

Ballot Battalion To Be Started Here

Letters in the mail this week from the Torrance Kiwanis Club told of a new army that would soon be tramping the streets of Torrance.

It is called the "Ballot Battalion," and it is dedicated to war against war against the apathy and indifference of the voting public, according to Paul Loranger, president of the Kiwanis Club.

Temple Menorah Seeks Members

Temple Menorah, 112 N. Catalina Ave., Redondo, is holding an intensive drive for new members to join in the expanded activities, both religious and cultural, that the temple is offering Jewish residents of the area.

Under the spiritual leadership of Rabbi Max S. Aron, a fine Sunday School and Hebrew School are conducted. There are regular Friday night services, classes for adult education, a youth group for teen-agers, and a young married's club.

Concrete plans are in the making for a new temple building. Families desiring further information may call FRontier 4-1715.

Services Today For Mrs. Cook

Funeral services for Mrs. Nellie May Cook, 75, of 1508 Crenshaw Blvd., will be held today at the Gardena Foursquare Church at 2 p. m. Rev. Guy Tobey will officiate.

Mrs. Cook, who was a native of Monroe, Wis., died Sunday following a lingering illness. She leaves three sons, Russell, of Minneapolis; John, of Grants Pass, Ore., and Milas, of Auburn, Calif., and three daughters, Mrs. Sylvia Challe, of Alhambra; Mrs. Margaret Groves, of Grants Pass, and Mrs. Gladys Henderson, of 1508 Crenshaw Blvd.

Also surviving are eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

McMillan Funeral Chapel of Gardena handled funeral arrangements.

Poor Leo's Luck Starts Out Bad But Ends Worse

When Leo S. Espinoza crashed into the rear end of a car stopped for a red signal at 220th St. and Western Ave. Sunday evening, he started a whole chain reaction of bad luck.

One of the cars was badly damaged—Leo's.

One of the drivers was injured—Leo.

One of the drivers was booked on a drunk driving charge—Leo.

One of the drivers paid a $200 fine—Leo.

Witnessing the crash was Police Officer D. S. Hamilton, who was waiting for the same red light to change.

Hamilton sent Leo off to Harbor General Hospital for a bandage or two, then sent him off to jail to await a hearing.

Driver of the other car was Mary Batrach, 32, of San Pedro. City Judge Otto B. Willett, who said he has no sympathy for drunk drivers, especially those involved in auto accidents, sentenced Espinoza to pay $200 or spend 40 days in the county clinic.

Driver Booked After Death Car Crash On Ridge

A Hollywood Riviera resident was booked on a drunk charge Monday after he allegedly crashed into the rear of a car which moments before had hit the back of a lumber truck, killing a young bride of three months.

Bruce Gordon, of 450 Palos Verdes Parkway, Hollywood Riviera, smashed into a vehicle occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fairbanks, of Seattle, Wash., on Highway 99 near Oak Fl., police say. Mrs. Fairbanks was pronounced dead on arrival at Newhall Hospital.

A passenger in Fairbanks' car, William Farmer, 20, a sailor, was injured in the collision, as was Fairbanks.

Gordon was booked by Newhall sheriff's deputies.
