They say it's better to get all things done at once and get it over with, but judging from this past week, I, for one, would rather take things a little more easy with a breather in between. Open house, Tuesday; carnival Wednesday; and May Day festivities and bake sale, Friday, are just too many activities for one week. So, it's tired we are out at Carson, and I'm speaking for many.

"Bumper" was the name chosen for the baby goat, mascot for Cub Pack 230-C, during the pack's evening meeting Monday, April 28, at the Carson St. School. Cub Jack Brocnell was the winner in this most interesting naming contest, and says Bumper was intended to bump the Cubs into being better Scouts.

Den 3 opened the evening's activities with the Flag ceremony and won the monthly attendance, achievement and inspection awards. The den also served refreshments at the close of the evening.

Boys in Den 1 presented an amusing skit, "Things That Grow." Cubmaster Andrew Cochran presented the following awards: Jack Brocnell, bobcat; David Stewart, one gold and three silver arrows; Mike McCrary, one silver arrow; Ted Carter, two silver arrows; Danny Spencer and James Anderson, lion badges; Tarry Cluff, wolf; John Brimer, lion and two year pin; Peter Lawrence, silver arrow, and one year pin.

"Animals and Pets" is the booth theme for this group's participation in the annual Scout-O-Rama to be held June 6, and 7. Cub Pack 230-C is sponsored by the Ben Cluff Dairies.

Fishing at Alondra Lake at Alondra Park provided a pleasant Sunday outing for 27 boys from Pack 230-C, April 27. Jackpot fishing prizes were won by Bill Ward and Mike McCrary. Den mothers and committeemen accompanied the boys. Those adults enjoying the event were Cubmaster Andrew Cochran, Forrest Stewart, Mrs. Ralph Quincy, dron. After these activities a hamburger supper was enjoyed, and later gifts were opened and cake and ice cream finished off the big day.

Well, Carson St. School was well represented throughout Public Schools Week. Tuesday evening's open house was visited by many, many parents and friends, resulting in one of the best turnouts in the Harbor area. Wednesday's carnival was a huge success, and topping it off Friday were the children's May Day dances, also well attended. The kids were real cute and it was fun watching them. The PTA, in the meantime, carried on with a bake sale. So a full week it was at Carson.

This week is to be rather quiet says Mrs. M. G. Wallace, Carson's principal. Scheduled for this week was Mrs. Myrtle Molyneux's first graders' trip to International Airport Tuesday. Today Dr. Allen Gray of the Orthopedic Hospital in Los Angeles, will visit the posture classes and check on special cases, with parents in attendance. Miss Nellie Lewis is Carson's posture teacher.

Once again let us remind you of your vote on the June bond issues. Let's get these kids back on full day schedules. We need your vote.

Again in passing, we quote: "Of wasted words to which we all have to listen, the ones we waste the most are 'Say, have ya heard this 'un?'"

Bill Bartholomew New President Of Torrance Barber Shoppers

Installation of William Bartholomew as president of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA) to succeed Herb Allen has been scheduled for June 12, it was announced this week.

Bartholomew, one of the charter members of the Torrance chapter, was elected to the presidency of the group at last Thursday's meeting. Elected to serve with him were Howard McDonald, vice president; Don Cook, secretary; Al Ewalt, secretary; and Francis Lehr, Bud Bartholomew, Ray Lougee and Howard Foster to the board of directors. Herb Allen, the retiring president, was elected district delegate.

The meeting was highlighted by the visit of Dave Smith, representing the Long Beach chapter of SPEBSQSA. Other topics under consideration included plans for a "Family Night," to be held May 29. At that time the SPEBSQSA singers will entertain the families and the Shell Oil Singers, and a troupe from the Torrance High School Theatians.

A "Parade of Quartets" to be held in the early fall was also discussed. The Barber Shoppers meet at Torrance High School each Thursday evening. Any man who enjoys singing in the shower is invited to attend one of the meetings.
