

Former Narbonne Student In Who's Who in College

Notified this week that her name was being included in the 1951-52 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges was Miss Norma Killingsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Killingsworth, of 3602 Sepulveda boulevard.

A graduate of Narbonne High School in 1948, Miss Killingsworth is now a senior at LaVerne College where she is an education major.

Selection of the Torrance student was made on the basis of her contributions in cooperation, leadership, academic and extra-curricular activities at LaVerne, according to the editors of Who's Who of students.

The LaVerne College senior is president of Alpha Phi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity; president of the Women's Recreation Association and a past president of the Leopardette Pet Club, a campus organization.

She was also vice president of the junior class and is now vice president of the senior class at the college. While a freshman she was Snow Queen.

During her senior year at Narbonne she was president of the Girls' League.

After finishing college next spring, Miss Killingsworth plans to teach in a junior high school. She has expressed her preference for teaching literature and social studies.

Harbor Area Barbers Vote To Close Mon.

You can still get your hair cut for $1.25 in Torrance and other Harbor Area communities, but you can't get it out on Monday anymore, according to G. J. Berger, secretary of the Barbers Union, Local No. 881.

At a meeting held Monday evening, barbers of Torrance, Waverly, Lomita, Harbor City, Wilmington and San Pedro voted to adopt the five-day week. All union barber shops will be closed on Monday beginning with next Monday, Berger said. The move will affect nearly all of the area's barber shops.

"Haircuts in this area will remain at $1.25 for the present, at least," the union secretary said.

"No upping of the price can be made until the membership of Barbers Local 881 votes on such a proposal, and no meeting for this purpose has been called by the local," Berger said.

A check of the local situation followed word that the price of haircuts has been increased in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Explorer Post Seeking Members

A concerted drive to double the membership of Explorer Post 315X, a newly formed group associated with Boy Scout Troop 315, has been announced by Mr. John Andrade, unit advisor, and Don Meyers, crew leader.

Membership in the social, service and adventure organization is open to boys 14 years old and over. Regular meetings are held every Thursday night at 7, at 1414 West 216th street.

Bob Pope, Tom Marshall and Gary Ebersole are members of the membership committee.

New members enrolled during the coming week will join the Explorers on their desert trip scheduled for December 9.

Kettler Kapers

Could there be any left-over turkey this week? It's nice to hear of the wonderful dinners.

Each and every one had on that day. Along that trend, here's some left-over news gleaned here and there: Mr. and Mrs. William H. Trampus of Middlebrook road entertained with a lovely dinner for their immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lockett and daughter of 2534th street, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sables and family of Wilmington enjoyed their day. Mr. Sables and Mrs. Lockett are son and daughter of the Trampuses.

The Norman Walters of Marinette-street journeyed to Vista to have dinner with their relatives... The David Pootes of Reynosa drive enjoyed their day with relatives also in Redlands... Mr. and Mrs. Walt Schefer of Gramercy avenue entertained a large group for Thanksgiving dinner. Guests were Mr. Maurice Bourget, Mrs. Claire Bourget, Miss Jackie Furst, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bourget, Ted and Ruth Eyrieh and son Jeff. By the way they say the steak is hovering over the Eyriehs' home in Lakewood—they are former Kettlerites.

Mary and Fred Guzman of Marinette street held a family reunion last Thursday. Approximately twenty relatives enjoyed seeing each other once again... The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hunter in Huntington Park was the scene of another wonderful dinner with Bill and Earlene

Walker and daughter Linda of Reynosa drive feasting on delectable foods.

Previous to all these goings-on was a birthday party that little Sharon Lockett celebrated. She's now four and her "Mommie," Mrs. Jane Lockett, bid 12 youngsters over for games and traditional cake and ice cream. Little Dennis Moore won a prize, they said. Grandparents present were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Lockett from San Pedro, and Mrs. Wm. Trampus of Kettler Knolls.

A two-day trip to San Diego via train, was greatly enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doughtan and their children Donna Marie and Tommy of Gramercy avenue, with the San Diego Zoo a special attraction for the children. Yes, the Doughtans made the trip especially for their kiddies—isn't that grand!

