

Disaster Film Making Rounds For Training

Showing of a disaster scene filmed by KTLA with Dick Lane narrating, is continuing this week, according to George Wovell, assistant director of Civil Defense.

Powell obtained the film from the television station last week and has been showing it to groups concerned with the organization of a civil defense program in the city.

City employees, members of the Fire Department, auxiliary police and other groups have seen the film. Powell said. The auxiliary police were shown the film at a meeting held last evening.

The scenes were filmed recently when crews were demolishing a section of buildings near the Los Angeles City Hall to clear rights of way for the freeway program. Actors from little theater groups volunteered their services as "victims" to make the film appear realistic.

Everything Ready for Today's 'Freedom Fair' Demonstration

The tents are up and everything is in readiness for today's "Freedom Fair," a demonstration of how the housewife is being freed from kitchen drudgery.

To open at 1:30 this afternoon at Frank's Furniture, 1324 El Prado, the fair will run for about two hours, according to Frank Dominguez, owner of the store.

Climax to the fair will come Saturday evening when a major appliance will be awarded to one of the women attending today's fair.

Among the appliances to be demonstrated are the laundry twin, the Laundromat and dryer; the frost-free refrigerator with automatic defrosting; and the electric ranges with magic sealed ovens.

To be eligible to participate in the appliance award, the housewife has only to register at the store today, Dominguez said.

"The 'Freedom Fair' is a demonstration of Westinghouse ambitions to free the housewife of drudgery in the kitchen," Frank Dominguez Jr. said.

Miss Clesta Meyers, home economist for Westinghouse, assisted by Lorraine Lane, home economist for the Edison Co., will demonstrate the time and money saving features of Westinghouse appliances. They will pass on money-saving ideas, recipes, and shortcuts to more freedom.

"Today's affair will be a combination party and anniversary celebration," Dominguez said.

RUTH HANOVER HELEN SCHMITZ SEASIDE RANCHOS 'Potpourri'

An extensive vacation was much enjoyed by Dorothy and Harvey Cole of 23102 Doris Way. While Dorothy's mother cared for the children the Coles wandered cross country . . . they stopped at Zion . . . Las Vegas where they saw Tony Martin at the Flamingo Club . . . attended an orthodontic convention in St. Louis where Harvey renewed friendships with his former professors at University of Illinois . . . visited Harvey's sister in Chicago, and his mother in Cleveland. Best of all, their trip is captured in colored film for future reminiscing.

Russ Hopkins of Doris Way is bedded with the measles. As a matter of fact, an annoying swelling keeps prodding me in the neck at the present time forcing me to conclude that my daughter has generously shared her mumps with me. Jeffrey Hurford on the measles list . . . Johnny Miller just one day recuperated from the measles, switched to mumps . . . his young neighbor, Skipper Brizius, is also enduring . . . and Billy Rainey on new Sharynne also mumping, with little Gail Rowan recently recovered from the same malady.

The musical, "Finian's Rain,"

A recent guest of Dottie and Jack Pomeroy was Bud Musers of Chicago, a United Airline captain who plans to move into this vicinity shortly. In response to many queries, Dottie is showing improvement of late and is extending her activities, very gradually, which makes us all very happy.

A baby shower last weekend for Jeannie Logsdon was hosted by Dolores Niedhart of new Sharynne Lane. Enjoying the lovely pink and lavender centerpiece and the novel favors were guests Terry Sanno, Frances Goulet, Dextra Evans, Darlene Mallory and Vella Hefferin.

Mrs. Eleanor Courtney, residing in the former Robert Harris home at 5481 Sharynne Lane, entertained Mrs. Eugene Miller, Mrs. Frank Hanover, and Mrs. Robert Harris at an informal luncheon.

A political luncheon, in connection with the coming election of June, was attended by Mrs. Paul Roettger, Mrs. William Schmitz, and Mr. Ben Haggott, who presided.

Helen and Fred Carlton, planning an extensive trip in June will go east to New York, Washington, D.C., and then to Detroit to pick up a new car (pending the results of the steel strike). It sounds perfectly wonderful, and Helen will keep us posted as to further details.

Teen-agers Gretchen Teach and Pat Hanover entered the local horse show at the Little Hills Saddle Club and were anxious to hear if the girls brought any blue ribbons back to the Ranchos.

Opinions of those visiting the school will be sought after the group has toured the new till-up elementary school.

Girl Scout Troop 1055 enjoyed an evening of skating last Friday evening at Skateland in Redondo Beach. Participating were Lorraine Ledwith, Bobbetta Holstein, Leah Anderson, Carol Robinson, Lolly Hanover, Judy Bristol, Sharon Herbst, Arlene Gale, Arlene Weber, Judy Newton, Roslyn Cleaver, Ellen Gault, Mary Johnson and Evvie Ann Barrett, all of whom were chaperoned by Mrs. Francis Parent.

Warren Schenck, Margaret and Paul Roettger, and Helen and Bill Schmitz were entertained last weekend by Glenna and Otto Willett of Hollywood Riviera. Judge and Mrs. Willett will be attending the dance tomorrow night at Terminal Island, which will provide an excellent opportunity for many of us to know better the man who is running in the June 3 election for Office No. 2 in the South Bay Municipal Court.

SUGAR USE
Sugars eaten by humans and animals end up in the body in the form of dextrose in the blood as well as in other forms of body tissues.

Circle No. 2 of the WSOS met on Tuesday, April 29, at the home of Marie Cunningham, Newton St. The most important business of the evening was the election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Joyce Beers was elected chairman and Gerrie Bowen will be co-chairman and assistant to the ways and means chairman. Other officers are Eva Bowen, treasurer; Josephine Mills, secretary; Bea Monaghan, ways and means chairman, and Lucille Howey, card chairman. After the business meeting the ladies enjoyed delicious refreshments of "angel" pie and coffee. Next meeting will be held at the home of Lucille Howey, Winlock Dr., May 27.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monaghan and son, Tommy, were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wrigley and their daughters, Donna, Diana and Rita Gay, in an outing to Big Pine over the weekend. They really had a good time enjoying a variety of activities from laying around in the sun to playing around in the snow. They left Friday, May 2, and returned Sunday.

Lucille Howey and Gerry Bowen enjoyed viewing the iris show at Alondra last week-end. This was the first show flower show to be held south of Hollywood, and was very much a success. According to the two women, they didn't realize there were so many different kinds of iris to be had.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell enjoyed a get-together with old friends at a party given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. James Brince in Gardena. About eight couples attended, and gossip about past times flew thick and fast. By the way, Bill walked off with the prize of the evening.

Walteria News Notes

By the way, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowen of Dana St. have returned to the old grind after a three-week trip during which they visited New Orleans and Mobile, and visited many friends and relatives in Anniston, Ala. They enjoyed perfect weather all the way, and although they tried hard, found no excuses to tarry longer than their planned time. Reports have it that instead of their picking up a Southern drawl, they left their Southern relatives with a Yankee twang. Ah, well, such is life. By the way, they visited Carlsbad Caverns and Billy the Kid's Museum on the trip home.

Announcement has been made this week that summer school classes will be held at Walteria School this summer. Classes will start Monday, June 23, at 8:30 and will continue for six weeks, closing Friday, Aug. 1. Pupils who attend will report to school at 8:30 and will be dismissed at 12:45. Any child who has been enrolled in school this year will be eligible to enroll in the summer session. Regular school year will end on Friday, June 13. Enrollment blanks will be distributed before that date.
