 14.

The honored guest's arrival was cleverly arranged by the school principal, Mrs. Mary J. Hawks. A bassinot decorated in baby blue and pink crepe paper held the many gifts and greetings for the new baby. Hostesses were Mesdames A. B. Pond, James A. Gauley and Samuel Dow.

Egyptologist Addresses Torrance Woman's Club

An interesting and unusual program was enjoyed by Torrance Women's Club members and their guests last Wednesday when Thea Quihuis, anthropologist, world traveler and writer, appeared as guest speaker. A native of Cairo, Egypt, Mrs. Quihuis told her fascinating story in an informal manner, dressed in a colorful and beautiful Egyptian costume.

She told of her rescue by Pygmies in South Africa following a plane crash, and their care of her and her infant daughter created a picture different from that generally brought to mind when these natives are discussed.

Her talk was illustrated with a showing of interesting articles ranging from an authentic mummy and shrunken human skulls, to exquisite bead work and art objects collected during her colorful and dramatic career. Of interest was a glass flask which had been presented by Halle Selassie when she was his house guest for several weeks. Preceding the program, Mrs. B. W. Roberts, president, conducted a brief business meeting which was featured by a report of the highly successful Variety Show, and club sponsorship of the Adult Concert Orchestra.

A silver tea concluded the enjoyable afternoon. In anticipation of Thanksgiving, the tea table was lovely with a horn of plenty centerpiece, autumn leaves, and chrysanthemums. Pouring were Mesdames W. A. Felker and A. E. Palmer.