How many of us know that this is Civil Defense Week in Torrance? When you're in town drop into the store next to the Torrance National Bank and see the display, slides, and other interesting features covering civil defense, that is there for you, free of charge. We should be aware that in case of disaster Schefer, of Gramercy avenue, will see that we receive help in every way possible. Climaxing this week will be a Blood Bank

Walteria News Notes

Eight MYF members enjoyed a good time last Friday night when they attended the President's Ball held at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium. This is an annual event attended by young people from all the Los Angeles area, and is sponsored by the MYF organization for the high school youth.

A semi-formal evening of folk games was climaxed by an inspirational service. The ball is in honor of the MYF presidents in all the churches. Those who attended were Robert Scranton, president of Walteria MYF; Kendall Baker, Janet Van Dyke, Dara Lee Chaffin, Margaret Tinkle, Pat Smart, Colleen Gordon, Robert LeMaster and Harvey Lostin.

Mrs. Evelyn Kettering of Long Beach was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kettering of Neece avenue on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spaulding, Madison street, returned home Saturday, November 10, after a very pleasant trip to Las Vegas, Boulder City, in Nevada, and Escondido, Mexico.

Special service will be held at the Baptist Church here in Walteria next Sunday. Program for the evening will include the showing of slides on missionary work in the Amazon valley in Brazil. Talk will be titled "You, Too, Can Be a Saint." Sunday morning sermon will be "Seventy Years."

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Pickett, Newton street, were Thanksgiving dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Wilda Pickett of Hawthorne.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Miller of Long Beach were guests of the J. B. Mosleys, Ward street, Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Walker of Healdsburg left for home Saturday night after spending a very pleasant week's visit with Mrs. Walker's mother, Mrs. Lorine Hartline of Los Cedona avenue. The Walkers are former residents of Walteria.

The Pennys of Hawthorne boulevard spent Sunday visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitchell. While there they visited downtown L. A., viewing the beautifully decorated windows of the Los Angeles downtown stores.

Returning to California are Mr. and Mrs. Ryles Morgan and family, who have been in South Dakota for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morgan, of 24216

Adolph, received a phone call from Ryles informing them of their return plans. Welcome back!

Mrs. Mary Martin of Park street left last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. G. C. Bays, of Salina, Kan. She hopes to continue her visit on to see relatives in Clinton, Tenn. She will be gone through the holidays. Hope she has a nice trip.

Guests from Paradise, Calif., are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Beck, Rainier avenue. Guests are Mr. Beck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Beck.

Sixteen young people of the Walteria choir participated in the rally held at the Hollywood Bowl a week ago Sunday. They joined 200 robed choirs in singing of the anthem "Beautiful Savior." Glad that Walteria was so represented.

Our deepest and most sincere sympathy is extended to the family of John R. Cooper, Winlock drive, upon the loss of their husband and father in the tragic train accident a week ago Monday.

Another name on the sick list this week is that of Mr. Bert Beers, Newton street. Bert has been sick several days, but we hope he will be well very soon and be up and around again.

at the Torrance Civic Auditorium, Monday, December 3, from 2 to 7 p.m. Why not give a GI Christmas present by donating a pint of blood to save his life? For appointments phone Torrance 3447, or phone me, Mrs. Jones, at Lomita 1256-J.

What's on the agenda? The Torrance Adult Orchestra will present its first "pops" concert on November 30 (Friday) at the high school auditorium. And their music is good!

Then along the Xmas line (oh, it won't be long) is the Methodist Christmas Bazaar on December 6. Don't forget to telephone Mrs. Betty Morehead at Lomita 2596-M for tickets for the ham dinner at 5:30 p.m.—$1.25 for adults and 65 cents for kiddies. Doors open at 10 a.m.

with beautifully decorated booths handling all kinds of handwork, too numerous to mention. You'll have to see them, that's all! Mrs. Helphand will be serving donuts, sandwiches and coffee from a lunch counter throughout the day, too.

It's nice to hear that Mrs. R. F. Eddy, of 22905 Walnut street, is recuperating nicely now at her home. Heard that she was quite ill and gave the neighbors a "scare." Well-wishes are still forwarded to her.

Jack Baldwin was the guest of honor last Friday night at Club Alondra, when 25 members of the Herald staff gave him a farewell party. They had a "super" time! Best wishes, Jack, on your new job with the Long Beach Independent.
