Sheriff Seeks Walteria Man, Son for Burglary

A 19-year-old Walteria youth and his father, whom Orange County sheriff's deputies want in connection with a number of burglaries there, apparently have "vanished from sight," the sheriff's office reports.

The pair are wanted for questioning; they were first implicated in the lootings after J. Polston, 18, 23851 Park St., was nabbed in a Tustin burglary and told that his father had forced the two boys into pulling the job.

Orange County Sheriff's Sgt. Boyd Sturgis said that Polston is being held pending a further investigation. Police departments from Bakersfield and Gardena, and the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department put "holds" on the recent devastating typhoon.

Local Man On Hokkaido Now

Cpl. Heroshi J. Mishikawa, of 1120 E. 223rd St., is serving with the combat-tested, 1st Cavalry Division on winter-bound Hokkaido Island, scene of a recent devastating typhoon.

With Russian territory at one point only three miles away, the division are concentrating on defensive tactics and taking advantage of the snow-covered mountains to learn techniques of Arctic warfare. The division recently arrived from Korea, where it had spent 17 months on the front lines. Nishikawa, a member of the regimental security detachment of the 5th Cavalry Regiment's Headquarters and Headquarters Company, holds the Combat Infantryman Badge and the Korean Service ribbon with one campaign star.
