

Kettler Kapers

By JINNY JONES
Lomita 1256-J

Notice the new name under the Kettler Kaper banner? Yes, we have a new reporter that I'm happy to introduce. She's a popular gal from Circle 7, a resident of our tract for several years and her hubby is on the local fire department. So, gals, when you're drinking that morning coffee, give Carmen a call—tell her your news! We love to hear from you.

We were indeed sorry to lose Millie West and greatly appreciated her wonderful write-ups. She has a job in downtown Torrance at the present time and so we'll miss her! Hope she'll be back with us after Christmas.

With Christmas drawing close, we hope all this sickness will soon disappear. The ever-prevalent "flu" bug has hit so many homes this week . . . there are so many, we can't count them all. The David Foote kiddies are still a-bed, and the nuptials caught David and Darlene Booth. At Kathy Way, Don Miller is recuperating from an appendectomy performed last week at Torrance Memorial hospital. His wife, Ann, and daughter, Linda, are happy to have him home again. Let's wish all a complete recovery!

A gay "surprise" was in store for Mrs. Kay Van Dalsen on November 28 when friends gathered at Mrs. Thelma Setzer's home on Walnut street to honor her with a stork shower. Co-hostesses were Mesdames Bertha McKinley, Emma Lou Clarke, and Lois Kelly. Guests enjoying the evening were Mesdames Margaret Witz, Essie Ford, William Dolaney, Theresa Sistrone, Beulah, Frederickson, Barbara Johnson, Jean Loy, Melba Hanson, Ann Blackstone, Alice Blackstone, Tulsa Backus, Betty

Lutheran Church to Hold Holy Communion Services

First Lutheran Church will celebrate Holy Communion at both the 10:45 morning worship and at a special 6:30 evening vesper service on Sunday, Rev. Paul Wenske has announced.

Speaker for the vesper service will be Rev. Carl Odell, an instructor at the Lutheran Bible Institute of Los Angeles.

Earl morning service will be held at 8:15 a. m., and Sunday school at 9:30 in the morning.

Cochrane and Loretta Faust.

Mrs. Lillian Middleton and daughter Betty visited Sgt. Clyde Middleton recently when they assisted in moving Clyde's family from Tustin to Costa Mesa, where he's stationed, last weekend. They also visited with Pfc Larry Middleton and his wife in Carlsbad. Yes, you guessed it—Larry and Clyde are Mrs. Middleton's sons, both in the Marine Corps. By the way, Betty has only recently returned from Topeka, Kansas, where she visited with relatives for seven weeks.

Twelve-year-old Chuckie Vecelli of Los Angeles spent last weekend with Douglas Dassenberg, also 12, of Middlebrook road. They really had a lot of fun.

The ever-popular game of Canasta was enjoyed recently at the home of Mrs. Bernice Moore of 235th street. First prize was won by Mrs. Vivian Wise and Mrs. Jane Lockett "copped" the booby prize. Other guests were Mesdames Ruth Butch, Jean Roberts, Helen Bell, Georgia Stroub, Bernice Howland, Leona Wimmel, Thelma Setzer, Kay Van Dalsen and Jo Devenish. Coffee and cake was served by the hostess.

Heard that the Redmond family of 236th street were involved in a auto collision last week—with all of them receiving minor cuts and bruises. Hope they are all fully recovered now.

Yes, tonight's the busy evening for Circle 7 members. In fact, they have been at the Methodist Church all day. If you receive your paper after 12 you can still drop in and see the many beautiful gifts on sale at this annual bazaar. All handmade articles will be displayed and homemade candy will hold your attention at the Circle 7 booth. Mrs. Helphand will be serving coffee, sandwiches and donuts for that "afternoon fatigue" feeling. Then the dinner's at 5:30 p.m.—Drop in!

We'd like to especially wish little Susan Sharon a very happy birthday this week and happy anniversary greetings to Jay and Carmen Nicker—also happy birthday to Carmen. (She didn't know I mentioned this—surprise!).

Local Vocalists To Appear in Yule Program

Two Torrance vocalists, contralto Dorothy Dallas of 2744 West 175th street and bass Lin Branum, 1803 Gramercy avenue, will appear as soloists on Sunday, December 16 during the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" at El Camino College.

The traditional Christmas program will be presented at 7:30 p.m. in the college's campus center.

Performing the Christmas portion of the oratorio will be the 50-voice El Camino College choir, R. Neil Hill, director, and the 230-piece College Community orchestra, Hamilton Maddaford, conductor.

Members of both groups include full-time college students and interested musicians from the surrounding communities.

Hill, formerly choral director at Pepperdine College and now in his first year at El Camino, will conduct the combined groups in the first performance of this difficult work on the college campus.

Also appearing in solo numbers will be Yvonne Thompson, soprano and Pat. Daugherty, tenor, both of Los Angeles. There will be no admission charge and the public is cordially invited.

Elks Arrange Lodge Dance

Redondo Beach Lodge No. 1378, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will hold a holiday dance Saturday, December 15 at the lodge hall in Redondo Beach. Elks and their ladies are cordially invited. The dance program will honor members of the lodge who have affiliated with "1378" during the current year. Harold Card, general chairman of the dance committee, has secured the music of Frank Martz and his band for the dancing. The band features lovely Ava Garden as vocalist.

Festivities will start at 9 p.m. Bill Everett will act as chairman of the evening.

Set for Saturday Night Charity Square Dance

Square dancers will promenade up and down for charity at El Camino college Saturday night.

A dance held from 9 p.m. to
