Boys Held On Theft Charge

Two teen-aged Torrance boys are being held by San Bernardino police on car theft charges, Torrance police department records reveal.

The youths were stopped by San Bernardino officers and after a shake-down it was learned that their car was one stolen from the Compton area Monday. Officers here, who were scheduled to talk with the boys yesterday, said that the pair may have had something to do with other recent car thefts in this area.

CANNED FOODS

People in the United States eat twice as many canned vegetables today per capita than they did in 1909, but also consume about one-fourth more of the fresh vegetable varieties.

Last Rites Paid Alonzo J. Daniel

Services for Alonzo Jack Daniel, 72, were conducted Friday morning at the Stone and Myers Chapel, with the Rev. Walter Graham officiating.

Mr. Daniel, who lived in this area for 17 years, resided at 1531 W. 252nd St. He was employed in the Harbor Shipyards.

Interment followed the services at Roosevelt Cemetery. Surviving him are three sons; W. J. Lomita; Homer, Wilmington, and Clyde, Seattle, and one daughter, Mrs. Dale Bradford, Harbor City.

Services Held For Mrs. Bond

Rose Etta Bond, 79, of 1823 Andree Ave., was interred at Green Hills Cemetery yesterday morning, following her death at home, Thursday.

A resident of Torrance for some 25 years, Mrs. Bond was the widow of Arthur "Pop" Bond, one of Torrance's first barbers.

The Rev. C. M. Northrup conducted the services, held at the Stone and Myers Chapel. Surviving her are three nephews, including Don A. Kelly, Torrance, and two sisters.

C of C Members To Meet Monday

An open business meeting for all members of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the Council Chambers of the City Hall tomorrow evening from 4 to 6 p.m., Secretary Dale Isenberg reminded members yesterday.

Among things up for discussion tomorrow will be tourist and industrial promotion brochures, parking lots, membership, sidewalks for major streets, and other matters proposed by various members.

Man Pinches Gal; This Is News?

A 34-year-old woman broke into his house and wouldn't leave, so he arrested her, Sidney Apostel, 17815 Crenshaw Blvd., told police yesterday, morning.

Apostel said he asked her to go, she refused, so what else could a man do? The home-owner relied on a seldom used section of the penal code which allows a citizen to act as a police officer.

Reports show that Apostel charged the invader with disturbance of the peace, malicious mischief and trespass.

Court to Move From Gardena Next Wednesday

Cases appearing before the South Bay Municipal Court will be heard in the new court building at 1231 N. Pacific Ave., Redondo Beach, beginning Thursday morning, it was announced yesterday by Judge John A. Shidler. Formerly the Gardena Justice Court, the court will move Wednesday and will be ready for "business" Thursday morning, Judge Shidler said. During Shidler's annual vacation, Judge Collamer A. Bridge has been sitting in the court.

POWER CAPACITY

In a single second the U. S. light and power industry can generate enough electricity to supply an average U. S. family five years.

SERVICE PLANNED FOR HEART VICTIM

Funeral services will be held at Forest Lawn for Norman Laird, 31, a former resident here, who died of a heart attack Thursday in Corona del Mar. Mr. Laird, his wife, Virginia, and a daughter, Laura, 5, lived at 1508 Post Ave. for several years while he was working for Farmers Insurance Co. in Long Beach.

Beach. Laura was born in Torrance. Mr. Laird had not been ill.
